FRAUNCES'S TAVERN.

No. 59 South Water Street.

THE Subscriber respectfully begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from No. 166 south 2d Street, to that large, commodious, House in WaterStreet, between Chesnut and Walnut Streets, lately occupied by Mr. Isaac Hazlehurst, and, on which he has spared no pains or expense, to make it convenient and agreeable for the reception of gentlemen. The House being situated on the same spot where the noted Beef Steak and Punch house formerly stood, has the advantage of the best water in this city, known long since by the name of the Green Tree Water. As there are several elegant Rooms, sufficiently large to accommodate any Society or company of gentlemen, and from his well known abilities to please in the line of his business, he flatters himself with a continuance of that patronage which he has experienced since he first opened a Public House in this City, and, for which he begs leave to make a public acknowledgment.

For the accommodation of Small Parties, the Large Coffee Room on the ground floor is conveniently fitted up with a number of Boxes, constructed in such a manner as to admit Gentlemen to be as private as they please—Where may be had, at any hour, Soups, Beef-Steaks, Relishes, &c. &c.

He has on hand, and will keep a constant supply of Spirituous and Malt Liquors, and of the best qualities.

Breakfasts provided—Also Dinners and Suppers cooked in the most approved manner, at a short notice, and Pastry of all sorts, made to order, in the House, or to send out at any hour.

He has several well furnished Bed Chambers, for Boarders and Lodgers, by the Week, month, or year.

SAMUEL FRAUNCES.

PROPOSALS

By FRANCIS & ROBERT BAILEY,

For printing by Subscription (in six large octavo volumes)

PLUTARCH's LIVES.

With Notes, Historical and Critical, and the life of Plutarch, by John and William Langhorne.

THE Editors think it would be an insult on common understanding, to expatiate on the merits of this work: they content themselves with giving the following quotation from the Preface:

"If the merits of a work may be esteemed from the universality of its reception, PLUTARCH'S LIVES have a claim to the first honors of literature. No book has been more generally sought after, or read with greater avidity. It was one of the first that was brought out of the retreats of the learned, and translated into the modern languages.

CONDITIONS.

I. This work shall be printed in weekly numbers, of sixty-four pages, at twenty-five cents each, payable on delivery. Responsible subscribers for six copies, shall receive a seventh gratis.

II. It shall be printed on a fine paper, and an entire new type.

III. As soon as a sufficient number of subscribers appear on the lists, the work will be put to press.

IV. Those who prefer, may receive them in volumes, of three hundred and eighty-four pages, bound, at one dollar and seventy-five cents each.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by the Editors, No. 116, High-street, Mr. John Parker, No. 76, North Eighth-street, Messrs Carey, Dobson, Campbell, Rice, Cruikshank, Stevens, Young, and Ormrod, Booksellers, Philadelphia, and by the principal Printers and Booksellers throughout the Union.

August 17. m&th 4w.

Ladies and Gentlemen, are respectfully informed,

THAT the Subscriber keeps an Elegant Coachee to hire, at a reasonable rate, which he drives himself as usual.

He also keeps an elegant Coach, to hire without horses, either of which may be engaged at his dwelling, No. 174 Arch street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, at his Stable in Eighth near Market street, or at his usual stand, the corner of Market and Fourth streets.

He returns his sincere thanks to his friends, and hopes to merit a continuance of their favors.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, a FARM, containing about 300 acres; distant from the City of Washington and George-Town between 8 or 9 miles. A Plot of this Land is in the hands of Mr. Peter Casanave of George-Town, likewise of Mr. Thomas Fitzsimons, in Philadelphia, and Mr. Robert Walsh, in Baltimore.

The Land will be shewn to any person, by applying to John Lydam, who lives adjoining. It lays in a most healthy country, and a good neighborhood. There are on it a common country dwelling-house, a large tobacco-house, and an orchard of good fruit, a constant stream with a great fall runs thro' it, and between 30 or 40 acres of good meadow may be easily made. The lines of the above include about 40 acres of woodland. Convenient credits will be afforded to the purchaser if desired.

DANIEL CARROLL.

Montgomery County, June 3, 1795.

N. B. The land lies between two merchant mills, one distant about a mile, the other almost adjoining. June 15. ‡§§‡
