All the leading football teams came through with victories in their games of Saturday when Frankford, Holmesburg and Conshohocken took their opponents into camp.

Frankford and Conshy won with ease and Holmesburg romped off with a 14-0 triumph over the Thomas A. C., of Bethlehem. This is a fine margin when it is considered the team was minus the services to both Stan Cofall and Pat Smith.

The Shenandoah Yellowjackets did not provide the opposition for the Frankford yellowjackets that was expected. Heinie Miller and his crew added sixteen points in the opening period and also scored in the third and final quarters.

The lone score of the visitors was the result of a field goal by Barron, the big Shenandoah halfback. For the Northeast eleven Lebecka, Lightner, Bowser and Elliott divided the honors. The crowd that saw the fray was the largest of the season.

Up at Holmesburg

As Conshohocken had met Thomas A. C., of Bethlehem, the previous Saturday and won 19 to 0, considerable attention was directed to the clash at Holmesburg. The suburbanites scored twice, but Cofall was with the Catholic High team and Pat Smith was also among the missing. Everything considered the result was all that was expected by Holmesburg fans.

This club is making extensive preparations for the big football reunion on Thursday night at the Roosevelt Inn on the Northeast Boulevard. The affair is in the nature of a dance. All the players of the leading teams and the majority of the smaller ones have accepted invitations to attend.

Conshohocken had a picnic on Saturday with the St. Ludwig's eleven, of Chester. Manager [illegible]ford said to the best of his ability he learned the score was 67 to 0, and no details of the massacre were kept.

Colwyn handed the West Philadelphia Scholastics a beat trimming 34 to 6 on the home gridiron on Saturday, in which McCann with four touchdowns was the star. Colwyn journeys to Bensington Saturday and must defend its Delaware County championship game. 12 to 0 was a hard-fought battle and Colwyn had the best of the play, although on the short end of the score. Strawbridge made 12 downs for Westtrolcks, and Freeman counted a touchdown and Duke Kane a field goal for Colwyn.

St. Callistus humbled Holy Name Catholic Club in a hard-fought encounter at Seventh street and Lansdowne avenue, 9 to 0. The feature of the game for the Saints was the open field running of Harry Murakanis and the line plunging of Brogan and Adams.

Virgil Johnson's Millville eleven turned back the All-Phillies 12 to 0. Hogan and Sparks were the stars for the winners, while Murakanis, who also played for the All-Phillies, excelled for that team. Millville has a wonderful record for the season, and Manager Johnson will challenge several of the teams in the northern section of the State who may dispute his claim to the championship.

The Riverside eleven traveled to Norwood and humbled the Delaware County club, 25 to 7. The Red Green team had considerable welfare at its disposal and this accounted in a large measure for the one-sided victory.

Greenwood Post, named after that famous gridiron warrior of bygone days, Teddy Greenwood, won over Randall A. A. at Tulip and Ann streets 13 to 0. McMaster was the star for the Lexinghites.

Delco of Darby handed Home Milford Racine team its first defeat in two years at Darby, 18 to 0. The victory was in keeping with the showing the Delcos made in all its games so far this year, with ease. Delco is preparing for the battle for the county championship. Racine at again yesterday to 9—Ryan Rodgers, 3 to 0.

Several of the local teams were given sound trounncing again. East Falls journeyed to Coaldale where Blue Beaver and his crew trampled on the miners, and Chester traveled to Washington to be beaten by 23 to 0 in a one-sided game. Magnolia A. A. was humbled at Lancaster 10 to 3.

The best performance of the day was turned in by Moose Airy, which opposed Melrose in a game at Germantown. Late in the game the visitors had a chance to tie the score but were unable to carry out a long drive from the Melrose 3-yard line. The Rosies the victors.

Clifton Heights continued its winning streak by taking a scalp. Darlington A. was the victim and Lukens, Hunting and Yarnall were as usual the stars, the latter getting off for a 90-yard run in scoring his touchdown.

SCHOOL LEAGUES ARE UNDER WAY

Catholic's Opening on Saturday Brings Last of Local Circuits Into Action

TEAMS ARE MUCH STRONGER

By PAUL PREP

With the Catholic League football opening on Saturday afternoon the three local schoolboy circuits are all in action. The schoolboys themselves have started their little debates regarding the probable winners in each circuit.

Unlike former seasons, predictions are a mighty difficult task this year, with no one team ruling.

In the Public High School League three teams are in the running. One is fairly strong, while the other two will be lucky to capture a pair or even one game.

Frankford High, West Philadelphia High and Southern High are the teams which at the present writing are to battle for the crown. Germantown High, through its victory over the Speedboys in the opening game, displayed a flash which might again insert itself in few of the league games.

Central High lacks fight, which is the only thing that prevents it from being a winning team, and Northeast High lacks material. They are the only weak links in the league.

Pioneers Again Proved

Frankford High, the team that last year brought the title to the Pioneer school for the first time in the history of the institution, should again finish in the front.

This year's eleven is not as strong as the championship one, but it has the fight, plus football ability, and one man who stands out like the Rock of Gibraltar—Paul Weekes, its captain.

In the two games which already have been nestled away in the right side of the ledger Weekes has run the team to such an advantage and also plays so brilliantly that his ability stands out as one of the features of the League games.

Southern High, through its victory over the Clivedens on Friday afternoon, looms as the "dark horse" of the circuit, and the Speedboys and Pioneers probably will lose a night or so of sleep prior to their games with the downtown team.

Speedboys in Running

West Philadelphia High, despite its opening day defeat, is not out of the running. It was a case of over-confidence, and Coach Delaplaine is of the opinion that his team will make it hot for last year's champions before the circuit is completed.

In the Catholic League it is a hard task to choose between four of the five teams in the circuit. All have been undefeated to date and one has yet to have its goal line crossed.

It is without a doubt the strongest league of the three. Catholic High, St. Joseph Prep, Villanova Prep and West Catholic High are the huskies of the organization, while Salesianum High, of Wilmington, a new entry of the league this year, not much is expected of them. The Purple and Gold is the team still to be scored upon.

St. Joseph Prep is the present champion, having won this title for the last two seasons. The Crimson and Gray is going to sweat blood in the battle for the crown this year.

It has the heaviest team of the four, but this can be easily overcome by a good forward pass attack, and this is what the other three teams excel at.

West Catholic Is Surprise

West Catholic has been the surprise of the league to date. With but two or three veterans back, Coach Tracey formed an eleven which is more than keeping up the enviable records which the West Catholic teams have made in its short career.

It brought its wonderful showing to its climax by defeating Berwyn High, one of the strongest teams in the suburbs, by the margin of a point on Friday afternoon.

For the first time in ten years Penn Charter does not stand out far and above the Interacademic League entries. There is one team that is going to give the Little Quakers a battle for the title this year. That eleven is Johnny Scott's Haverford School team.

Both teams have won two games in the league to date. Another thing that favors the Main Line bunch is that the Quakers are not as strong as the last three teams representing the Twelfth street school and have already been beaten this year by Lansdowne High.

Germantown Academy, St. Luke's and Episcopal Academy are not expected to play any prominent part in the battle for the gonfalon. It might be that St. Luke's will surprise by beating either of the two contenders, but the other pair will battle for the cellar.
