LEGION POST BUYS HISTORIC PROPERTY

Hatboro Organization Will Turn Old Fretz Estate Into Community Center

NEWS OF OLD YORK ROAD

The Fretz property—one of the historic old places along the Old York road in Hatboro—has been acquired by the Frank G. Girard Post, the Hatboro organization of the American Legion, and will be transformed into a community center, with auditorium for Legion meetings, and the land adjacent will ultimately be converted into a playground for suburban youngsters.

Successively since 1829 this old property has been in possession of different members of the Fretz family. The first owner was Jacob Fretz, and title passed to generation after generation until it was held by William H. Fretz, of Jenkintown, who made the transfer to the legionaires.

Women members of the St. Martin's P. E. Church at Oak Lane entertained several hundred residents of that section last night at a dinner, followed by a bazaar. The affair will be continued tonight.

The two-night program was planned to mark the opening of the new parish house property, erected at Tenth street and Oak Lane avenue at an expenditure of many thousands of dollars and made necessary by steadily increasing church enrollment following the development of the northern section.

Wills of twelve Bucks Countians have been probated in the Bucks County courts this week. Some of the larger estates involved are: Charles Dietrich, late of Richland, $12,500; Enos D. Detweiler, of Rock Hill, $7000; Emma Fell, of Solebury, $3000; Augustus Hampton, of Buckingham, $3500. Other estates disposed of were those of Mary E. Betz, of Tinicum; Laura V. Kirk, of Hulmeville; Anna E. Minster, of Bensalem; Marie Zimmerman, of Springfield; Daniel W. Pritchard, of Perkasie, and Benjamin E. Johnson, of Wrightstown.

To obtain necessary land for the erection of the proposed new high school building in Jenkintown, the Board of Education in that borough has started condemnation proceedings, involving a 200-foot frontage of the Spaeter property, in West avenue. This location is deemed more satisfactory than the one controlled until recently by the board, on Greenwood avenue and Walnut streets, which has been sold.

DIES FROM APOPLEXY

Mrs. Elizabeth Quigley, fifty-two years old, 1926 South Ithan street, died in the Camden Homeopathic Hospital this morning from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. She was stricken Sunday night at the Knights Point ferryhouse while returning home from a visit to her son in Camden and was taken to the hospital by the Camden police.
