JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Chats of Pretty Clothes Seen on Cool Spring Days—Sees Tableaux for Which Philadelphians Posed

I SAW Polly Thayer on Chestnut street yesterday, and she was looking well in a short coat of tan and a tan and blue striped skirt. The coat was bound with the tan and blue striped material and so was the hat which was also tan. You can imagine how pretty such a suit would look on Polly with her brown hair and wonderful coloring. She will make a radiant bride, don't you think? She and "Hoff" Dolan are to be married on Saturday, June 17, at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr.

I'VE just heard that Mrs. John B. Large is at the Chestnut Hill Hospital with appendicitis, which I am sure her many friends will be very sorry to hear. She was operated on on Saturday and is doing well. She lives at 58 West Willow Grove avenue, in Chestnut Hill, and is a cousin of Mr. Clifford Pemberton who also was quite ill this winter with a serious attack of grip, but is a great deal better now. Mrs. Large went on a cruise to Panama several months ago with Mrs. Frederick Falck whose daughter Mary is coming out next winter.

BEWARE of these chilly spring days. Lots of people are wearing some of their winter clothes again. I saw Mrs. Nicholas Biddle in town the other day and she didn't look a bit too warm in a leopard coat. She was wearing a small black straw hat with it, and the hat was trimmed with red and blue feathers.

Mrs. Emile Geyelin, who was Cecily Barnes and is most good looking, has a tan woolen cape but it's not like any I've seen before as it has rows of fringe on it. It looks very warm and when I saw her she wore with it a large black straw hat with bunches of red ribbons on either side. I saw Mrs. Standley Stokes several days ago in a very becoming gray and green plaid cape. I hear that her small niece, Catherine and Andy Porter's child, is to be called Ruth Coxe Porter after her grandmother and Mrs. Stokes' mother, Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe.

DID you know a rummage sale is to be given for the First Day Nursery at 2218 Lombard street? The sale is to be held at 1936 Market street on May 2 and 3. This was the first day nursery to be founded in this country. More than fifty children a day are bathed and fed and each is only charged eight cents. Mrs. Edward C. Hodge is president of the Board of Managers, and on the board are Mrs. Joseph Leidy, Mrs. Charles Platt, Mrs. Henry P. McKean, Mrs. Stanley G. Flagg, 3d, Mrs. Lothrop Ritchie, Mrs. Albert Rosengarten, Mrs. Bartol Brazier, Mrs. Richard Wain Meirs and Miss Clyde.

DID you go to the Charlotte Cushman Club benefit yesterday afternoon? The tableaux of famous actresses were most attractive and realistic. Fannie Wister made a very good Fannie Kemble in a gown worn by her great-grandmother. Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson was Elsie Ferguson as she appeared in Peter Ibbetson. Mrs. Sydney Hutchinson made a lovely Mrs. Siddons as she was in Gainsborough's famous portrait of her, and the indefatigable Mrs. Harrison Caner (I should think she would have been exhausted by her strenuous part in "Why Not" the night before), posed as Anna Held.

NANCY WYNNE.
