The New Light of Asia.

"The Iliad of India" some call it, and others liken it to Milton's "Paradise Lost." Whatever terms may be used to describe it, Edwin Arnold's remarkable poem, "The Light of Asia," has certainly won a place among the classics in literature, and the best edition of it will be wanted in every home library. Related to the religion of India it is not unlike Milton's immortal poem as related to the Christian religion. The new edition just issued by the Useful Knowledge Publishing Company, New York, is perhaps the most beautiful, typographically, which has ever appeared, and is of course far lower in price then any other edition published, which will compare with it, being only 20 cts. for the Utility binding, 30 cts. for cloth, and 40 cts. for the half Russia, or for the extra cloth gilt edges. This edition is especially valuable, and for that reason will displace every other, and cause those who are already supplied with other editions to put them aside and take this, because of the sketches of the lives of Edwin Arnold, the author, and of Buddha, the subject, and the numerous illustrative notes explaining the many references to persons, places, customs, etc., which are necessarily enigmatical to any one not deeply versed in the history, religion, and literature of India. These valuable additions are from the pen of Mrs. I. L. Hauser, a most competent writer, who was for many years a resident of India, and is known as the author of "The Orient and Its People." Enterprising booksellers will supply this edition, and canvassers and club agents are wanted very where, to whom very unusual terms and facilities are offered by the publishers.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Logansport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.

For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very small amount I did eat disagreed with me. I was annoyed very much from non-retention of urine. I tried many remedies with no success, until I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my stomach does not bother me any. My appetite is simply immense. My kidney trouble is no more, and my general health is such, that I feel like a new man. After the use of Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, I have gained twenty pounds in weight. O. B. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.
