(From the Richmond Whig.)

The Charleston Courier makes a timely suggestion in recommending the attention of our Government to the naturalization and cultivation of Calisaya, for the preservation of the health of our soldiers. This article has a peculiar effect upon the liver, and guards the system against disease by exposure and irregular diet. It is said that the great success of the Plantation Bitters of Dr. Drake, which, previous to our unhappy difficulties, was found in most Southern homes, was owing to the extract of Calisaya Bark, which it continued, as one of its principal ingredients. "In confirmation of this, we have heard one of our most distinguished physicians remark, that whenever he felt unwell from ordinary dietetic or atmospheric causes, he invariably relieved himself by Plantation Bitters. Now that these Bitters cannot be obtained, a substitute should be prepared. We understand our Government has opened negotiations with Dr. Drake, through a secret agent, but with what truth we do not know." * * *

We are exceedingly obliged to the Richmond Whig for its remembrance of "Auld Lang Syne," but we can assure "Our Government" that the Plantation Bitters are not for sale to any "secret agents," North or South. There is probably several other things that "Our Government" will yet want.

We know that we have the best and most popular medicine in the world. We are not afraid to show what it is composed of.

Physicians are compelled to recommend it.

CALISAYA BARK has been celebrated for over two hundred years, and was sold during the reign of Louis XVI, King of France, for the enormous price of its own weight in silver. It is remarkable for Dyspepsia, Fevers, Weakness, Constipation, &c.

CASCARILLA BARK.—For Diarrhœa, Colic, and diseases of the stomach and bowels.

DANDELION.—For Inflammation of the Loins and Dropsical Affections.

CHAMOMILE FLOWERS.—For enfeebled digestion.

LAVENDER FLOWERS.—Aromatic, stimulant, and tonic—highly invigorating in nervous debility.

WINTER GREEN.—For Scrofula, Rheumatism, &c.

ANISE.—An aromatic carminative; creating flesh, muscle, and milk; much used by mothers nursing.

Also, clove-buds, orange, caraway, coriander, snake-root, &c.

S.—T.—1860—X.

Another wonderful ingredient of Spanish origin, imparting beauty to the complexion, and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown to the commerce of the world, and we withhold its name for the present.

Humbugs and quacks howl about the Plantation Bitters; but the following is what's the matter, and they know it:

PLANTATION BITTERS WILL CURE

Cold Extremities and Feverish Lips.

Your Stomach and Fetid Breath.

Flatulency and Indigestion.

Nervous Affections.

Excessive Fatigue and Short Breath.

Pain over the Eyes.

Mental Despondency.

Prostration, Great Weakness.

Sallow Complexion, Weak Bowels.

LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPEPSIA.

Very particularly recommended to Clergymen, Merchants, Lawyers, and persons of sedentary habits. Also, for gentle females and weak persons who require a gentle stimulant, free digestion, good appetite, and clear mental faculties.

Sold by all respectable Physicians, Druggists, Grocers, Hotels, Saloons, Country Stores, &c.

Be particular that each bottle bears the fac-simile of our signature on a steel-plate label, with our private Government stamp over the cork.

OBITUARY.

Died at Gettysburg, aged just 31 years, First Lieutenant and Acting Captain WILLIAM J. SILL, 50th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, of a wound in the right leg received in the battle of the 1st of July instant.

Before the breaking out of the war, William J. Sill was endeared to all his friends as a quiet, unaffected, manly, and noble-hearted young man, devoted to the gentle arts and amenities of domestic life. He was one of those simple, frank, and affectionate natures that are most valued and loved by their most intimate acquaintances, and whose affections seek in their steady flow for the companionship and reciprocation of such as they have known the longest and the best. Very many quiet families, when they read of his untimely death, will remember his exquisite skill and genius as a musician, and his amiable readiness at all times to contribute to the innocent pleasures and rivalling the effects of many a famous composer.

He was one of the very first to take the field to maintain the honor and supremacy of our country. He served as a private in Colonel Patterson's three-months' Regiment of Washington Grays, and then took the field again as second lieutenant of the 75th Pennsylvania Regiment, for three years. He followed its flag in almost constant service, and participated in most of its marchings, campaignings, perils, and victories under Generals Rosecrans, Sigel, and Howard. His regiment were among the first to re-enter Pennsylvania in pursuit of Lee, and among the first to attack him at Gettysburg in the impetuous onset of our Pennsylvania hero, Gen. Reynolds. Lieut. Sill fought like a hero, at the head of his company, and fell, severely wounded, rallying his men, exclaiming to them, that "they should not falter at his fall, but press on." The wave of battle passed on, leaving him a prisoner in the hands of the enemy, until the humanity of some unknown rebel general returned him to the Union lines to die. He lingered after his return, and died in great peace, in the arms of his young and devoted wife. The dear friends that every his early death will be forever proud to remember that Heaven vouchsafed him the most beautiful entrance upon immortal life. It is, indeed, sweet and noble to die for one's country when one dies in the arms of love and glory.

THE TIMES.
BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.
That we have fallen on evil times
I mournfully confess,
For Fate's decrees and human crimes
Bring trouble and distress.
But not in murmuring complaints
The remedy is found;
The good man's courage never faints,
Whatever ills abound.
The patriot's hope survives the shock
When stormy factions rave,
And, like the right-house on the rock,
Resists the threatening wave.
Our Ship of State, though tempest tost,
Beholds the beacon ray,
And though benighted, can't be lost
While that directs her way.
The patriot's duty is the card
By which our course we steer,
And while its teachings we regard,
No breakers need we fear.
So when we choose the proper course,—
And steer for Tower Hall,
No disappointment, or remorse,
Or sorrow can befall.
We have the largest assortment of Seasonable Ready-made Clothing in Philadelphia, which we are selling at prices much below present values.

THE INVALID CORPS.
BY GENERAL ORDERS No. 105, from the War Department, authority is given for creating a military organization, to be composed of such worthy officers and soldiers as may have become disabled from wounds received in service, or from disease contracted in the line of duty, and to be called the INVALID CORPS.
As it is to be composed of VETERANS who have become more or less crippled in the service of their country, and have produced evidence of worthiness, this will be emphatically a CORPS OF HONOR, reckoning among its numbers many of the noblest and most gallant sons of America, brave relics from every battle field of the war, gathered under the fostering protection of a grateful Government.
It is to be NATIONAL in its character, having no reference to States; hence an applicant, furnishing the necessary qualifications, may be mustered by any mustering officer appointed under the enrolment act, whether in his own or in another State.
Its officers and men will be designated, as a mark of distinction, by a uniform peculiar to themselves, and their duties will be much home service as they may be capable of performing, thus relieving many thousands of able-bodied troops whose services are needed in the field.
One office has been open for a few weeks, for the enlistment of invalid discharged soldiers, at No. 835 Lombard street, Philadelphia. This is now closed, and another opened at No. 2443 South THIRD Street, Philadelphia, adjoining the office of Captain LEHMAN, Provost Marshal of the First Congressional District.
A camp has been located near Harrisburg for the reception of all recruits for this corps enlisted in this State, where comfortable quarters are furnished, and the recruits uniformed, armed, and equipped. The following information concerning this corps is published by the War Department, viz:
"The term of enlistment in the Invalid Corps shall be three years, unless sooner discharged. It is further announced that no officer or soldier of the Union shall be entitled to or receive any pension, premium, or bounty, for enlistment, or re-enlistment, or service in the Invalid Corps. Claims for pensions or bounties, which may be due for previous service, will not be invalidated by enlistment in the Invalid Corps. Bounties cannot be drawn, or accrue to the benefit of any man, during his service in said corps. The officers and men will be organized into companies of infantry, of the same strength as is now authorized by law for the United States infantry.
"The officers and enlisted men will receive the same pay and allowances now authorized by law for the United States infantry, and will be paid in the same manner.
"Men enlisted in, or transferred to, the Invalid Corps will be subject to the Articles of War, Army Regulations, and the same as other soldiers, and will be required to perform all duties within the limit of their physical capacity, as laid down in the Rules and Regulations for that corps; but for the convenience of the service they will be selected for three grades of duty. Those who are most efficient and able bodied, and capable of using the musket and performing guard duty, light duty, &c., &c., will be assigned to companies of the 1st Battalion. Those of the next degree of physical efficiency, including all who have lost a hand or an arm, or the equivalent, will be in the 2d Battalion. Those now the least effective, and including all who have lost a foot or a leg, will be assigned to the 3d Battalion.
Companies of the 1st Battalion will be employed mainly as provost guards and garrisons for cities, but may be assigned to forts, field works, and guard duty near the cities and other important points. They will be armed with rifle muskets, and will not be liable to active campaigns with the field armies.
Companies of the 2d Battalion will be armed with side-arms only, and will be employed as guards of buildings, hospitals, &c., and will have companies of the 1st Battalion on duty with them when the use of firearms may be necessary.
The companies of the 3d Battalion will be armed with side-arms, like the 2d Battalion, and will be employed in hospitals as cooks, nurses, ward masters, clerks, orderlies, &c., &c.; in offices of these companies doing the duties of military assistants at the hospitals.
For further information, discharged soldiers are invited to call at 835 South THIRD Street, or at the office of any provost marshal acting under the authority of the enrolment act.
