THE SOLDIER'S EXPERIENCE.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Bard—Tell me, soldier, just returned,
What hast thou from warfare learned?
Soldier—I have learned to do and bear:
All the warrior's art is there.
I have learned protracted pain,
Toil and hunger to sustain:
On the naked earth to lie,
With no curtains but the sky:
On each form of death to gaze,
In the battle's livid blaze:
Yes, and more appalling yet,
In the crowded lazaret.
In affliction's darkest day,
I have learned to hope and pray:
And, whatever wrongs I bear,
Not to murmur or despair.
Bard—Aye; but, soldier, hast thou learned
That the pittance thou hast earned,
Should be carefully applied
For thy comforts to provide?
Soldier—Yes: I've learned that lesson too.
And the course I now pursue,
Is to BENNETT'S great Bazaar,
Where the greatest bargains are.

The largest assortment of seasonable Ready-made Garments in Philadelphia, selling at reduced prices.
TOWER HALL,
518 MARKET Street,

HAVE YOU A COUGH? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. Do not allow your cold to take its own course. Two-thirds of the victims of consumption owe their afflictions to the fatal mistake of "waiting for a cough to get well of itself." Do not fall into this error, but avail yourself at once of a remedy which thirty years' experience has demonstrated is certain to produce a speedy cure.

HAVE YOU ASTHMA OR PHTHISIS? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, which will overcome the spasmodic contraction of the wind tubes, and cause them to eject the mucous or matter which clogs them up, and by an easy and free expectoration remove all difficulty of breathing.

HAVE YOU BRONCHITIS? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. This widespread disease, which may generally be described as an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the wind tubes, or air vessels, spreading through every part of the lungs, is often taken for Consumption. The Expectorant subdues this inflammation, relieves the attending cough, pain, and difficulty of breathing, and, if the case is not of too long standing, will certainly produce a cure.

HAVE YOU CONSUMPTION? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. It cleanses the lungs from all irritating matters, while at the same time it heals and invigorates them. Of all the remedies which have been offered to the public for this dread disease, none have stood the test of time or maintained so universal a popularity as this Expectorant. Thousands who have been given up by their physicians as incurable have been restored to perfect health by its use, and their testimony must carry conviction to all who read it.

HAVE YOU PLEURISY? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. By taking two or three large doses in the early stages of the disease, in quick succession, and covering the chest with a thick piece of flannel, which has been saturated with the Expectorant, this troublesome pain is soon allayed, and subdues the inflammation at the outset.

HAVE YOU WHOOPING COUGH? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. There is no remedy which so effectually overcomes this disease as the Expectorant. What parent can witness the sufferings of his child from this distressing complaint without doing all in her power for their relief? What medicine so pleasant to the taste, or so certain to produce immediate benefit? Give it a trial, then, and let it prove its efficacy.

HAVE YOU CROUP? Then use JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. Children are subject to this disease more sudden in its attacks, or the absence of prompt relief, none more fatal in its results than Croup. Parents, therefore, should keep at hand a remedy sure and thorough. Such a remedy may be found in the Expectorant, and every careful mother will keep a supply by her.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT Is a standard medicine. For thirty years it has been before the public, and during this period its curative powers have been testified to by all classes of people in all quarters of the world. Physicians, clergymen, lawyers, merchants, and mechanics, have expressed its remedial effects, and have furnished us with their testimony, and it may be found at length in our Almanac. To their convincing certificates we would refer the doubting.

Among the many thousands of persons who recommend the use of JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT and FAMILY MEDICINES from receiving or witnessing their beneficial effects may be found the names of Rev. JOHN DOWLING, D. D., Pastor of the Berean Baptist Church, New York.
