THE ANCIENT STRANGER.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Ancient stranger, speak sincerely,
Why that shudder in thy frame?
Thoughts of those thou lovest dearly
May be to thy memory came.
Are thy loved ones, then, in danger?
Does thou for thy safety fear?
Tell, oh tell me, ancient stranger,
Be confiding and sincere.

Or does palsy make thee shiver,
Or the intermittent chill?
Does disease infect thy liver,
And thy heart with sadness fill?
Ancient stranger, now thou sighest
Like a penitential saint.
With a gesture thou repliest,
"None of these is my complaint."
Ancient stranger, shivering sadly,
Will thou pardon my mistake?
Now I see I judged thee badly,
'Tis the weather makes thee shake.
Dressed too thinly for December—
This, in brief, is all thy woe:
Hear my counsel, and remember,
Go to Bennett's Tower, go.

STEINWAY'S PIANOS.

The fame of these instruments has extended to every part of Europe. We find on the programme of the Philharmonic Concerts in Bremen and Brunswick a note stating that the grand piano fortes used were "from the manufactory of Messrs. STEINWAY & Sons, New York." We also see by a London paper, noticing the fact of WILLIE PAPE playing before the Prince and Princess of Wales during the bridal festivities, that "the piano used at the castle was one of STEINWAY & Sons' New York, which took the prize medal at the World's Fair."

PLANTATION BITTERS.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

RESEDEURY, Wis., Sept. 16, 1863.

"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *"

C. H. FLAUTE."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

"* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters. * * *"

EDWARD WOUNALL."

The following is from the Matron of the Union Home School for the Children of volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
NEW YORK, August 4, 1863.

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in the head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite increased; strength and health followed. * * * *

Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Then will send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.

Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y."

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK, & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C."

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. D. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, Agent for Colgate & Co., 224 Broadway."

&c., &c., &c., &c., &c., &c., &c.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid, brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Cilasaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.
