Special Notices.

Phthisis Pulmonalis, or Pulmonary Consumption, is, among medical men, understood to designate a disease caused by the presence and development of tubercles in the lungs. It generally augments in virulence as the disease advances. It has always been regarded as a chronic disease. In a majority of the cases its progress is slow and gradual; but at times it reaches its fatal termination with great rapidity. In the first stages of this disease the expectorations are of an opaque, yellowish-white matter; in the second stage it becomes softer and moister, assuming a soft cheesy appearance; and at last resembles pus or a colorless liquid, mixed with opaque shreds of tuberculous matter. Should the disease be allowed to progress beyond this stage, it would probably prove fatal; but by using Dr. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL, an effectual check can be put to its further progress. Do not there fore delay; do not trifle with your life; but purchase a bottle of this invaluable remedy; and then, if it merits your approbation, as we are sure it will, recommend it to your friends.

Prepared only by Dr. C M. JACKSON, No. 418 ARCH Street, and for sale by druggists and storekeepers throughout the United States and Canada. Price 75 cents per bottle. ja24-1t4t1w

The Eau Lustralie Hair Restorative of Jules HAUEL has an unprecedented reputation of imparting health, strength, and beauty to the hair; its use renders scraggy, wiry hair luxuriantly soft and glossy, and incilues it to curl. Sold by all Druggists and by JULES HAUEL & CO., No. 704 CHESTNUT Street, Philadelphia. ja23-3t

Farrel, Herring, & Co., sell more Safes than all others in the trade. And why so? The reason is, because the public have, from experience, faith in their security from midnight robbers; and, should a fire occur, their books and valuables are sure to be found in excellent preservation. ja12 tf

TESTIMONIAL.

BOSTON, July 19, 1857.

MESSRS. J. BURNETT & CO.: I cannot refuse to state the salutary effect in my own aggravated case of your excellent Cocoaine Oil—(Cocoaine).

For many months my hair had been falling off, until I was fearful of losing it entirely. The skin upon my head became gradually more and more inflamed, so that I could not touch it without pain. This irritated condition I attributed to the use of various advertised hair washes, which I have since been told contain camphene spirit.

By the advice of my physician, to whom you had shown your process of purifying the Oil, I commenced its use the last week in June. The first application allayed the itching and irritation; in three or four days the redness and tenderness disappeared—the hair ceased to fall, and I have now a thick growth of new hair.

I trust that others, similarly afflicted, will be induced to try the same remedy.

Yours, very truly,
SUSAN R. POPE.

Late Fire at Dubuque, Iowa.—Dubuque, Jan. 1, 1859. MESSRS. HERRING & CO.—Gents: I am requested by Mr. T. A. G. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that, on the morning of the 4th ultimo, about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your CHAMPION SAFES, were all preserved perfectly. And well may they be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was incessant pouring of flame directly upon the Safe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched. Yours, truly,
N. A. McCLURE.

New Publications.

A NOTHER NEW STORY

TO BE PRINTED IN THE

NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE,

SYLVAN HOLT'S DAUGHTER.

A NOVEL;

BY HOLME LEE, Author of "Kathie Brande."

We shall commence the publication of the above new novel in THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, on Tuesday, February 8. Those who wish to secure the first part of this extremely interesting novel should send on their subscriptions immediately. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is printed every Tuesday and Friday, on an imperial sheet of eight pages, and contains all the important Foreign and Domestic News of the day, our varied and copious correspondence—Home and Abroad—Reports of the Proceedings of Congress, Legislative Doings, important Agricultural information full reports of the Cattle, Horse and general Markets, &c. We shall, as hitherto, make THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE a Literary as well as a Political Newspaper, and we are determined that it shall remain in the front rank of Family Papers.

The following extracts, from the leading Literary journals of London, will give the reader an idea of what is thought of this new novel in Europe:

"We can say of 'Sylvan Holt's Daughter,' what few fictions would justify us in saying, that we believe no one can read it without becoming wiser and better, or without a feeling of gratitude to the writer who can present to us such varied aspects of our common nature, in so piquant and interesting a style, without one word or one idea to shock or displease the most sensitive moral feeling. We know of no work superior in the idiomatic vigor of its style or in the delicacy and truth of its feeling. It is evidently the result of profound observation and careful study, and could have been written only by a person of great analytic powers and an intimate acquaintance with the springs and motives of human conduct in almost every station of life." [Illustrated News of the World.

"This is a really good novel. * * * The tone is healthy and natural, the social lessons inculcated useful and important, and the language exceedingly happy and well-chosen."—London Literary Gazette.

"'Sylvan Holt's Daughter' is a fascinating young woman, with whom we recommend our readers to make acquaintance for themselves. It is well and solidly written. There is nothing slight or superficial. The author has evidently wished to do her best, and she has succeeded in writing a novel that is well worth reading, and which possesses the cardinal virtue of being extremely interesting."—[London Athenæum.

"It has body and substance, and is written in careful and good English.—[Saturday Review.
