The Pacific Islands.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Mr. H. A. P. Carter, the Hawaiian minister, who has recently returned from Honolulu, speaks hopefully of the development of commercial relations between this country and the islands of the Pacific. He cited the fact that during last year 150 vessels discharged cargoes at the Hawaiian islands.

The English and German, he said, were making a strong bid for the Pacific trade through their subsidized steamers which ply between the various islands. Mr. Carter thought that the Hawaiian government was well managed and that the debt of $700,000 was very small. A loan of $2,000,000 is being negotiated with English capitalists for improvements at Honolulu and other points.

In the matter of education and general civilization. Mr. Carter said that the Hawaiians were far advanced. Attendance at the schools is compulsory and the suffrage is practically popular, a small property qualification being the only qualification.

Mr. Carter concluded by saying that many of the stories about Claus Spreckles, banker of the Hawaiian government, were false. He was not cruel to his employes, and his fortune of $7,000,000 was invested in commercial enterprises of the country. He carries the mails between the Hawaiian islands and this country. He was not a monopolist, and the stories of his cornering the sugar market were much exaggerated.

Mr. Carter added that the people of the United States, excepting those of San Francisco, showed little commercial enterprise in their relations with the Pacific islands.

Mormon Missionaries

READING, Pa., Nov. 4.—Mormon missionaries have recently been working among the people along the Lehigh county line, about 15 miles from here, trying to induce the country girls to go with them to Utah, where they were promised they should have rich husbands and could live like ladies. The girls are healthy, ruddy-cheeked and strong, and have to work hard on the farms. They, therefore, readily embrace the opportunity to become wives of Mormons, and last week a party of 15 young women from the vicinity of Eckville, 12 miles from here, left for the West in charge of a Mormon elder.

The people are very much incensed over the action of the missionaries, who meet the girls clandestinely and pour honeyed stories in their unsophisticated ears. Two of the Mormon elders remained to drum up more girl converts for their cause. They give the names of Josiah Somerset and Adrew Younger The excitement against them became so high that they were followed by a dozen farmers, who overtook them in the public road leading from Allentown to Eckville. Near by is a lime kiln, and the old Mormons were told to take off their coats, after which they were submitted to cruel indignities. They were caught and held while some of the farmers threw lime into their hair and faces and down their necks, and kicked and cuffed them. Some of their long hair was pulled out by the roots. They howled piteously for mercy and were allowed to depart provided they would never come to Berks county again.

A Desperate Apache.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—Mangus Head, chief of the Chiricubua Apaches, and thirteen bucks and squaws, passed through this city under guard to-day, en route to Fort Marion, Florida. While the party was going through Colorado Mangus jumped through the car window and ran some distance before he was recaptured. Then he obtained a knife and stabbed himself in half a dozen places, inflicting serious wounds. This morning he attacked his interpreter, striking him about the head with the shackles on his wrists. During the consequent uproar the train started, carrying off all the party except the interpreter, who was left behind and will follow to night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Dr. A. G. Gerster, brother of the well-known singer, Etelka Gerster, to-day denied emphatically the report, published this morning, that his sister had become insane in consequence of the loss of her voice. He cabled to Europe for information, and received a reply that the report is a malicious hoax. He adds that Madame Gerster's health is steadily improving Dr. Gerster says that his sister has been suffering from nervous prostration which has prevented her from singing or exerting herself actively in any way but that her strength is now returning and that it is hoped and believed that with restored health she will be able to sing again.

An Embezzling Mail Carrier.

DUBOIS, Nov. 6.—Willian P. Divens, a mail carrier of Brockpart, Elk county, has been arrested on the information of Hugh J. Gorman, United States mail inspector, charged with embezzling letters. Divens was brought before United States Commissioner D. Sherron at this place yesterday, who held him in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance at the next term of the United States court at Pittsburg. He furnished ba Fiftieth Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—Edward McPherson, secretary of the Republican congressional committee, makes the following computation from the returns received up to 9 o'clock this evening, of the political complexion of the House of Representatives of the Fiftieth Congress. The returns as far as received indicate the election of 154 Republicans, 159 Democrats, 5 Labor and Independent, 6 doubtful, 1 vacancy—325. The doubtful are one in Illinois, (Landes), one in Kentucky (Carlisle) one in Ohio, (Campbell), and three in Missouri, (Clandy, Glover and Mansur). The Labor and Independents are one in Florida, (Pendleton), one in Indiana, (Marsh), one in Iowa, (Anderson), one in Virginia, (Hopkins) and one in Wisconsin (Smith). If the Democrats get four of the doubtful they will have 165 or a majority of the house.

Mr. McPherson says the attitude of the Democracy toward the present administration is similar to that of the Republicans towards the administration of Hayes, and that many dissatisfied Democrats voted the labor ticket. Labor, he thinks, will be an organized factor in political contests of the future, and the labor vote must be taken into serious consideration.

Phil Thompson, secretary of the Democratic committee, says the Democrats will have a good working majority in the house.

A Mystery of the Deep.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The schooner Lizzie A. Baylis, of Port Jefferson, Captain Baylis, from Tampico, September 26, which arrived here to-day reports: October 15 lattitude 23 degrees 47 minutes, longitude 82 degrees 17 minutes made an object to the wind ward that looked like a can buoy turned dome up with a red flag with a white cross in it. Tacked ship and stood for it, to see what it was. When nearly to it, it started ahead about three or four knots, leaving a big wake behind it. We chased it with a light breeze for about 15 minutes, and came to the conclusion that it was a torpedo boat or some infernal machine with steam in it. We hauled on the wind again. Whoever or whatever it was, evidently did not want to be spoken to, for after we hauled on the wind it slackened its speed.

SPRINFIELD, Ills., Nov. 4.—Hon. J. C. Robinson, the law partner of ex-Governor John M. Palmer, died at his home in this city yesterday aged 63 years. Mr. Robison has long been a prominent man in the state. He began the practice of law in Clark county, and was sent from there to congress for three consecutive terms, beginning with 1856.

DR. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

DR. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.
