Great Cities of the World.

To the Editor of The Press:

SIR: It is interesting to notice that the great cities of the world in all ages, are found inland, like Philadelphia, and not on great ocean harbors. The following are a few examples: Alexandria, Amsterdam, Antwerp, Ava, Bankok, Berlin, Brussels, Cadiz, Calcutta, Canton, Damascus, The Hague, Jerusalem, Lisbon, Liverpool, London, Mexico, Montreal, Moscow, Nankin, New Orleans, Oporto, Paris, Pekin, Quebec, Rangoon, Rome, Rotterdam, Rouen, St. Petersburg, Stockholm, &c. The fact is both interesting and curious. Who will explain it?

I am, respectfully yours, A. B.

Philadelphia, June 2, 1863.

A MIDSUMMER MELODY.

'Twas a night in the dog days,
And all through the house,
Night prowlers were stirring—
Fleas, bedbugs, and mouse.
The children, uneasy,
Squirmed this way and that—
The bedbugs preferred them
Because they were fat.
But at dawn, on each insect
Lyon's death powder fell:
And the rats and the mice, too,
Succumbed to his Pill.

Lyon's Powder will kill all insects. Lyon's Magnetic Pills are sure death to rats and mice. Sold everywhere

THE NEW YORK SCHOOLMASTERS.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

On the island of Manhattan,
Where the pigs all squeak in Latin,
And the turkies which they fatten
For the kitchen,
Have the best of education,
And all sorts of information
Are quite rich in;

Where the people of all classes
Lick up learning like molasses,
And each chimney-sweep surpasses
Aristotle,
Or that most profound of sages
Who the little imps escapes
In a bottle;

On that isle for learning glorious,
Hark! the teachers are uproarious;
How they rage like noisy boreas,
While they utter
Much complaint because their payment
Does not furnish them with raiment,
Bread and butter!

Oh, how different the case is
In our Pennsylvania places,
Where the intellectual graces
Thrive and fatten;
All our teachers here are paid well,
And at Tower Hall arrayed well;
Ple! Manhattan!

HEADQUARTERS HOME GUARD, CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, June 2, 1863.
(Special Order No. 9.)
The announcement of the death of Colonel JOHN RICHTER JONES, of the 58th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, in action recently, in the Department of North Carolina, comes to us as one of the saddening realities of destructive war.
Born of revolutionary stock, and educated in this city, having been graduated at the University of Pennsylvania with high honors, and admitted to the bar in the year 1859, Colonel Jones became a successful member of the various courts, and continued in full practice till the year 1861, when he was appointed an Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the city and county of Philadelphia, whose duties he performed creditably to himself and satisfactorily to his fellow-citizens, until the year 1862, when his term of office ended.
On his retirement from the bench he betaked himself to agriculture and to literary pursuits, in Sullivan county, in this State, where he was soon distinguished as one of the most vigorous and influential men in the county.
On the occurrence of the present rebellion, Colonel Jones, with that ardent zeal for the honor and welfare of the country which characterized him, though without experience in military affairs, offered the services of a regiment of infantry to the Government for the term of three years, and, with it, was at once mustered into the service of the United States.
Having joined the army at Fortress Monroe, he shared in the capture of Norfolk, and, after much active service in the eastern portion of Virginia, he was transferred to the Department of North Carolina, in which he has served with great credit and distinction until his death, a few days since, in battle.
Having the confidence of his superior officers and the affection of his men, Colonel Jones was frequently selected for the execution of delicate and difficult enterprises against the enemy, the success of which was such that his name and his regiment became famous and terrible to the enemy in the region in which he operated.
A gamer, a scholar, a gentleman, a soldier, and a Christian, Colonel John Richter Jones illustrated the character of each in the very-utility of his employment, and sealed with his blood his devotion to his country, his literary and his military.
An example to men of mature age, and a shining light to the young in the path of duty, the name of John Richter Jones is inscribed high on the music-roll of fame, while his country mourns the sacrifice of such a man in the most favorable of wars.
It is ordered:
1. That Companies A, C, and D, of the 1st Regiment of Artillery of this force be detailed to unite with the funeral escort of the late Col. John Richter Jones.
II. They will be respected by their respective Commanding Officers to Col. Charles S. Smith, of the Gray Reserves, its commander, at Independence Hall, at 3 o'clock P. M., on Wednesday next, the 3d inst., for that service.
III. Captain Levering, Company A, of the 2d Rifles, will receive the remains on their arrival at Roxborough, and will pay the last honors to the distinguished dead. By order of
A. J. PLEASONTON,
Brigadier General Commanding Home Guard.
WM. BRADFORD, A. Adjutant General. 1t

TO THE UNION AND LOYAL LEAGUES AND ASSOCIATIONS, AND LOYAL CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES:

PHILADELPHIA, May 25, 1863.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: By direction of the UNION LEAGUE of Philadelphia, the undersigned have the honor to invite your attention to the following Resolutions, to wit: Resolved,

"1. That the League will celebrate the approaching Anniversary of American Independence by appropriate ceremonies, at the Hall of Independence.

"2. That all the Union Leagues and Associations in the United States be invited to participate in the celebration, and that they be requested to send deputations from their respective bodies for that purpose.

"3. That it be recommended that the deputies be authorized to represent their respective constituents in any action that may be deemed necessary and expedient to perfect the organization of the friends of the American Union and Government throughout the United States.

"4. That the Committee of Correspondence be authorized to prepare a circular letter, communicating these Resolutions to the Union Leagues and Loyal Citizens of the respective States, and to adopt such measures as may be necessary to carry them into effect."

For the first time in the history of our Country, the masses of the American people are now invited to commemorate the birth of the UNION, at the place where it was born:

To re-assert the great principles of the Declaration, that "All men are created equal, and are endowed by their CREATOR, with the INALIENABLE RIGHTS of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness:"

To acknowledge our obligations to mankind, to maintain those principles as our fathers did, "with a firm reliance on the protection of DIVINE PROVIDENCE:"

To declare the INDIVISIBILITY of the AMERICAN UNION:

To declare the inflexible purpose of the American people, as GOD shall give them strength, to subdue the enemies of the Union, and re-establish and perpetuate the NATIONAL AUTHORITY, wherever it has been overthrown by treason or rebellion:

To declare to foreign nations, that while we desire peace with them, we shall hold them responsible for any encouragement they may give to the rebellion against the Government of the United States:

To give to history an appropriate expression of our gratitude to the patriot-armies and navy of the Republic: and

To declare our determination to sustain the constituted authorities of the Government now and hereafter, in all measures adopted and prosecuted by them for the suppression of the rebellion WITHOUT COMPROMISE WITH TRAITORS, as the only means of securing an honorable and lasting peace.

The Committee are gratified to announce that the PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES has accepted an invitation to participate in the proceedings.

Fellow-citizens of the United States, we call upon you to co-operate with us in this FIRST NATIONAL CELEBRATION, and to adopt such measures as you may deem proper, to make it worthy of a great people who have inherited, and now possess and appreciate, the blessings of liberty:
