UNION LEAGUE OF PHILADELPHIA.

At a special meeting of the Union League of Philadelphia, held at the League House, on the 11th day of January, 1864, on motion of Mr. MORTON McMICHAEL, seconded by Mr. WILLIAM D. LEWIS, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the meeting:

"Whereas, The skill, courage, fidelity, and integrity with which in a period of unparalleled trial, ABRAHAM LINCOLN has conducted the Administration of the National Government, have won for him the highest esteem and the most affectionate regard of his grateful countrymen:

"And whereas, The confidence which all loyal men repose in his honesty, his wisdom, and his patriotism should be proclaimed on every suitable occasion, in order that his hands may be strengthened for the important work he has yet to perform:

"And whereas, The Union League of Philadelphia, composed, as it is, of those who, having formerly belonged to various parties, in the fearless exercise of party but their country; and representing, as it does, all the industrial, mechanical, manufacturing, commercial, financial, and professional interests of the city, is especially qualified to give, in this behalf, an unbiased and authentic utterance to the public sentiment: Therefore,

"Resolved, That to the prudence, sagacity, comprehension, and persevrance of Mr. Lincoln, under the guidance of a benign Providence, the nation is more indebted for the grand work of the war, which Southern rebels have wickedly waged against liberty and the Union, than to any other single instrumentality; and that he is justly entitled to whatever reward it is in the power of the nation to bestow.

"Resolved, That we cordially approve of the policy which Mr. Lincoln has adopted and pursued, as well the principles he has announced as the acts he has performed; and that we shall continue to give an earnest and energetic support to the doctrines and measures by which his administration has thus far been directed and illustrated.

"Resolved, That as Mr. Lincoln has had to endure the largest share of the labor required to suppress the rebellion, now rapidly verging to its close, he should also enjoy the largest share of the honors which await those who have contended for the right, and as, in all respects, he has shown pre-eminent ability in fulfilling the requirements of his great office, we recognize with pleasure the unmistakable fact that he is the popular will in all the loyal States, and heartily join with our fellow-citizens, without any distinction of party, here and elsewhere, in presenting him as the People's candidate for the Presidency at the approaching election.

"Resolved, That a committee of seventy-six be appointed, whose duty it shall be to promote the object now proposed, by correspondence with other loyal organizations, by stimulating the energies of our own body, and to increase their numbers at their own discretion.

"Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings, properly engrossed and attested be forwarded to President Lincoln; and that they also be published in the loyal newspapers."
