New Publications.

TWO NEW BOOKS
JUST PUBLISHED.
THE CULPRIT FAY.
BY JOSEPH RODMAN DRAKE;
A charming edition of this world-celebrated poem. Duodecimo, elegantly printed upon tinted plate paper, bound in muslin, and illustrated by Ehringer. Price 50 cents.

"One of the most exquisite and absolute creations of pure imagination that has been produced since Shakspeare. * * It is worth the outlay of a fever to get (by seclusion and depletion) the delicacy of nerve, and perception to devour and relish, with intellectual piety, this subtily-compounded feast of imagination."—N. P. Willis.

SECOND.
THE NEW NOVEL,
TWO WAYS TO WEDLOCK;
A NEW NOVEL OF GREAT MERIT.
(Reprinted from the New Yorkl Home Journal)
12mo., muslin. Price $1.

"Never since the days of Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield," have read anything more beautiful than the story called "Two Ways to Wedlock."—N. Y Daily News.

The extraordinary popularity of this remarkable novel, which created so much interest as it ran through the columns of Morris & Willis's Home Journal, has called for its publication in complete book form, and a large sale is anticipated.

 These books are sold by all Booksellers, and will be sent by mail, postage free, to any part of the United States, on receipt of the price, by
