The Woches returned home Monday, Mr. Bower planning to remain here until after the New Year, when he will return to his duties in New York.

—A few minutes before noon, Friday, cars driven by Hays Johnson, of Runville, and Paul Sheetz, of Milesburg, collided at the intersection of Allegheny and Linn Streets. Johnson had been traveling north on Allegheny Street, and in turning left into Linn Street is reported to have cut in too close, striking the Sheetz car which was traveling east on Linn Street. No one was injured and the cars were not badly damaged. Chief of Police Harry Dukeman investigated the mishap.

—Mrs. Howard Frazier, of North Spring Street, sustained painful injuries Friday afternoon in an unusual accident which was indirectly caused by the sheet of ice which covered the county's highways. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier were on their way home from Millheim, and had reached a point opposite the Doll ice plant, just south of Bellefonte, when their car suddenly went into a skid to the right. As the machine swung across the road, Mrs. Frazier, who was sitting beside her husband in the front seat, either bumped against, or grabbed the door latch, and the door flew open. Mrs. Frazier fell out of the car, rolled across the road, and was struck by the right rear wheel of the car, which by that time had skidded entirely around in the road so that the car faced toward Pleasant Gap. Mrs. Frazier was hurled to the edge of the road, near the steep embankment along Logan Branch. Passing motorists, including Harry M. Williams, of Pine Street, who narrowly averted a more serious accident when the Frazier car suddenly swerved onto his side of the road, helped Mrs. Frazier into her husband's car for the remainder of the trip home. She complained of severe pains in the back. Latest reports are to the effect that Mrs. Frazier is recovering slowly from her injuries which are not of a serious nature.
