OBITUARY.

To the memory of TAOUT THOMPKINS, who died March 10, 1864.

Sound the low requiem, weep bitter tears,
Gone from our circle is the cherished of years;
Crushed all the fond hopes, withered and fled,
Sadly we mourn for the beautiful dead.
Calmly awaiting the Saviour's behest,
Pure as an angel, she passed to her rest.
Death's gloomy valley for her had no fear,
For Jesus was with her the darkness to cheer.
Now with the "innumerable company" above,
Her heart gushing forth with rapture and love,
Hymning her voice in sweet harmony in the skies,
Lives she forever in the light of God's smile
One more bright jewel Christ's diadem bears;
The crown of the saints on her own brow she wears:
In the white robe of Christ's Righteousness dress'd,
"With the redeemed ever more to be blest.
Then, mourner, look upward, the faith thine to feel,
Thy loved one's hath gone with the angels to dwell,
Thy love on a hath gone with the angels to dwell,
And God in His wisdom "doeth all things well."

THE GREAT CENTRAL FAIR FOR THE SANITARY COMMISSION.

PHILADELPHIA, 1307 CHESTNUT STREET, FEBRUARY 20, 1864.

The undersigned, members of the Executive Committee of the Great Central Fair for the Sanitary Commission, beg to invite the co-operation of all their fellow-citizens, especially of those resident in Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey, in this important enterprise. It is proposed to hold the Fair in PHILADELPHIA in the first week in JUNE next, and it is confidently expected that the contributions coming from a population so benevolent and patriotic as that which inhabits the Central States, and representing the most important and varied branches of industry and art, will secure a result in aid of the funds of the Commission and for the benefit of the Soldier at least equal to that which has attended similar undertakings in other cities. It is not necessary to say a word to stimulate sympathy for the soldier; we feel for them all as brethren, and the popular heart seeks only the best mode of manifesting that sympathy in the most efficient and practical way. These Fairs in other places have been productive of great results. By this means Chicago has recently raised for this object $60,000, Boston $150,000, and Cincinnati more than $200,000. We appeal, then, with the greatest confidence to the inhabitants of the Central States, especially to those who constitute the great industrial classes, to send us contributions, the productions of their skill and workmanship. We appeal to them in the interest of no party, radical or conservative, Republican or Democratic, administration or anti-administration. We know only this, that to send our national soldiers in the field supplies to supplement those Government undertakes to give them, but which they sometimes fail to receive, and thus to relieve them when sick and in misery, is a work of Christian charity, and that it is a work of intelligent patriotism also, as economizing their life, health, and efficiency, on which, under God, the nation depends in this its time of trouble.

We therefore ask every clergyman to announce this humane undertaking to his people, and to advise them to do what they can to further it. We ask the press to give it the widest publicity and the most earnest encouragement. We call on every workshop, factory, and mill for a specimen of the best thing it can turn out; on every artist, great and small, for one of his creations; on all loyal women for the exercise of their taste and industry on farmers, for the products of their fields and dairies. The miner, the naturalist, the man of science, the traveller, can each send something that can, at the very least, be converted into a blanket that will warm, and may save from death, some one soldier whom Government supplies have failed to reach. Every one who can produce anything that has money value is invited to give a sample of his best work as an offering to the cause of national unity. Every workingman, mechanic, or farmer, who can send a pair of shoes, or raise a bushel of apples, is called on to contribute something that can be turned into money, and again from money into the means of economizing the health and life of our national soldiers.

Committees have been appointed in each department of industry and art whose business it will be to solicit contributions for the Fair, each in their own special branch. These committees will place themselves in communication with those persons who may wish to aid us. In the meantime, it is recommended that local committees or associations be formed in every portion of Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey, with a view of organizing the industry of their respective neighborhoods, so as to secure contributions for the Fair.

Committees of Ladies have also been organized, to cooperate with those of the Gentlemen in soliciting contributions.

A list of all these committees will be shortly published and distributed. In the meantime, those who are disposed to aid us or who may desire any further information, are respectfully requested to address CHARLES J. STILLE, Corresponding Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Great Central Fair, No. 1307 CHESTNUT Street.

THE GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD MEMORIAL.

AN APPEAL

TO LOYAL PENNSYLVANIANS.

The "GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION" was instituted for the purpose of securing forever the principal points upon the great battle-field of the war, in the exact condition in which they were left in July, 1863, when the rebel hordes of the invader LEE were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania, and when the the gallant soldiers of GENERAL MEADE remained in possession of the field which they had won by their valor. The Association have already secured the purchase of CEMETERY HILL, CULP'S HILL, GRANITE SPUR, and ROUND TOP, with the entrenchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts, wonderful abatis defences, its timber breast-works, its forest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless bullets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to continue to preserve them, as to be a monument forever of the greatest of American battle-fields, is the object of the formation of the Association. To enable a large number of persons to join in this patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment of this sum MAKES EACH SUBSCRIBER A MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND PART OWNER OF THE GLORIOUS FIELD OF VICTORY.

What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name upon the roll of honor, and of thus linking himself exactly with the field where the lofty heroism of his country men vindicated the integrity of the Union and the principles of Freedom? And who would not desire to hand down as a precious heir-loom to his children the evidence of his part in the good work, bearing, as the certificate will, a view of the field which will rank in history with THERMOPYLÆ, MARATHON, and WATERLOO?

There are no salaried officers in this Association, nor are there any objects in view in its creation other than those already stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exact price to be paid for them by the Association, and the points selected, and the prices to be paid for them, met the unanimous approval of a committee of the HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, appointed for the purpose of visiting the field.

The following are the names of the general officers of the Association, and of the Local Commitee in Philadelphia:
