NEW PUBLICATIONS.

NOW READY:

QUACKENBOS'S NATURAL PHILOSOPHY FOR SCHOOLS AND ACADEMIES.

12mo. 456 pages. $1.

The attention of Teachers and School Officers is asked to this new School Philosophy, by

G. P. QUACKENBOS,

The popular author of the Rhetoric, First Lessons in Composition, and Illustrated School History of the United States. It is illustrated in the most liberal manner, is equally adapted to use with or without apparatus, and is believed to possess superior claims to consideration in point of arrangement, accuracy, elegance of style, general interest, and adaptation to the wants of schools. Numerous errors current in the School Philosophies of the day are here corrected, and all recent discoveries in the various branches of the subject are embodied.

Confident that this is such a work as is demanded by the progressive spirit of the age, and desirous of getting it before the educational world, the Publishers will send a copy for examination, post-paid, to any Teacher or School Officer, remitting one half its price.

ALSO:

HISTORY OF FRANCE, FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO MDCCCXLVIII. By the Rev. JAS. WHITE, Author of "The Eighteen Christian Centuries." 1 vol. 8vo. Price $2.

SUMMER BOOKS.

LOVE—(L'AMOUR.)

Translated from M. Michelet's great French work.

The unprecedented success of this last book, by the celebrated M. Michelet, is surprising. Edition after edition is called for. Booksellers throughout the country are ordering it in large quantities. "Praised by some, and condemned by others, it is the 'sensation' book of the day.—One volume, 12 mo. Muslin. Price $1.

UP AND DOWN THE IRAWADDI.

A new and elegant edition, with illustrations. Of this piquant book of travel and adventure, by Doctor Palmer, (translator of Michelet's "L'Amour,") critics on both sides of the Atlantic have characterized it as the most striking volume of travel since Kinglake's "Eothen." 12mo. Muslin. Price $1.

PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

A Domestic Diary, by a Clergyman's Daughter, of the events which occurred in a neighborhood on Long Island during the War of the Revolution. Prepared from actual manuscripts of home events never before published. The New York Leader, speaking of "this unexceptionable little antique-looking volume," says that "never before have we been introduced so closely to an apparently living, breathing woman of the Revolution; and never before have we had its cruelties, minor strategems and heroisms so forcibly shown." One volume, antique 12mo., elegant. Price $1.

These Books will be sent by mail, POSTAGE FREE, to any part of the United States, on receipt of the price.
