Of course he did not like this, and felt a little sullen at the thought that after four or five years' hard fighting for his country—against rebels, he had to take their abuse or pay them well for the privilege of resenting. But Act. 3d suddenly lightens the prospect. A letter is placed into Frank's hands, and enclosed in the same envelope was found $17.35, the amount of costs. Dear Sir :- By the enclosed you will find that the same issues which the friends of the Union believed in and sustained during divine the other day how long he had been tended system of advertising, of which this gentleman is the most prominent representative, is not difficult to ascertain, and is the best argument in vindication of a system which, it is due to say, is every day gaining ground among the live and enter-What are those details? Simply, to write down all the names of all Democrats, of all Republicans, and of all doubtful voters.—
Have an executive committee that shall attend to this. Subdivide your election distincts, and bring all the weight of your influence to bear on the doubtful ones to change them. Go to work and don't blow about it. Do it eilently. Hold your tongue about what you do. There is always some one in a locality who is weak-kneed. Go at him carefully and fix him. I come here to urge you to tiffs work.

Substance of the sassertion, please examine our remarks to Agents, which are as follows:

If you fall to make converts, why resolve to organize the Democracy and go as a phalanx to the polls. Take warning by the falling off of your vote in 1867, by Democrats staying at home. See that every man comes to the polls on the day of election. Bring them if neccessary. This work will tell in its influence in the coming election. Attend to the men ready to be naturalized. The chairmen of the State and County Committees are powerless unless you join with them and assist. If this work should be done victory will be won.
