The message opens with a recognition of the profound gratitude due to God for the blessings conferred on our people during the past year, and passes to an examination of the State Finances. The State debt on the 15th of January. 1867, was $37,704,4 9.77; on the 30th of November, 1870, it was $31,111,661.90showing a reduction in three years of $6.592.747.87. of which $1.702.879.05 were paid during the past year. In orlighten the burdens of taxation, as also to guard against such raids on the Treasury as was attempted last winter in the "nine million steal" bill, the Governor recommends that all the securities belonging to the Sinking Fund be sold and the proceeds be applied to a liquidation of the debt.

A Convention to amend the State Constitution is advocated, and among the reforms urged are provisions to generalise legislation as far as possible—to break up the vicious system of locallegislation which now occupies an undue portion of the Legislature, producing nequality as between the counties, and working extended demoralization—to secure minority representation-limit Postmaster-A.
