

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Mr. Clark opens his Singing School on Friday evening next. Parents, send your children to Mr. Clark, and keep them off the street one night in the week at least.

Sergt. EPHRAIM B. EAGER, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Eager, of this place, aged 25 years and 14 days, was killed at the battle of Antietam, near Sharpsburg, on the 17th September. He had been in the service since December last, was 2d Sergt. of Comp. A, 19th Indiana Volunteers, Col. Meredith, and fell in the cause of his country, gallantly fighting for those rights handed down to us by our revolutionary fathers. His death is a sad blow to a widowed mother, to brethren and sisters, as well as many friends whose good will he had secured.

Extract of a letter from his brother James, of Co. G, 5th Reserves. I suppose you have heard of the fight of Sunday last. It was my first experience. We drove the enemy from one of the best and strongest positions they ever occupied. Families were robbed of fathers and brothers on that day. Ephraim led the company he was with in that engagement. We then followed them. That fight was South Mountain. The enemy retreated, and when we next came up with them a desperate fight came off, and the dread realities of war were brought to our own door. Ephraim, again at the head of the company, marched into the fight, and in a charge through the woods, after driving the enemy, were in turn driven back, and brother fell wounded mortally in the stomach, and was brought off the field, but died soon after, and was decently buried by the boys of his company. The last time I saw him was on Saturday last. He was encamped about half a mile from me. I went to see him and took supper with him, and little did I expect it was the last time I was to see him. Our company lost one killed and one wounded. Henry Couch, the one killed, was standing behind me firing, when a ball passed over my shoulder and hit him above the eye, killing him instantly.

The following is a correct list of killed and wounded of Co. C, 45th Regiment, Penna. Vol., at the battle of South Mountain, Sunday, Sept. 14, 1862:

- Killed—James Baird, private; Robert Kerr, private. Wounded—J. M. Bulick, 2d Lieut., back, seriously; T. M. Bulick, corporal, arm and side; D. K. Biegelow, corporal, arm and back; John Bailey, private, slight; Wm. Dearmot, slight; J. B. T. Fields, slight; A. Goodman, slight; C. B. Goodman, slight; J. Ganister, slight; W. T. Parsons, since died; J. H. Price, slight; James H. White, slight; H. S. Wian, slight; Wesley Young, J. McFadden, John Long, Geo. Shaffer, T. G. Larney, F. Haly, Joseph Wisner.

Captain H. A. Eisenbise and Lieut. Schlemmer, late prisoners in Richmond, have been released.

Captains E. W. H. Eisenbise of the 107th and Jos. S. Wareham of the 131st, and Lieuts. Swain and Freeburn of the 49th, have been in town.

Returned.—The several companies from this county returned from the war last week, and all we believe safe and sound, and generally pleased with their picnic. The following account of their doings is from the pen of a participant in their march up "that briar hill" which knocked the wind out of more than one:

THRILLING INCIDENTS

OF THE GREAT REBELLION:

OR, THE HEROISM OF OUR SOLDIERS & SAILORS. ILLUSTRATED.

1 Volume, large 12mo. Price $1.25.

The critics and the public are right in predicting that this will surpass, in graphic narrative, exciting interest, and extensive popularity, all other histories of the War for the Union. Its theme will be the heroic daring, patient suffering, and hair-breadth escapes of our soldiers and sailors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to come. It will contain, in addition to its stirring details, the Philosophical Analysis of the Causes of the War, by John Lorimer Motley, LL.D., author of the "Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc.; the dates of all the important events from the John Brown raid, and an accurate and revised account of the principal battles, with the strategies.

One third the proceeds of all subscriptions sent direct to us will be given for the Relief of Disabled Soldiers, and all persons who wish a copy of the work, and also to benefit the soldiers, should send in their name and address at once. Also, any officer or private, or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of a heroic act or stirring incident, will oblige us by sending us an account of it. Booksellers, Postmasters and Circulating Agents will be furnished with a Subscription Prospectus, on application to the Publishers.

To hospital at Frederick City, Md., 2 boxes, care of Rev. B. Crever. To the Army Square hospital, Washington City, D. C., care of Mrs. J. Phipps. E. HOFFMAN, Sec'y.

Mr. Fryssinger—You will oblige the Ladies' Aid Association by publishing the list of hospital stores sent to their care for transportation to Washington and other points, for the use of sick and wounded Penna. soldiers. It gives us pleasure to inform the donors that the articles were sent as designed; but on reaching Harrisburg could go no further, on account of the threatened invasion of our State, and a battle being anticipated, Quartermaster Gen. Hale deemed it highly important that hospital stores should be reserved for the wounded who should be brought into our own State, and who would need such stores. It will be a pleasure to the donors to know that their donations will be put to immediate use.

DONATIONS: One box from the ladies of East Kishacoquillas, containing the following articles: 15 pair new drawers, 20 new shirts, 17 half worn shirts, 20 sheets, 20 pillow slips, 2 pillows, 12 towels, 1 quilt, 1 pair socks, packages of lint and muslin, soap, canned and dried fruit, etc.

One box from the ladies of Brown township, containing 6 quilts, 2 comforts, 1 blanket, 43 sheets, 3 pillows, a quantity of lint, dried apples, cherries, whortleberries, jelly, crackers, one barrel onions, and the sum of five dollars to be expended by the Association as they might deem proper.

One box from Sabbath School children of Milroy, containing the first dried fruit, and bandages, and onions.

From Milroy, one containing lint, bandages, etc. From a friend, canned tomatoes, jelly, bandages, lint, dried fruit, onions. From a young lady, 3 linen sheets. Abraham, three hundred thousand more, to which the following reply has been addressed:

I welcome you, my gallant boys, From Maine's resounding shores— From far New Hampshire's granite hills I see your legions pour; From Massachusetts' fertile vales, From old Vermont they come; Connecticut wheels into line At rolling of the drum; And little Rhody springs to arms Like David in his might, Upon rebellion's giant form To strike one blow for right: One blow for right, my hero boys, For right and Uncle Sam— Strike, and receive the blessing Of the God of Abraham. I see from all her boundaries The glorious Empire State A countless host to send forth With freedom's hopes elate; From Delaware there comes a gleam Of white and crimson bars, Where faithful hands are holding up The banner of the stars; New Jersey answers to the call, As if along her shore, Each grain of sand had said, we come, Six hundred thousand more: We come to strike for liberty, For right, and Uncle Sam, Who gives us all the blessings Of the God of Abraham. And Pennsylvania, Keystone of This glorious Union arch, Is sounding through her thousand caves The thrilling order, march! I see her dusky sons come forth From every darkened mine, And, like the clouds along her hills Swift forming into line: Their eyes have such a fiery gleam From glowing forges bright, Their arms such strength as if they were Of iron sinews wrought; I think when on Sassaparilla's head They strike for Uncle Sam— Each blow will fall like vengeance From the God of Abraham.

I see down our Western vales Your legions pour, my boys, Ohio, Indiana, and My own loved Illinois, And Iowa, and Michigan, And Minnesota too.

The Right Talk—What is Needed. Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson recently addressed a letter to the citizens of Erie, which enunciates precisely the thought and desire of the people in this crisis of our history. As to the duty of the Government, Mr. Dickinson says:

"In the pursuit of its purpose the Government must rise to the dignity of the responsibility, and while it extends the protection of the Constitution to those who acknowledge its obligation, should, in dealing with revolt, lay its hand with iron rigor upon every interest which will give it strength or weaken its lawless adversary, and should strike hard where it will be felt most; should, for the purpose of conquering an early peace, in obedience to the first instinct of self preservation and the holiest dictates of humanity, whenever it will contribute to these results, immediately or remotely, condemn and confiscate to its use every species of property of every name and kind, whether animate or inanimate—on two legs or on four. This will give an earnest of the realities of war."

The following sound remarks by Mayor Henry, of Philadelphia, should command the attention of all loyal men:

"There can be no partisan triumph over the National Administration that will not be gladly hailed by foreign Governments as a popular denunciation of our war for the Union; there can be no factious opposition to the policy of that Administration that will not be fresh vigor throughout the ranks of treason; there can be no defeat of the friends of the Administration that shall not speed rebel bullets with deadlier aim against our brethren, whose lives are perilled in the vindication of our country's honor."

Tell the Truth and Shame the Devil! I AM told that Samuel B. Haines has said to a number of Milfin county farmers, long since, which I am now making (Pelton's Patent) and that he found it not good and abandoned it, and if any one doubts it he can show them the wheels. The object of this communication is to give a history of those wheels as related to me by those who claim to know the truth, as follows:

Lewis Wisler some years since brought to this county a Pelton Horse Power. It was left in a place where some one drove against it with a wagon and broke it. He took it to Samuel B. Haines to get it repaired; Mr. Haines did not (perhaps could not) repair it, but set it in the cellar of his shop, where it remains, and is what he shows as being of his own make. This summer Lewis Wisler sold it to W. P. Graham, giving him an order for it, but Mr. Haines refused to deliver it. The inference is easily drawn.

I have no objection to his making any kind of machines he has a right to make; nor do I wish to divert his customers to myself in any way but by their own choice. If I make the best article the public will find it out for themselves; I leave them to judge.

I am the sole agent of the Patentee, Saml. Pelton, for all of Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna, and I am not aware of any privilege to build being granted to any one before me in the district described, except Dr. A. V. B. Orr. JOHN R. WEKES, sep24-3*
