THE HOUSE OF MOHUN

By GEORGE GIBBS

Author of "Youth Triumphant" and Other Successes
Copyright, 1922, D. Appleton & Co.

Nothing Romance of Glue and Pelt of an American Family—and Its Comeback

Are Flappers as Bad as They're Painted? Are Jazz-Boys All Limbs of Satan?

WHO'S WHO IN THE STORY

CHERRY MOHUN, up-to-date girl, rich and charming, at once irritated and attracted by DAVID SANGREE, young American ethnologist and war veteran, amazed by changes in manners and customs brought out by the war, but interested in Cherry. His modest funds are invested with her father.

JIM MOHUN, a self-made financial leader. Too busy to think of his children he leaves them to MRS. MOHUN, who has successfully cultivated the social side of life.

BRUCE COWAN, a motorcar salesman, of care-man type, of whom Cherry thinks she is enamored.

BOB MOHUN, son, a typically careless youngster.

GEORGE AYCUE, eligible chorus, philosophizing on the stage door.

JOHN CHICHESTER, whom Mrs. Mohun would like to call son-in-law.

"He called for me when he was stricken—after he had crawled home like some poor sick animal to die"

AT THE house in Seventy-eighth street he sent up his card and in a moment Cherry came down. She stood for a moment poised in the doorway, searching the dim shadows of the room for his familiar figure. More than the lights he had always liked the shadows in her face, and today they had a clearer definition. He thought her pale lid and her eyes weary with watching and her voice, too, was pitched in a low key as though in recognition of some painful restraint. She come forward, treading softly, her eyes rather wistful, as she addressed him by his chosen title.

"Hello, Bonnie," she said quietly.

"Cherry! You—you—"

He had not cared for Lee Christian name, but somehow Sangree always seemed this hours always have done so.

She smiled a little at [illegible] extended hand. Gaiety in the general fineness of her emotion.

"I thought you would come, and I was coming hope to see you. I was very sorry am about your father's disappointment and very—"

"It's very sweet of you. Do sit down here," and she indicated the divan in the corner. "It's all very sad of course. Father seems better, but it's going to be a long affair. God knows whether he'll ever be fit for anything again. They do give us hope, but then—" She smiled, rather wearily. "It's a thing they don't do. Her fingers in her lap clenched nervously at her handkerchief. "If you could only see him."

"Poor dear!"—twisted so painfully. And he always seemed so strong, so vital." Her voice fell a little lower to conceal its trembling, as though she were ashamed of a weakness.

"There's nothing I can do? It would be great privilege to be able to help him or you."

"No. Nothing. Everything is being done. Every one has been very kind to mother and to us all. But nobody seems to know much about the city business. It's almost as though they were afraid to talk about it, as though they wanted to help from a low level it is. Poor Dad! And he always worked so long and so hard!"

Her voice broke in a quick sobbing [illegible]

"There, Cherry," he broke in, [illegible] signs of hysteria. "How [illegible] I ought to have known if I [illegible] I've seen him coming home [illegible] I ought to have known [illegible] He called for me when he was stricken—after he had crawled home like some poor sick animal to die."

"Yes, I understand now what was in his mind. We weren't worthy. He thought we weren't."

"Cherry!" [illegible] I wanted to talk to you about you. Let me tell you. I've got to [illegible] I want to speak to you [illegible] I want to tell you [illegible] I've done something since this awful thing happened. It's a pity I hadn't done it before." She turned toward him brightly. "You know, Bonnie," she said with a short laugh, "You did tell me once that I had a mind to think with if I wanted to. Well, I've been thinking. And there's now thinking to come. For what the world is going to happen to us all, I don't know. The afraid things are pretty bad. You don't know anything about the business, do you?"

To Be Continued Tomorrow

OFFER INCENDIARY REWARD

Chester County Follows Delaware Action to Catch Firebug

County [illegible] of Chester County have followed the action taken recently by the Delaware County board in offering a reward of $1000 for the capture of the incendiary who is believed to have been responsible for twenty fires in various sections of the county in the last two months.

Major William Butler Windle, District Attorney of Chester County, [illegible] has been conducting an investigation in cooperation with William R. [illegible] Attorney of Delaware County, [illegible] Deputy Fire Marshal [illegible] of Delaware County and a [illegible] detectives of both counties [illegible] a report of his [illegible] to the commissioners.

[illegible] and Sangree stared [illegible] her mouth thickened in a smile, as she raised her chin resolutely. "You didn't think, did you, Rameses," she said, with a touch of her old humor, "that when you called you were in for thunder, lightning and a deluge? You think me a silly little fool?"

"No. No. God only knows I don't," he blurted out.

"I'm not the 'weepy' kind. You know that, don't you? I hate girls who cry. I can't remember when I've done it before. But I had to, somehow. It was your sympathy, I think."

"You know you have that. I just wanted to help if I could."

She laid her fingers gently over his, then quickly took them away.

"You have helped, I think. I don't know why I could let myself go—to you. Perhaps I thought you would understand."

"I do understand," he said slowly. "But I can't see you blaming yourself for something outside your power to help. That is merely preposterous."

"No," she said firmly, "I know. And I'll take the blame that's mine. I want your sympathy, I think, but not pity—not pity."

She brushed her wrist across her swollen eyes. All of Cherry's gestures were significant. This one had the unconscious grace of a child's.

"I must tell you the rest," she muttered. "Dad didn't like me driving at night with boys and dancing in public places. He told he so often, but I always laughed him off—and did as I pleased. Poor Dad! I didn't know that perhaps he might want me for himself once in a while. He always seemed so busy. But I ought to have gone against his wishes.

"It didn't matter so much about the people dad knew and liked—like Dicky and Harold and—and you, Rameses. But I did go—often. With—with others." She bent her head to her hands, again and breathed deep, lowering her voice so that it was scarcely audible. "Why, the very night that father had his seizure I was out dancing, dining, dancing with Bruce Cowan——"

"Ah——" said Sangree. "Cowan."

And then calmly, "And what of that?"

"Oh, can't you see what I mean?" she gasped. "Dancing—jazz—not at the Ritz or the Biltmore—but at a road house—the Red House. It wasn't what he would have liked. And while I was dancing he was suffering—wanting me—or somebody who really would understand him—to help him in the hour of his trouble—somebody of his own, to [illegible]

She broke off with a desperate gesture. "Oh, not just this time only, but all the time—months and years when I might have tried to understand something of the desperate struggle of his mind—of his body, in spite of spending money—having anything I wanted—all of us did—clothes, jewels, dances, careful expenses of having out, theatres, suppers, the opera. I didn't think some of us did—of him. I've gone on for years—for years." She bent forward, her chin in her hands, staring at the portrait of Alicia Mohun in a fashionable painter which faced her on the opposite wall. "Oh, God!" she half-whispered, "how I hate myself."

Sangree couldn't resist the thought that unconsciously Cherry had included Alicia Mohun in the denunciation. For the portrait, singularly clever, had been painted by a man trained to catch the superficial beauties of his sitters, and Alicia Mohun had possessed many of them. But Sangree had read through Cherry's confession her loyalty to her mother. They had all been blind perhaps, but less than if the husband and father had taken his family into his confidence. And lastly, Sangree told her so. It was the least that he could do.

"Oh, you're trying to make things easier for me," she said. "Not well. But I don't want things made easier. I want to look my failures in the face. Oh, I've done some thinking since this awful thing happened. It's a pity I hadn't done it before." She turned toward him brightly. "You know, Rameses," she said with a short laugh. "You did tell me once that I had a mind to think with if I wanted to. Well, I've been thinking. And there's now thinking to come. For what the world is going to happen to us all, I don't know. The afraid things are pretty bad. You don't know anything about the business, do you?"

[illegible] Sangree stared [illegible] her mouth thickened in a smile, as she raised her chin resolutely. "You didn't think, did you, Rameses," she said, with a touch of her old humor, "that when you called you were in for thunder, lightning and a deluge? You think me a silly little fool?"

"No. No. God only knows I don't," he blurted out.

"I'm not the 'weepy' kind. You know that, don't you? I hate girls who cry. I can't remember when I've done it before. But I had to, somehow. It was your sympathy, I think."

"You know you have that. I just wanted to help if I could."

She laid her fingers gently over his, then quickly took them away.

"You have helped, I think. I don't know why I could let myself go—to you. Perhaps I thought you would understand."

"I do understand," he said slowly. "But I can't see you blaming yourself for something outside your power to help. That is merely preposterous."

"No," she said firmly, "I know. And I'll take the blame that's mine. I want your sympathy, I think, but not pity—not pity."

She brushed her wrist across her swollen eyes. All of Cherry's gestures were significant. This one had the unconscious grace of a child's.

"I must tell you the rest," she muttered. "Dad didn't like me driving at night with boys and dancing in public places. He told he so often, but I always laughed him off—and did as I pleased. Poor Dad! I didn't know that perhaps he might want me for himself once in a while. He always seemed so busy. But I ought to have gone against his wishes.

"It didn't matter so much about the people dad knew and liked—like Dicky and Harold and—and you, Rameses. But I did go—often. With—with others." She bent her head to her hands, again and breathed deep, lowering her voice so that it was scarcely audible. "Why, the very night that father had his seizure I was out dancing, dining, dancing with Bruce Cowan——"

"Ah——" said Sangree. "Cowan."

And then calmly, "And what of that?"

"Oh, can't you see what I mean?" she gasped. "Dancing—jazz—not at the Ritz or the Biltmore—but at a road house—the Red House. It wasn't what he would have liked. And while I was dancing he was suffering—wanting me—or somebody who really would understand him—to help him in the hour of his trouble—somebody of his own, to [illegible]

She broke off with a desperate gesture. "Oh, not just this time only, but all the time—months and years when I might have tried to understand something of the desperate struggle of his mind—of his body, in spite of spending money—having anything I wanted—all of us did—clothes, jewels, dances, careful expenses of having out, theatres, suppers, the opera. I didn't think some of us did—of him. I've gone on for years—for years." She bent forward, her chin in her hands, staring at the portrait of Alicia Mohun in a fashionable painter which faced her on the opposite wall. "Oh, God!" she half-whispered, "how I hate myself."

Sangree couldn't resist the thought that unconsciously Cherry had included Alicia Mohun in the denunciation. For the portrait, singularly clever, had been painted by a man trained to catch the superficial beauties of his sitters, and Alicia Mohun had possessed many of them. But Sangree had read through Cherry's confession her loyalty to her mother. They had all been blind perhaps, but less than if the husband and father had taken his family into his confidence. And lastly, Sangree told her so. It was the least that he could do.

"Oh, you're trying to make things easier for me," she said. "Not well. But I don't want things made easier. I want to look my failures in the face. Oh, I've done some thinking since this awful thing happened. It's a pity I hadn't done it before." She turned toward him brightly. "You know, Rameses," she said with a short laugh. "You did tell me once that I had a mind to think with if I wanted to. Well, I've been thinking. And there's now thinking to come. For what the world is going to happen to us all, I don't know. The afraid things are pretty bad. You don't know anything about the business, do you?"

To Be Continued Tomorrow

OFFER INCENDIARY REWARD

Chester County Follows Delaware Action to Catch Firebug

County [illegible] of Chester County have followed the action taken recently by the Delaware County board in offering a reward of $1000 for the capture of the incendiary who is believed to have been responsible for twenty fires in various sections of the county in the last two months.

Major William Butler Windle, District Attorney of Chester County, [illegible] has been conducting an investigation in cooperation with William R. [illegible] Attorney of Delaware County, [illegible] Deputy Fire Marshal [illegible] of Delaware County and a [illegible] detectives of both counties [illegible] a report of his [illegible] to the commissioners.

[illegible]

BULL CHARGES INTO CAFE

Point Pleasant, W. Va., [illegible] patrons were eating [illegible] Kaiser's restaurant [illegible] when the front windows [illegible] and a frightened bull [illegible] The animal plowing through [illegible] debris, battered its way to the kitchen [illegible] plunged into the alley, where it was [illegible]

WHAT IS A LIVING WAGE?

[illegible] by the [illegible] at Washington [illegible] subject [illegible] by Richard [illegible] the Bureau [illegible] of business men. [illegible] Habit?" [illegible]

FINANCIAL

NOTICE OF REDEMPTION OF
GENERAL ASPHALT COMPANY

Eight Per Cent Ten Year Sinking Fund Convertible Gold Bonds, Dated December 1, 1920, and called for Redemption on December 1, 1922.

[illegible]

ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR BONDS

114	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	1429
117	[illegible]	1435	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
135	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
154	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	3578
181	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
213	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
218	[illegible]	1911	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
258	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
282	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
891	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	3428

ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR BONDS

A-202	[illegible]	A-801	[illegible]	[illegible]	A-1350
A-826	[illegible]	A-852	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

Holders of the bonds above [illegible] are hereby notified that payment [illegible] December 1, 1922, and all subsequent coupons attached.

Dated [illegible]

BANKERS TRUST COMPANY, as Trustee
By H. [illegible]

POCAHONTAS CONSOLIDATED COLLIERIES COMPANY INCORPORATED FIFTY-YEAR FIVE PER CENT GOLD BONDS DUE JULY 1, 1957.

[illegible] THE NEW YORK TRUST COMPANY.
By A. C. [illegible] Jr.
New York, November 27, 1922.

Proposals

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
BUREAU OF HIGHWAYS
Room [illegible] City Hall, Philadelphia
[illegible]

Dividends

THE ATLANTIC REFINING COMPANY
(A Pennsylvania Corporation)
3144 Passyunk Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.
[illegible]

THE NORTH AMERICAN COMPANY
[illegible]

OFFICE OF
THE UNITED GAS IMPROVEMENT CO.
N. W. Corner Broad and Arch Streets
Philadelphia, September 15, 1922.
The Directors have this day declared a quarterly dividend of one and three-quarters per cent. (87½c per share) on the Preferred Stock of this Company, payable December 15, 1922 to holders of Preferred Stock of record at the close of business November 30, 1922.
Checks will be mailed.
I. W. MORRIS, Treasurer.

PARTNERSHIPS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE partnership heretofore existing between Harry Mossof and Benjamin Shore, trading as The Paris Dress Company is dissolved this 27th day of November, 1922. Harry Mossof will continue as the sole remaining partner. All [illegible] due the aforesaid partnership and all [illegible] due by the said Paris Dress Company [illegible] be presented to Harry Mossof, 1000 [illegible] Philadelphia, Pa.
HARRY MOSSOF,
BENJAMIN SHORE.

EDUCATIONAL

Both Sexes

LAW BY HOME STUDY
The every-day value of Law Training in business, its personal power and social advantages, are the simple explanation for the stream of busy men, bankers, labor leaders, clerks and others reading Law. Pocket lectures are used and spare time methods employed. Teaching is by the experiences, incidents and cases. Degree of LL. B. conferred. Students' progress shown in the positions they hold. Send for books: "Law Guide" and "Evidence," for which no charge is made.
PROBLEM METHOD
Write, Call or Phone Law Department
La Salle Extension University
Philadelphia Office
1324 Walnut St. Telephone Spruce 1481
Open Evenings

8 P. M. FREE TONIGHT
Demonstration and Talk on How to Find Your Right Vocation at the MERTON INSTITUTE
1702 Walnut St.

FALL AND WINTER RESORTS
HOT SPRINGS, VA.

Indian Summertime NOW at Virginia Hot Springs

The air is fresh, the sky is blue, and Nature's gay in colors. Expanse of hills and valleys have special beauty for the eye.

Two famous golf courses 2500 feet up in the Alleghanies. Horseback ramblings over enchanting mountain trails.

THE HOMESTEAD is hospitable, comfortable and sufficient, and has a delightful social charm. It is home.

The celebrated thermal bath establishment offers hydrotherapeutic treatment under competent medical direction—as a help to rest or health.

Make reservations NOW. Reasonable rates. Address Christian S. Andersen, Resident Manager, The Homestead, Hot Springs, Virginia.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

Hotel Dennis
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.
Directly on the Ocean Front
The American Plan Hotel par-excellence of the Atlantic Coast.
Brick Garage on hotel property. WALTER J. BURKE, Owner and Manager

HOTEL STRAND
ATLANTIC CITY
On the Beach Front Always Open
AMERICAN PLAN
Hot and Cold Sea Water Baths
RATES STRAIGHT BY DAY
Running Water, $3.00 per person.
Bath, $1.50 per person
Ocean Corner Room and Bath two persons, $16.00 per Day
Phone Atlantic City 1456 Orchestra

The TRAYMORE ATLANTIC CITY
Worlds Greatest Hotel Success

LAKEWOOD, N. J.

LAUREL HOUSE
LAKEWOOD, NEW JERSEY
Invigorating climate. 18-hole golf course. Saddle horses. Fine walks. Daily concerts and dancing. Superior roads for motoring.
FRANK F. SHUTE, Manager
Formerly of Laurel in the Pines

LAUREL-IN-THE-PINES
LAKEWOOD, N. J. Observance of dietary laws carefully adhered to. FRANK SEIDEN, Owner.

EDUCATIONAL

Both Sexes

SPECIAL GREGG SHORTHAND CLASS
EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHT
Enroll Tonight
THE TAYLOR SCHOOL
1002 Market Street

STRAYER'S 807 Chestnut Street
The Best Business School
Positions guaranteed; enter now; day or night.
Bookkeeping & shorthand, day & night classes
Phila. Business College, 1710 Market St.

Young Men and Boys

P.M.&E. SCHOOLS SHOPS
A GREAT OPPORTUNITY
Awaits the man who is a specialist in AUTO ELECTRICITY. Mail us a card or send you our booklet, explaining in detail this course and others.
Entrance 1344-50 Spring Garden St.
Poplar 8858 Market 8858

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION

Phila. School of Dramatic Art and Expression. Professional Stage Preparation. Oral English Vocabulary. Literature. Children's Classes. Day and Eve. Ellis Schreiner, Prin., 1714 Chestnut. Spruce 2417.

FALL AND WINTER RESORTS
HOT SPRINGS, VA.

IN PLANNING YOUR
Thanksgiving
Do Not Forget That the Pig'n Whistle Inn
Browns Mills-in-the-Pines, N. J.
has the best cooks they have had for years (one formerly with Colony Hall, Atlantic City). Also remember that the house was closed for 2 months for redecoration, then open only for a few days to see the inn in its nice dress and taste its Thanksgiving turkey. Don't the fires and the open fireplace call you? Just 2½ miles from Philadelphia over the Columbus turnpike. Phone Pemberton 381.

FORT MYERS, FLA.
Hotel Royal Palm Fort Myers, Florida. Open Jan. 6
Dancing, Golf, Fishing, Swimming Pool. Every modern comfort. J. L. NELSON, Mgr.

WEST PALM BEACH, FLA.
LAKE COURT APARTMENTS
Write for illustrated booklet. West Palm Beach, Fla.

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.
The FLAMINGO Miami Beach
FLORIDA'S FOREMOST RESORT HOTEL

MIAMI, FLA.
A WINTER HOTEL DeLUXE
MIRAMAR MIAMI, FLORIDA
N.Y. OFF.—8 W. 40 ST. TEL. LONG. 6310

BERMUDA
The Ideal Winter Resort
PRINCESS HOTEL
BERMUDA
Dec. 1 to May 1. Directly on the Harbor. Accommodates 400. Grill Room. Tiled Swimming Pool, Golf, Tennis, Yachting, etc. Management of L. A. TWORDGER CO. Reservations will be at Hotel Belmont, Park Ave. & 42d St., New York, Nov. 17 to Dec. 1.

TOURS

to the MEDITERRANEAN
The 1923 Grand Cruise De Luxe—14,000 miles—by the specially chartered new White Star Liner
"HOMERIC"
the largest, most modern, and most replete steamer ever chartered for a cruise.
Sailing January 20 Returning March 28
A complete change; new countries; enchanting scenery; different people. Sixty-seven glorious days—with a long stay in Egypt.
Cruise Limited to 500 Guests.
Full information and literature on request
THOS. COOK & SON
PHILADELPHIA
130 South 15th St. Telephone Spruce 8820

TOURS

FALL RIVER LINE
TO BOSTON
Afternoon and Evening Concerts
Pier 1, Fulton St., Pier 14 N. R., New York, 5:00 P. M. Daily, incl. Sunday
NEW LONDON LINE
Leave Pier 40 N.R. Houston St. 5:00 P.M. Weekdays only.
Reduced Rates on Automobiles
Tickets at Piers and Con. Ticket Offices

ERICSSON LINE
for Baltimore
Freight and passengers to Baltimore and the south. Steamers leave from Pier 3, N. Delaware Ave., daily at 5:00 P. M., Saturday at 3:00. No Sunday steamer.
P. G. Graves, agent.

IN MEMORIAM

DAVIS.—In loving remembrance of ELIZA POLLOCK DAVIS, who died Nov. 28, 1908.

Deaths

ABRAMS.—Nov. 26, 1922. ROBERT, son of Thomas and Sarah Abrams (nee Baxter). Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Fri., 1 P. M., at parents' residence, 2703 Tasker st. Int. Mt. Moriah Cem. Friends may call Thurs., 8 to 10 P. M.

ACKER.—Nov. 27. ANNA BUNTING ACKER (nee Pond), wife of Frederick Acker, Sr., aged 80. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Fri., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 4922 N. Lawrence st. Int. Hillside. Remains may be viewed Thurs. eve.

ADAMS.—Nov. 26, 1922. WILLIAM, beloved husband of Caroline Adams. Relatives and friends, also Fairmount Park Guards Assn., and Survivors of the 2d Pa. Veterans' Heavy Artillery, invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 3 P. M., at his late residence, 4732 N. Ella st. Int. Greenmount Cem. Remains may be viewed Tues., after 7 P. M.

ALIARD—Nov. 25, JAMES, husband of Laura Aliard (nee Houston). Relatives and friends, also all societies of which he was a member, are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 9:30 A. M., from his late residence, 1312 E. Haines st., Germantown. Solemn mass of requiem at the Immaculate Conception Church, 11 A. M. Int. Holy Sepulchre Cem.

ANDERSON.—Nov. 26, 1922. HANS, husband of Andrea Anderson. Relatives and friends, also Fourth of July Lodge, No. 196, K. of P., are invited to funeral, Wed., 3 P. M., late residence, 1734 S. Sydenham st. Int. Arlington Cem. Friends may call Tues., 8 to 10 P. M.

ATKINSON.—Nov. 25. EMMA, wife of John Atkinson. Relatives and friends, Logan Chapter O. E. S., No. 313; Logan Court O. of A., No. 32, invited to funeral services, at late residence, 1516 Loudon ave., Wed., at 2 P. M.

BARTHOLOMEW.—Nov. 26, 1922. CORNELIA H., widow of George W. Bartholomew. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Barren Hill. Int. Barren Hill New Cem.

BARTHOLOMEW (nee Showalter).—Nov. 27, 1922. NELLA, widow of Robert L. Bartholomew and daughter of Mannette and late C. Harry Showalter. Funeral Wed., 9:30 A. M., precisely, residence 2250 N. 15th st. Int. private. Mt. Hope Cem. Remains may be viewed Tues., 8 to 10 P. M.

BASTOW-JUDSON.—Nov. 26. SEPHEN DRAKE, son of Unity and the late Albert Bastow, aged 4 years 8 months. Relatives and friends are invited to funeral services, Wed., 1:30 P. M., residence, 2841 N. 2d st. Int. Oakland Cem. Viewing Tues. eve.

BISHAM.—At Avecthorn, Thursday afternoon, November 23, NANCY IRINLEY, widow of George Tucker Bisham, and youngest daughter of the late Edward L. Brinley, Esq., of Philadelphia and Newport. In her 72d year. Funeral services at St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, Wednesday afternoon, the hour will be announced later.

BLANKE.—Suddenly, on Nov. 25, at Urbana, ELLA BURGESS, widow of Charles Blanke. Services Tuesday, 2:30 P. M., at Oliver H. Bair Bldg., 1820 Chestnut st. Interment private.

BOLLER.—At his residence, 3210 Federal st., Camden, N. J., on Nov. 28, 1922, JAMES W., son of James M. and Harriet Boller. Due notice of funeral later.

BONNWELL.—Nov. 26, 1922. ELIZABETH A., wife of Reamer Berry Bonnwell and mother of Rev. William Berry Bonnwell, Ch.D., and Judge Eugene C. Bonnwell. Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral, Wed., 7:30 A. M., from her late residence, 3801 Sansom st. Solemn requiem mass at St. James' Church, 9 A. M.

BROADWIN.—Nov. 27, 1922. ELIZABETH L., widow of Peter Boudwin. Residence, 1756 N. Lambert st. Due notice of funeral given.

BRACKEN.—Nov. 26, 1922. Miss HARRIET N. BRACKEN. Services at the Pierce Funeral Parlors, 5th and Diamond sts., Tues., 10 A. M. Int. Indiana, Pa.

BRACKLAND.—Nov. 26, 1922. ELIZABETH A. BRACKLAND. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 9 A. M., from residence of son, Charles A. Brackland, 4812 Beaumont ave. Solemn requiem mass at Holy Cross Church, 10 A. M. Int. Holy Cross Cem.

BRADLEY.—Nov. 25, 1922. AGNES, daughter of Patrick and Margaret Bradley, aged 19. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 8 A. M., late residence, 2517 Bowman st., Falls of Schuylkill. Solemn requiem mass at Bridget's Church, 9:30 A. M. Int. Westminster Cem.

GIBBONS.—Nov. 26. MARY, widow of Neil Gibbons. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 8:30 A. M., from the residence of her son-in-law, James P. Conner, 5443 N. Sydenham st. Solemn requiem mass Church of the Holy Child, 10 A. M. Int. New Cathedral Cem. Please omit flowers.

GILBERT.—Nov. 26, PHEBE L., wife of George F. Gilbert, in her 85th year. Funeral Tues., 2 P. M., from her late residence, 29 Lincoln ave., Lansdowne, Pa. Int. North Laurel Hill Cem.

GLAUB.—Nov. 26, 1922. PETER, husband of Mary Glaub (nee Schneider). Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 8:30 A. M., from his late residence, 115 Carson st., Manayunk. Requiem mass at St. Mary's Church 10 A. M. Int. St. Mary's Cem., Mantua Village. Please omit flowers.

GORLEY.—On Nov. 25, 1922. ANNIE, widow of John Cormley. Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral Wednesday morning, at 8:30 o'clock, from her late residence, 2821 Cedarhurst st (58th st below Baltimore ave.). Solemn requiem mass at Church of the Transfiguration at 10 o'clock. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

HAEBLER.—Nov. 26. WILHELMINA HAEBLER (nee Fechter), widow of Charles F. Haebler, aged 70 years. Relatives and friends invited to funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 3527 N. Warnock st. Int. private, Northwood Cem. Friends may call Tues. evening.

HANNUM.—Suddenly, on November 23, 1922. MARY HANNUM, aged 76 years. Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral service Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of her niece, Mrs. Joseph M. Scattergood, 2250 West Oxford st. Interment private. Friends may call Tuesday evening.

HARDMAN.—Nov. 24, LUCY, daughter of late Edward and Ellen Hardman. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Tues., 2 P. M., late residence, 6523 Oakland st., Frankford. Int. Cedar Hill Cem.

HESS.—Nov. 23, ANNIE A., wife of Bertram Hess (nee Rochel) in her 50th year. Relatives and friends invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 2:30 P. M., at 4229 N. 5th st. Int. Laurel Hill Cem.

HILL.—Suddenly, Nov. 26, MARY A., wife of Dr. Charles M. Hill, aged 74. Relatives and friends are invited to services, Wed., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 2208 N. Hancock st. Int. private, Kenwood Cem.

HINKLE.—At her son-in-law's residence, Malvern, Pa., on Nov. 27, 1922, EMMA S., widow of A. G. B. Hinkle, M. D., in her 80th year. Relatives and friends are invited to funeral, Wed., 2 P. M., at Oliver H. Bair Bldg., 1820 Chestnut st. Int. private.

HOSER.—Nov. 26. ELIZABETH, wife of Joseph Heuser, residence, 5537 Pearl st. Funeral services Wed., 2 P. M., at the Epworth M. E. Church, 56th and Race. Int. Montrose Cem. Friends call Tues. evening.

ISRAEL.—Of diphtheria, Nov. 27, 1922. RUTH, daughter of Jacob and Alice Israel. Residence, 2816 N. Hutchinson st. Int. Greenmount Cem. No funeral.

JACOBS.—On Nov. 26, 1922, HENRY S., husband of Annie R. Jacobs, of 1520 N. Gratz st. Relatives and friends are invited to the services, 10:30 A. M., at the Oliver H. Bair Bldg., 1820 Chestnut st. Int. private.

JERBICK.—Nov. 26. JOHN, beloved husband of Mary Jerbick (nee Bersch), aged 82. Relatives and friends, also members of Germantown Tailors' Union, are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 2 P. M., residence, 5944 Germantown ave. Int. Mt. Carmel Cem. Hills Crematorium. Remains may be viewed Tues. eve.

KAPLOW.—Nov. 27, 1922. GUSTAF, husband of Ella Kaplow. Funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., at late residence, 522 S. Salford st. Int. Montefiore Cem. Friends call Tues., from 8 to 10 o'clock.

KETTERER.—On Nov. 25, 1922. GOTTLIEB KETTERER. Relatives and friends, also the late Ida Wolfe, 590 Assn., and A. F. of M., Musical Association of Philadelphia, Local Assn., Local No. 77, A. F. of M., are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., at 1 o'clock, at the Oliver H. Bair Building, 1820 Chestnut st. Int. private. Remains may be viewed Tues. eve.

KIRCHWETTER.—Nov. 26, HENRY E., husband of the late Christine Kirchwetter, in his 80th year. Relatives and friends are invited to funeral services, Wed., 3 P. M., residence, 2717 N. 9th st. Int. private. Friends may call Tues., 8 to 10 P. M.

KLINE.—Nov. 26, 1922. GILLIAN M., wife of Joseph C. Kline. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 5 Mantua Avenue, Bala. Int. private.

KING.—November 27, 1922. MARY EMMA, daughter of George Henry and the late Emma Hughes King, aged 3 years, 7 months. 2211 Wood st. Int. private. Wed., 11 A. M. Friends may call Tues. evening.

KINSLOW.—Nov. 27, 1922. S. E. Burke (Simmons). Relatives and friends (also St. Paul's Lodge, No. 181, F. & A. M., and all other lodges of which she was a member) are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 1918 N. 17th st. Int. private at Laurel Hill Cem.

KIRBY.—Eleventh month 25th, 1922. ALICE A., widow of Robert J. Kirby, aged 84 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, Thursday, 11th inst., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 1220 Spruce st. Int. private.

LEE.—Nov. 26, 1922. JANE, wife of Herbert Lee. Funeral services Wed., 2 P. M., at her late residence, 1938 E. Hilbert st. Int. private, Oakland Cem. Viewing Tues. eve.

LEWIS.—Nov. 24. MARY, widow of Charles Lewis, formerly of 1515 Spring Garden st. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Tues., 8:30 A. M., from her late residence, 2032 Cedar ave. Solemn mass of requiem at St. Monica's Church at 10 A. M. Int. Holy Cross Cem.

McCAY.—Nov. 24, WILLIAM C., son of late Philip and Isabella McCay. Relatives and friends, also all organizations of which he was a member, are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 2 P. M., late residence, 2108 E. Franklin st. Int. private, North Cedar Hill Cem. Viewing Tues., 8 to 10 P. M.

McCLLOUGH.—Nov. 27. ALLEN, husband of the late Elizabeth Gordon McClough, in his 87th year. Funeral from his residence, Bromall, Del. Co., Pa., Fri., 1 P. M. Services St. Marks Presbyterian Church 2 P. M. Int. Marple Presbyterian Cem.

McDERMOTT.—Nov. 25. JOHN J., husband of late Sallie B. McDermott (nee Boyle). Relatives and friends invited to funeral, Wed., 8:30 A. M., residence, 637 S. Bambrey st. Solemn high mass at St. Anthony's Church, 10 A. M. Int. New Cathedral Cem.

McGINLEY.—Nov. 25, 1922. BRIDGET M., widow of John J. McGinley (nee Garrity). Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 9 A. M., from her late residence, 1831 S. Hicks st. High mass of requiem St. Thomas Aquinas' Church 10:30 A. M. Int. Holy Cross Cem.

McGINNISS.—Suddenly, Nov. 26, MARY AGNES, beloved daughter of Grace and late James McGinniss. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 8:30 A. M., from her mother's residence, 1645 S. 23d st. Solemn mass of requiem at St. Edmond's Church, 10 A. M. Int. New Cathedral Cem.

McGURK.—Nov. 26. JAMES, husband of Annie McGurk (nee Lynskey). Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, Wed., 8:30 A. M., late residence, 250 N. Ramsey st. Solemn requiem mass Church of Our Lady of Victory, 10 A. M. Int. Holy Cross Cem.

MIDDLETON.—Nov. 26, GEORGE MIDDLETON. Relatives and friends, also employes of Crozer Bldg., are invited to attend funeral services, Wed., 12 o'clock noon precisely, late residence, 1524 S. Ringgold st. Int. Mt. Moriah Cem. Friends may call Tues., 8 to 10 P. M.

MINGIN.—Suddenly, at Medford, N. J., Nov. 27, 1922. MARGARET F., wife of Whital E. Mingin, in her 60th year. Services at her late residence, Medford, N. J., Thurs., 11 A. M. Int. at Glassboro, N. J.

MONROE.—Nov. 27, 1922. MARY L., wife of late John T. Monroe. Relatives and friends invited to funeral services, Wed., 1:30 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. W. Frederick Monroe, 3300 Gowen ave., Mt. Airy. Int. private. Please omit flowers.

MORTON.—On Nov. 27, 1922, ROBERT, son of the late S. Morton, of 701 S. 60th st. Notice of funeral later.

MUFFETT.—At Moorestown, N. J., Nov. 26, SAMUEL, husband of Keziah Muffett, aged 67. Funeral Fri., 2 P. M., late residence, Haddonfield road, Moorestown, N. J.

MURPHY.—At Point Pleasant, N. J., Nov. 26, 1922, DONNA L., wife of the late Edward H. Murphy. Mass at St. Peter's Church, Point Pleasant, N. J., Fri., 7 A. M. Friends may meet funeral on arrival of train at North Phila. Station 10:45 A. M. Int. Laurel Hill Cem.

MURPHY.—Nov. 26. SARAH JANE (SALLY), wife of late Charles J. Murphy (nee Hansen). Funeral services, to which relatives and friends are invited, Wed., 1:30 P. M., at her late residence, Mantua Village, N. J. Int. Mt. Moriah Cem. Viewing Tues. eve.

NICE.—Nov. 24. GEORGE W., husband of Matilda Nice, aged 39. Relatives and friends invited to services, Wed., 1:30 P. M., late residence, 2209 N. 19th st. Int. private, Northwood Cem. Viewing Tues.

OGDEN.—Nov. 27, 1922. THOMAS OGDEN. Funeral services Wed., 2 P. M., at the Old Man's Home, 39th and Haverford sts. Int. Mt. Moriah Cem. Chester and Harrisburg papers please copy.

OSLER.—Nov. 25, 1922. CHARLOTTE C., widow of William P. Osler. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services, Tues., 2 P. M., at her late residence, Sabre Apts., 211 Penn st., Camden, N. J. Int. private, Harleigh Cem. Friends may call Mon., 7 to 9 P. M.

OSTRANDER.—Nov. 27, 1922. SARAH H., widow of Charles W. Ostrander. Funeral services, Wed., 7 P. M., at the residence of her son-in-law, William A. Baird, 1