TO THE BENEVOLENT.—MORE than two hundred ladies have associated themselves, under the name of the PENN RELIEF ASSOCIATION FOR SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS, and are devoting one afternoon and evening of each week, at the Spring Garden Institute, corner of BROAD and SPRING GARDEN Streets, in making up such articles as are most needed by our sick soldiers.

Committees of these ladies visit every hospital in the city to ascertain the necessities of the inmates, and, as far as possible, to supply them. They are also forwarding to distant points such supplies as are most wanted. To be responsible parties are to be found who will receive, and make a proper distribution of them.

To do these things large means are required, and this appeal is made to the benevolent to assist them by donations of money or goods.
