The Maine Liquor Law.

AN ACT FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF DRINKING-HOUSES AND TIPPLING-SHOPS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Not to be made or sold as a Beverage.

SEC. 1. No person shall be allowed, at any time, to manufacture or sell, by himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or intoxicating liquors, or any mixed liquors, a part of which is spirituous or intoxicating, except as hereafter provided.

Agents to sell for certain purposes.

SEC. 2. The selectmen of any town, and mayor and aldermen of any city, on the first Monday of May, annually, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, may appoint some suitable person as the agent of said town or city, to sell at some central or convenient place within said town or city, spirits, wines, or other intoxicating liquors, to be used for medical and mechanical purposes, and no other; and said agent shall receive such compensation for his services as the board appointing him shall prescribe; and shall, in the sale of such liquors, conform to such rules and regulations as the selectmen or mayor and aldermen, as aforesaid, shall prescribe for that purpose; and such agent appointed as aforesaid, shall hold his situation for one year, unless sooner removed by the board from which he received his appointment; as he may be, at any time, at the pleasure of said board.

Said Agents to give Bonds, &c.

SEC. 3. Such agent shall receive a certificate from the mayor and aldermen or selectmen by whom he has been appointed, authorizing him, as the agent of such town or city, to sell intoxicating liquors, for medical and mechanical purposes only; but such certificate shall not be delivered to the person so appointed, till he shall have executed and delivered to said board a bond with two good and sufficient securities, in the sum of six hundred dollars, in substance as follows:

Know all men, that we, ——, as principal, and —— and —— as sureties, are holden and stand firmly bound to the inhabitants of the town of ——, (or city, as the case may be,) in the sum of six hundred dollars, to be paid them; to which payment we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this —— day of ——, A. D.

The condition of this obligation is such, that whereas the above bounden —— has been duly appointed an agent for the town (or city) of ——, to sell, within and for, and on account of said town (or city) intoxicating liquors for medicinal and mechanical purposes, and no other, till the —— of ——, A. D. ——, unless sooner removed from said agency.

Now, if the said ——— shall, in all respects, conform to the provisions of the law relating to the business for which he is appointed, and to such rules and regulations as now are or shall be from time to time established by the board making the appointment, then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force.

Penalties for Violations, &c.

SEC. 4. If any person, by himself, clerk, servant, or agent, shall at any time sell any spirituous or intoxicating liquors, or any mixed liquors, part of which is intoxicating, in violation of the provisions of this act, he shall forfeit and pay on the first conviction, ten dollars and the cost of prosecution, and shall stand committed till the same be paid; on the third and every subsequent conviction he shall pay twenty dollars and the cost of prosecution, and shall be imprisoned in the common jail not less than three months, nor more than six months; and in default of the payment of the fines and costs prescribed by this section for the first and second convictions, the convict shall not be entitled to the benefit of chapter 175 of the revised statutes till he shall have been imprisoned two months; and in default of payment of fines and costs provided for the third and every subsequent conviction, he shall not be entitled to the benefit of said chapter 175 of the revised statutes, till he shall have been imprisoned four months; and if any clerk, servant, agent, or other person in the employment or on the premises of another, shall violate the provisions of this section, he shall be held equally guilty with the principal, and, on conviction, shall suffer the same penalty.

Penalties, how recovered.

SEC. 5. Any forfeiture or penalty arising under the above section, may be recovered by an action of debt, or by complaint, before any justice of the peace, or judge of any municipal police court, in the county where the offense was committed. And the forfeiture so recovered shall go to the town where the convicted party resides, for the use of the poor; and the prosecutor or complainant may be admitted as a witness in the trial. And if any one of the selectmen, or board, or mayor and aldermen, shall approve of the commencement of any such suit, by indorsing his name upon the writ, the defendant shall in no event recover any costs; and in all actions of debt arising under this section, the fines and forfeitures suffered by the defendant shall be the same as if the action had been by complaint. And it shall be the duty of the mayor and aldermen of any city, and selectmen of any town, to commence an action in behalf of said town or city, against any person guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, on being informed of the same, and being furnished with proof of the fact.

Condition and Consequence of Appeal.

SEC. 6. If any person shall claim an appeal from a judgment rendered against him by any judge or justice, on the trial of such action or complaint, he shall, before the appeal shall be allowed, recognize in the sum of one hundred dollars, with two good and sufficient sureties, in every case so appealed, to prosecute his appeal, and to pay all costs, fines and penalties that may be awarded against him upon a final disposition of such suit or complaint. And before his appeal shall be allowed, he shall, also, in every case, give bond, with two other good and sufficient securities, running to the town or city where the offense was committed, in the sum of $200, that he will not, during the pendency of such appeal, violate any of the provisions of such act. And no recognizance or bond shall be taken in cases arising under this act, except by the justices or judge before whom the trial was had, and the defendant shall be held to advance the jury fees in every case of appeal in an action of debt; and in the event of a final conviction before a jury, the defendant shall pay and suffer double the amount of fines, penalties, and imprisonment awarded against him by the justice or judge from whose judgment the appeal was made. The forfeiture for all bonds and recognizances given in pursuance of this act, shall go to the town or city where the offense was committed, for the use of the poor; and if the recognizances and bonds mentioned in this section shall not be given within twenty-four hours after the judgment, the appeal shall not be allowed, the defendant in the mean time to stand committed.

When Agents forfeit their Bonds.

SEC. 7. The mayor and aldermen of any city, and the selectmen of any town, whenever complaint shall be made to them that a breach of the conditions of the bond given by any person appointed under this act, has been committed, shall notify the persons complained of, and if upon a hearing of the parties it shall appear that any breach has been committed, they shall revoke and make void his appointment. And whenever a breach of any bond given to the inhabitants of any city or town in pursuance of any of the provisions of this act, shall be made known to the mayor and aldermen, or selectmen, or shall in any manner come to their knowledge, they, or some of them, shall, at the expense and for the use of said city or town, cause the bond to be put in suit in any court proper to try the same.

Makers and Common Sellers.

SEC. 8. No person shall be allowed to be a manufacturer of any spirituous or intoxicating liquor, or common seller thereof, without being duly appointed aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting on the first conviction the sum of one hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution; and in default of the payment thereof, the person so convicted shall be imprisoned sixty days in the common jail; and on the second conviction, the person so convicted shall pay the sum of two hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, and in default of payment shall be imprisoned four months in the common jail; and on the third and every subsequent conviction, shall pay the sum of two hundred dollars, and shall be imprisoned four months in the common jail of the county where the offense was committed; said penalties to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction, by indictment or by action of debt in the name of the city or town where the offense shall be committed. And whenever a default shall be had of any recognizance arising under this act, scire facias shall be issued, returnable at the next term, and the same shall not be continued, unless for good cause, satisfactory to the court.

No lawless Rum-sellers to be Jurors.

SEC. 9. No person engaged in the unlawful traffic in intoxicating liquors shall be competent to sit upon any jury in any case arising from this act; and when information shall be communicated to the court, that any member of any panel is engaged in such traffic, or that he is believed to be so engaged, the court shall inquire of the juryman of whom such belief is entertained; and no answer which he shall make shall be used against him in any case arising under this act; but if he shall answer falsely, he shall be incapable of serving on any jury in this state; but he may decline to answer, in which case he shall be discharged by the court from all further attendance as a juryman.

These cases to stand first for trial, etc.

SEC. 10. All cases arising under this act, whether by action, indictment or complaint, which shall come before a superior court, either by appeal or original entry, shall take precedence in said court of all other business, except those criminal cases in which the parties are actually under arrest, awaiting a trial; and the court and the prosecuting officer shall not have authority to enter a nolle prosequi, or to grant a continuance in any case arising under this act, either before or after the verdict, except where the purposes of justice shall require it.

Liquors may be searched for and seized.

SEC. 11. If any three persons, voters in the town or city where the complaint shall be made, shall before any justice of the peace or judge of municipal or police court, make complaint, under oath or affirmation, that they have reason to believe, and do believe that spirituous or intoxicating liquors are kept or deposited, and intended for sale by any persons not authorized to sell the same in said city or town under the provisions of this act, in any store, shop, warehouse, or other building or place in said city or town, said justice or judge shall issue his warrant of search to any sheriff, city marshal or deputy, or to any constable, who shall proceed to search the premises described in said warrant; and if any spirituous or intoxicating liquors are found therein, he shall seize the same, and convey them to some proper place of security, where he shall keep them till final action is had thereon. But no dwelling-house in which, or in part of which a shop is not kept, shall be searched, unless at least one of said complainants shall testify to some act of sale of intoxicating liquors therein, by the occupant thereof, or by his consent or permission, within at least one month of the time of making said complaint. And the owner or keeper of said liquors, seized as aforesaid, if he shall be known to the officer seizing the same, shall be summoned forthwith before the justice or judge by whose warrant the liquors were seized; and if he fails to appear, or unless he can show, by positive proof, that said liquors are of foreign production, that they have been imported under the laws of the United States, and in accordance therewith, that they are contained in the original packages in which they were imported, and in quantities not less than the laws of the United States prescribe, they shall be declared forfeited, and shall be destroyed by authority of the written order to that effect of said justice or judge, and in his presence, or in the presence of some person appointed by him to witness the destruction thereof, and who shall join with the officer by whom they shall have been destroyed, in attesting that fact upon the back of the order by authority of which it was done; and the owner or keeper of such liquors shall pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs, or stand committed for thirty days, in default of payment, if, in the opinion of the court, said liquors shall have been kept or deposited for the purposes of sale. And if the owner or possessor of any liquors seized in pursuance of this section, shall set up the claim that they have been regularly imported under the laws of the United States, and that they are contained in the original packages, the custom-house certificates of importation, and proofs of marks on the casks or packages corresponding thereto, shall not be received as evidence that the liquors contained in said packages are those actually imported therein.

Seized Liquors how disposed of, etc.

SEC. 12. If the owner, keeper or possessor of liquors, seized under the provisions of this act, shall be unknown to the officer seizing the same, they shall not be condemned and destroyed till they shall have been advertised, with the number and description of the packages, as near as may be, for two weeks, by posting up a written description of the same in some public place, that if such liquors are actually the property of any city or town in the state, and were so at the time of the seizure, purchased for sale by the agent of said city or town, for medicinal and mechanical purposes only, in pursuance of the provisions of this act, they may be destroyed; but upon satisfactory proof of such ownership, within said two weeks, before the justice or judge by whose authority said liquors were seized, said justice or judge shall deliver to the agent of said city or town an order to the officer having said liquors in custody, whereupon said officer shall deliver them to said agent, taking his receipt therefor on the back of said order, which shall be returned to said justice or judge.

Appeal of Claimants of seized Liquors.

SEC. 13. If any person claiming any liquors seized as aforesaid shall appeal from the judgment of any judge, by whose authority the seizure was made, to the district court, before his appeal shall be allowed he shall give a bond in the sum of two hundred dollars, with two good and sufficient sureties, to prosecute his appeal, and to pay all fines and costs which may be awarded against him; and in the case of any such appeal, where the quantity of liquors so seized shall exceed five gallons, if the final decision shall be against the appellant, that liquors were intended by him for sale, he shall be adjudged by the court a common seller of intoxicating liquors, and shall be subject to the penalties provided for in section eight of this act; and said liquors shall be destroyed, as provided for in section eleven. But nothing contained in this act shall be construed to prevent any chemist, artist, or manufacturer, in whose art or trade they may be necessary, from keeping at his place of business such reasonable and proper quantity of distilled liquors as he may have occasion to use in his art or trade, but not for sale.

Officers to seize Liquors in certain places.

SEC. 14. It shall be the duty of any mayor, alderman, selectman, assessor, city marshal or deputy, or constable, if he shall have information that any intoxicating liquors are kept or sold in any tent, shanty, hut, or place of any kind for selling refreshments in any public place, on or near the ground of any cattle-show, agricultural exhibition, military muster, or public occasion of any kind, to search such suspected places, and if such officer shall find upon the premises any intoxicating drinks, he shall seize them, and arrest the keeper or keepers of such place, and take them forthwith, or as soon as may be, before some justice or judge of a municipal or police court, with the liquors so found and seized, and upon proof that said liquors are intoxicating, that they were found in possession of the accused, in a tent, shanty or other place, as aforesaid, he or they shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days, and the liquor so seized shall be destroyed by order of said justice or judge.

Appeals, Fees, former Convition, &c.

SEC. 15. If any person arrested under the preceding section, and sentenced as aforesaid, shall claim an appeal, before his appeal shall be allowed, he shall give a bond in the sum of one hundred dollars, with two good and sufficient sureties, that he will prosecute his appeal and pay all fines, costs and penalties which may be awarded against him. And if on such an appeal the verdict of the jury be against him, he shall, in addition to the penalty awarded by the lower court, pay a fine of twenty dollars. In all cases of appeal under this act from the judgment of a justice or judge of any municipal or police court, to the district court, except where the proceeding is by action of debt, they shall be conducted in said district court by the prosecuting officer of the government; and said officer shall be entitled to receive all costs taxable to the state, in all criminal proceedings under this act, in addition to the salary allowed to such officer by law; but no costs in such cases shall be remitted or reduced by the prosecuting officer or the court. In any suit, complaint, indictment, or other proceeding against any person for a violation of any of the provisions of this act, other than for the first offense, it shall not be requisite to set forth particularly the record of a former conviction; but it shall be sufficient to allege briefly, that such person has been convicted of a violation of the fourth section of this act, or as a common seller, as the case may be; and such allegation, in any civil or criminal process, in any stage of the proceedings, before final judgment, may be amended without terms and as matter of right.

Contracts for Liquor null and void.

SEC. 16. All payments or compensations for liquors sold in violation of law, whether in money, labor, or other property, either real or personal, shall be held and considered to have been received in violation of law, and without consideration, and against law, equity, and a good conscience; and all sales, transfers, and conveyances, mortgages, liens, attachments, pledges and securities, of every kind, which, either in whole or in part, shall be utterly null and void against all persons and in all cases, and no rights of any kind shall be acquired there by; and in any action, either at law or equity, touching such real or personal estate, the purchaser of such liquors may be a witness for either party. And no action, of any kind, shall be maintained in any court in this state, either in whole or in part, for intoxicating or spirituous liquors sold in any other state or country whatever; nor shall any action, of any kind, be had or maintained in any court in this state, for the recovery or possession of intoxicating or spirituous liquors, or of the value thereof.

Applied to Cities, Towns and Plantations.

SEC. 17. All the provisions of this act relating to towns shall be applicable to cities and plantations; and those relating to selectmen shall also be applied to the mayor and aldermen of cities, and assessors of plantations.

Repeal of certain Acts, etc.

SEC. 18. The act entitled "an act to restrict the sale of intoxicating drinks," approved August 6th, 1846, is hereby repealed, except the thirteen sections from section ten to section twenty-two, inclusive, saving or reserving all actions or other proceedings, which are already commenced by authority of the same; and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed. This act to take effect from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved, June 2, 1851.

The Great British Quarterlies AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative).
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig).
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church).
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal).
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

These Reprints have been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the embarrassments they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades of opinion which severally pertain to the periodicals devoted to political subjects, it is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that respect they are not inferior to any other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of the Christopher of a departed generation, is, if possible, more attractive than ever, in the variety and interest of its contents; and that magazine, as I first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States, such works as "Tom Cringle's Log," and "Nor Nor's," both by Bulwer, "My Popularian Medal," "The Green Hand," and other tales of equal interest, and a great deal of other matter, the leading publishers in this country, have to be respectfully informed that the publication of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprints of that Magazine are always sure of having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

MEDICAL.

THE TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS
Of the great Arabian Remedy for Man and Beast,
H. G. Farrell's
CELEBRATED ARABIAN LINIMENT,

IS CAUSING COUNTERFEITS to spring up all over the country, spreading their baneful influence over the land, robbing the sick of the honest and unsuspecting, by imposing upon them worthless and poisonous trash, for the genuine H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Fellow Citizens look well before you buy, and see that the label of the bottle has the letters "H. G." before "Farrell," for if it has not, it is counterfeit. The label around each bottle of all my Liniment reads thus—"H. G. Farrell's Celebrated Arabian Liniment," and my signature is written upon the label also, and these words are blown in the glass bottle, "H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, Troy."

This truly great medicine still goes on, conquering disease, and snatching many a poor sufferer victim from the grave. By its powerfully stimulating, penetrating, and anodyne qualities, it restores the use of limbs which have been palsied for years, and by its singular power of reproducing the Synovial Fluid or Joint Water, it cures all diseases of the Joints with surprising rapidity. For Rheumatism, and affections of the spine and Spleen, it has proved itself a specific, and for affections of the Lungs, Liver and Kidneys, it is a most valuable and powerful auxiliary; also, for all diseases of the Glands, Scrofula, Goitre or swelled Neck, &c. And indeed for almost any disease where an external application is required, the medicine stands unparalled. J. S. READ.

From the Hon. Peter Minard, one of the oldest settlers in Illinois.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the virtues of your great medicine. My son had a blooded horse; had a swelling over the cap of the knee, about the size of a lion's egg. Some said it was a strain, and some that it was the joint water from the knee, and could not be cured. I tried all cooling on it, and all the liniments and ointments, and they did no more good than water. I then by persuasion of my friends, tried H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, and I was happy to find it take effect after a few days, and it finally cured the noble animal entirely. I think it is decidedly the greatest Liniment for horse, as well as human flesh, I ever knew.

Esq. Barker, of New Canton, Ill., says:

Mr. H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment has cured some hard cases here, which every other remedy had failed in: one was a white swelling and contracted cords in the leg of a boy twelve years old. The leg had swelled to twice and was so contracted that he had no use of it. Three doctors had tried their skill upon it, and it was fast taking to the grave, when the boy's father was induced to try H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Before the first bottle was used up, he came into Mr. Barker's store, the first words he said were: "Mr. Barker, I want all that Liniment you have in the store; the one bottle I got first my boy more good than all that had ever been done before." That boy is now well and hearty, and has no trace of his legs. It is good for sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, and swellings.

Being fully satisfied that H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment is the best medicine in the world, I cheerfully recommend it. I had been afflicted for 10 years with a most severe pain in my breast and shoulders, which I was so far that I could hardly do any work at all, and would often have to lie in bed for two weeks at a time with it. I used your Liniment on it, and it cured me sound and well. Said at the time of using your Liniment, one of the worst coughs I ever had laid in my life, and it cured that too. I rubbed it in well over my breast and shoulders. It is also excellent for bad bites, bad sores, scalds, and for sprains, mange, erysipelas, &c.

Beware of Counterfeits.

TO GUARD AGAINST IMPOSITION, READ THE FOLLOWING CAUTIONARY NOTICE:

The Public are particularly cautioned against a Base Counterfeit which has lately made its appearance, and is called by the imposter who makes it "H. H. Farrell's Arabian Liniment." This is a dangerous fraud, and is made to deceive them his bearing the name of Farrell. Therefore be particular never to call for it by the name Farrell's Liniment, for unprincipled dealers will impose the NEGRO mixture upon you for the genuine, but always call for "H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment," and see that the signature also has the letters "H. G." before Farrell's. Also, the genuine always has the letters "H. G." before Farrell's, the signature is also on the outside wrapper, and the words Troy, N. Y. are blown in the glass bottle—"H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, Troy."
