CITY ITEMS.

STILL ANOTHER REASON.—There have been a number of cogent reasons given why the Florence Sewing Machine, sold at 630 Chestnut street, is preferable to all others in use. Another is—and one that cannot be too thoughtfully considered by purchasers—that it is so simple that almost a single showing makes an efficient operator. Every machine sold by this company is warranted to give perfect satisfaction or the money will be refunded to the purchaser.

NEW NOVELTIES FOR LADIES AND MISSES.—Messrs. Wood & Clary, No. 725 Chestnut street, have just received cases of the exquisite new "Pot Pourri" Turbans for misses and ladies. These are the newest things out for covering the ladies' heads. Their stylish English Walking Hats are also commanding much attention.

THE VERY LATEST.—A lady, during the performance of the new opera of She Stoops to Conquer, inquired of the author, Mr. Fitzball, what he imagined poor Doctor Goldsmith would have thought of his new coat? "I don't know, madam," was the reply, "but, if we are to judge by the audience, it Fits him very well." There was fact as well as fun in this reply, for the garment was made at the Brown-Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

SALE OF VALUABLE PROPERTY IN ALEXANDRIA, VA.—We would draw attention to the auction sale of the late residence of Caleb S. Hallowell, Esq., in Alexandria, Va., to take place on the 22d inst. We are informed it is one of the largest and most desirable places of property in that city. Alexandria has been, throughout the war, a place of active business, and it will doubtless now continue to enjoy a permanent share in the prosperity of Washington.

"OLD HUNDRED."—We hear so much now-a-days about "Bermuda Hundred" that we wonder whether it is a different tune from "Old Hundred" that General Butler has been playing down there; and, if so, if it has as good a base as "Old Hundred," and whether the tenor of the General's orders are faithfully followed by his second. We, in this city, think there is no hundred like eight hundred and twenty-four, the number on Chestnut street of Chas. Stokes & Co.'s one-price clothing store.

STRANGERS AT THE SANITARY FAIR.—We learn there have been special pains taken by our hotel and boarding-house keepers for the accommodation of the great influx of strangers visiting our city during the Fair weeks. Not to be behind hand, Mr. Granville Stokes, the proprietor of the celebrated Clothing Establishment, No. 609 Chestnut street, has secured the services of an extra corps of Cutters and Salesmen for the occasion, so that there may be no delay, in suiting the thousands who will doubtless avail themselves of the occasion to procure the latest styles at his "palatial" store.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, for coughs, colds, pulmonary, and asthmatic disorders, have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.

TO LET—The second, third, fourth, and fifth floors of the spacious building, No. 221 Chestnut street. Possession 1st of July. Apply on the premises, to

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE ADULTERATION OF SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.—What with the increased duties on imported spirits and the heavy taxes on fourth-proof domestic liquors, an immense quantity of alcoholic preparations are thrown upon the market as representatives of the regular spirits used as beverages, such as whisky, brandy, gin, and rum, the former now being about as difficult to obtain pure and unadulterated as it used to be common and of good quality. The result of the scarcity of good spirituous liquors has been to introduce into the market a species of beverage composed of pure spirits combined with some tonic vegetable extract, the compound being known as Bitters. These "Bitters" are, generally speaking, as far superior to the spirituous liquors ordinarily retailed at bars and taverns as possible and much less injurious than even the best spirits are, for their tonic effects counterbalance the inflammatory action that accompanies all alcoholic drinks. But even in the manufacture of this class of popular beverages, there is more or less adulteration, and therefore care is required in making a selection, in order that the best quality may be procured.

The best in the market that we have yet seen is that known as the "Golden Bitters," which is warranted of the best materials, and composed of extracts from purely vegetable sources.

A medical analysis which Mr. HUBBEL had made for the purpose, shows that his Bitters are eminently calculated to relieve the dyspeptic, and afford that gentle stimulant necessary to assist the weak and infirm to bear with the fatigues of daily life. The time will come when these Bitters will supersede the poisonous drinks now imbibed at our public bars, and when this change takes place we shall hear of fewer cases of mad drunkenness and less deaths from delirium tremens.—Brooklyn Post. my30-6t

HOYT'S HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE.
HOYT'S HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE.

In Longfellow's Poem Hiawatha was adjudged to have conferred the greatest boon on his tribe because he brought to its notice corn. Every one will admit that our preparation is worthy of its name, for the benefits it confers when it is known.

WHAT THE HIAWATHA DOES.

It restores faded and gray hair and whiskers to their original color. It brings to the natural shading of one hair with another, thus giving the hair a perfect life appearance, so that the most critical observer cannot detect its use. It makes harsh hair soft and silky, stops its falling out, cleanses it and the scalp from all impurities, is as readily applied and wiped from the skin as any hair dressing, and entirely overcomes the bad effects of previous use of preparations containing sulphur, sugar of lead, &c.

The proprietors of the Hiawatha published the following challenge to test in the New York dailies three weeks, which

WAS NEVER ACCEPTED:

Let some well known and disinterested persons appoint one to the proprietor of each preparation for the hair to bring on the color. Every proprietor to use nothing but his own preparation, and the person nothing also during the test. A certificate of the result to be widely published at the expense of the unsuccessful competitors. Sold everywhere.

THE CITIZENS' VOLUNTEER HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION appeals to a generous public for aid in enabling them to continue their relief to the noble men who have sacrificed every home comfort, risked life and limb in the desperate cause, with reason; who are determined to crush with the iron heel of right the deep ingratitude of a misguided and basely rebellious faction, and restore to the reindeed purity and beauty the Union of our noble sires, plant upon every Southern hill-top our liberty tree, and unite in one voice with their warm life-blood, or in a grave beneath its soil.

Several thousand wounded in this contest have already arrived among us, and been received at this institution; proper refreshment freely and promptly given, their wounds dressed and bathed and caressed by woman's tender hand, and every want anticipated.

Donations of money, clothing, vegetables, preserves, dried fruit, or any article beneficial to the afflicted, will be cheerfully received, and may be sent to the Hospital, care of THOMAS L. COFFIN, Secretary, or to J. H. CLAYTON, Storekeeper.

The following members comprise the Finance Committee, and would be glad to hear from the friends of the soldier:

JOHN WILLIAMS, Office No. 6 Willing's alley.
THOMAS T. TASKER, Sr., No. 1023 S. Fifth street.
FERDINAND THALE, at M. Thomas & Sons', No. 139 S. Fourth street.
SAMUEL BAYLE, Office of the Florence Sewing Machine Company, 630 Chestnut street, below Sixth.
CEAS. P. PEROT, Treasurer, S. E. corner Broad and Chestnut streets.

Or any member of the Board of Managers.
