FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Forest City, Oct. 30.—Mitchell day was celebrated by the miners' unions in Forest City and Vandling, with a big parade in the morning and a ball in Prokopavits' hall in the afternoon. The town was gaily decorated. Toward night a number of ardent spirits conceived a scheme to have what they called a fantastic parade, and pressed a number of business men's team into service. Beer garden parties on wheels was the main feature of the exhibition, and it atoned considerable adverse criticism. No censure should be laid on the tadons, however, as they were in no way responsible for the affair and very few miners took part in it.

MOTHER GOOSE PUZZLE.

As I was going along, long, long,
A singing a comical song, song, song,
The lane that I went was so long, long, long,
And the song that I sung was so long, long, long,
And so I went singing along.
Find a young couple listening to his song.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oct. 30.—The volume of dealings fell off still further today and were again congested in a few stocks in which there was rather obvious manipulation. The manipulation was for the advance, but its effect was confined to the leading active stocks, so far as any notable results were concerned. The general list was sluggish and hesitating and fluctuated narrowly throughout. The coalers were taken in hand for an upward movement, the concerted buying of the group being based on the reports of very heavy demand and a traffic only limited by the car supply of the companies, while prices are firmly maintained at the maximum of recent years. The high priced members of the group gained from 2¾ to 5 points, and those selling under par rose about a point. St. Paul resumed its recent show of strength and was followed as usual by the Pacific stocks to the extent of between one and two points. There was another demonstration in the Vanderbilts also today, but its influence did not extend very effectively outside of that group. Amalgamated Copper continued active and somewhat irregular above yesterday's level with unconfirmed rumors circulating of the possible absorption of Calumet and Hecla. The national lead stocks were strong on prospects of improved trade conditions, and Manhattan and Sugar also helped out the show of strength. After a very irregular movement the market closed firm in the neighborhood of the best prices. Total sales today were 545,000 shares.

Railroad bonds were only moderately active and showed irregular changes. Total sales, par value, $2,060,000. U. S. bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment One to Article Eight, Section One.

Add at the end of the first paragraph of said section, after the words "shall be entitled to vote at all elections," the words "subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact," so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 1. Qualifications of Electors. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

1. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

2. He shall have resided in the State one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

3. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

4. If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Amendment Two to Article Eight, Section Seven.

Strike out from said section the words "but no elector shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered," and add to said section the following words, "but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class," so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 7. Uniformity of Election Laws.—All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class.
