THE SOUTHERN PLATFORM.—The Charleston Mercury lays down the following platform as the proper course for the South to pursue in connection with the coming Presidential election. The Democrats of the North should read it attentively and see how far it becomes them to submit to it:

"1. Let the Legislatures of the Southern States, at their next meetings, distinctly declare the rights of the South, as plainly deducible from the Dred Scott case, accompanied with a resolution that they will vote for no one for the Presidency or Vice Presidency, who does not plainly and distinctly affirm and support them without non-committalism, dodging, or equivocation.

"2. Should the Charleston Convention declare and affirm these rights, and nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency who distinctly support them, then the Southern States will support such candidates; and should they be elected, proof will be afforded that the South may continue with safety in the Confederacy.

"3. But should the candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, thus fairly nominated by the Charleston Convention, be defeated in the Presidential election, and the Republican or Abolition party succeed in electing their candidates, then the Southern Legislatures, as soon thereafter as they shall successively assemble together, should recall their Senators and Representatives from the Congress of the United States, and invite the co-operation of their sister Southern States to devise means for their common safety.

"4. But should the Charleston Convention refuse to declare and affirm the rights of the South, as deducible from the Dred Scott case, or nominate candidates who will not affirm and support them, then let the Southern States nominate and support candidates of their own, plainly and faithfully reflecting and supporting their rights.

"5. Should the Southern States succeed in electing their sectional candidates thus nominated, of course they will deem it of sufficient proof for the present of their safety in the Union.

"6. But should the Southern States fail in electing the sectional candidates thus nominated, then let the same course be pursued as have been suggested in case the Democratic party be defeated with candidates standing on the rights of the South, and the Black Republican or Abolition candidates be elected."

THE PROPHETIC ELOQUENCE OF DANIEL WEBSTER.—As far back as 1845, Daniel Webster, in speaking of the rapid progress of events in the United States, said, prophecy kin dlink in the blaze of his rhetoric, "I look forward to the period when the people of the Pacific States will raise a standard for themselves as they ought to do; and when they inscribe upon its folds the sensible admonition to all men to go buy their garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, in Philadelphia."

A POETICAL GENIUS, in Wisconsin, gets off a poem after the style of Longfellow, of which the following stanza is a specimen:

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the great barn yard of life,
Be not an lazy cattle—
Be a rooster in the strife.
Be not always doubting,
But do as do other folks,
And wear the beauteous clothing
Got up by Granville Stokes,

NEW LAW BOOKS.
JUST PUBLISHED BY
LITTLE, BROWN & CO.,
112 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON,
HILLIARD ON TORTS;
THE LAW OF TORTS AND PRIVATE WRONGS.
BY FRANCIS HILLIARD, ESQ.,
Author of the "LAW OF MORTGAGES," &c.
In two volumes, 8vo. Price $10.
"We have examined with much attention this latest work of Judge Hilliard, and must record it as the most valuable of all the books he has given to the profession, since it supplies not merely a standard American work upon an important branch of the law, but a work where none existed before, upon a subject which, by its magnitude and its inaccessibility through ordinary channels of study or investigation, imperatively demands what it has received—a distinct, full, comprehensive, and philosophical treatment.
Upon the whole, we believe that the preparation of this treatise at this time is extremely well advised, and that it will prove to be of great practical use in the hands of both practitioners and students."—Boston Advertiser.
