PIPE LINE SHARES MOVE UP ON CURB

National Transit and Southern Gain Substantially—Reo Motors Higher

New York, Nov. 21.—The Curb market developed an irregular tone after the opening this morning, with the Standard Oil pipe lines again active. Southern Pipe advanced to 105; National Transit moved up 2½ to 28; Buckeye Pipe, after touching 100, eased off to 107½; Standard Oil of New York yielded about 3 points to 555, and the new stock nearly a point to 56½.

Consolidated Gas was up a sharp fraction. Reo Motors, Swift International and Tobacco Products exports were also higher. Hayes Wheel shaded off slightly.
