HARRIS QUESTIONS WIFE'S PARENTAGE

Former N. Y. Bank Official Avers Alleged Father Was Bachelor

By Associated Press

New York, Sept. 13.—Beverly D. Harris, former vice president of the National City Bank, who is seeking annulment of his marriage on the grounds that his wife misrepresented her family and true station in life before their wedding in St. Louis in 1915, yesterday filed a supplemental affidavit purporting to indicate that she was of illegitimate birth.

According to his complaint, she told him before marriage that she was the daughter of Stacker Lee, member of a prominent family, and a niece of Eli Rayner, also of high social standing in Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Harris alleges that his investigations have revealed Stackler Lee died a bachelor.

Mrs. Harris, through her attorneys, denied she ever claimed Stacker Lee as her father, and stated "defendant is now informed and believes that her mother married one Samuel C. Lee, who was related to said Lee family in Memphis."

The complaint set forth that Mr. Harris believes his wife to be the daughter of Mrs. Saluda Ann Harris Lee, third wife and widow of Samuel C. Lee, who died in 1887. Mr. Harris further alleged that at one time Mrs. Harris swore that she was born in 1895.

CATTLE AND APPLE EXHIBITS FEATURE MT. HOLLY FAIR

Politicians' Day Expected to Bring Out Great Crowd Tomorrow

Mount Holly, N. J., Sept. 13.—The Mount Holly fair this year shows that Burlington County is becoming one of the greatest fruit-producing counties in the United States, especially in the production of apples. When it opened yesterday there was presented the finest display of apples that has ever been made at this fair. There are now on exhibition the best apples that twenty commercial growers in the county can produce.

Another thing that attracted much attention was the cattle show. The special attraction in this connection is the display of Holstein-Friesians from the Rancocas Stock Farm, Burlington County dairymen also have some fine cows, heifers and bulls, all of which are attracting attention. There is also a Duroc swine exhibit from the Rancocas Stock Farms. It is expected that politicians' day tomorrow will be one of the biggest in the history of the fair. United States Senator Freilinghuysen, Gubernatorial Candidate William N. Runyon, Judge Silzer and the various county leaders and workers will be present.
