—A flue fire at the home of Mrs. William Reed, Pike street, Bellefonte, resulted in the Logan Fire Company being called out about 10 o'clock last Wednesday night. The fire caused no damage and was allowed to burn out while the firemen protected surrounding buildings from sparks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shields and two children, Michael and Elizabeth, of Reading spent the weekend with Mr. Shields' mother and sisters, on Logan Street. The son Micheal, we are happy to report, has almost fully recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia which housed him up for six weeks.

—Mrs. William Jodon, of North Allegheny Street, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Jodon and daughter, of Bellefonte, spent last Thursday and Friday at Loveville, having been called to that community because of the death of Mrs. George Jodon's grandfather, David R. Thomas. The funeral was held Friday.

—Miss Pearl Royer motored here from her home in Niagara Falls on Friday, bringing with her as her guest Mrs. William Cowdrick, who spent the weekend with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, East Lamb Street, while Miss Royer became a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Carson, East Bishop street. Both ladies returned to Niagara on Monday.

—R. Linn Krape, of North Allegheny Street, resumed his duties at the First National Bank, Tuesday morning, after having been off duty while quarantined home because of an attack of scarlet fever. Mrs. Krape contracted the same disease while her husband was ill. Both have entirely recovered at this time and the quarantine has been removed from the home.

—Samuel Gray motored up from West Chester on Friday and remained until Saturday as a guest of his mother, Mrs. William Gray, East Linn Street. He was accompanied to Bellefonte by his daughter, Miss Ann, who had accepted an invitation to attend the student social activities at Penn State over the weekend, returning to her home Sunday as the driving guest of John Curtin, Jr., and his fiancee.

—W. H. Blouse, well known merchant and president of the Bellefonte Elks Club, has been confined to his home on South Thomas Street since Wednesday of last week because of an attack of "old-fashioned" influenza. While his condition was reported to be showing some improvement yesterday, he is still confined to bed and probably will no be able to resume his usual duties until next week.

—Dr. Paul M. Corman and Dr. Richards H. Hoffman, of Bellefonte, went to New York, Monday, to attend the annual convention of the American College of Physicians, in session there from Monday until Friday. They expect to return home late Friday night. Dr. P. H. Dale, of State College, also is attending the convention, having gone to New York Sunday with a group of physicians from a neighboring county.

—The Rev. Robert J. Sudlow, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, motored to Wilkes Barre yesterday, and expects to return home today with Mrs. Sudlow and their young son, Bobby. During a visit with relatives at Towanda a number of weeks ago Bobby contracted an infection of the mastoids, and an operation was performed at Wilkes Barre, Mrs. Sudlow's parental home. Although his condition was quite serious for a time, he is now recovering nicely and is believed to be well on the way to complete recovery.

—A seven-pound son born Monday afternoon at the Centre County Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Hoy, who reside with Mr. Hoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoy, one mile west of Hublersburg, established a number of records in the Hoy family. In addition to being the first child in the Harold Hoy family, and the first grandson of the Harvey Hoys, the little boy is the first great grandson of Mrs. Carrie Hall, of South Allegheny Street, Bellefonte. Both the new arrival, who has not been named at this time, and his mother, the former Helen Matis, are reported to be getting along nicely at the hospital. The happy father is proprietor of the Sunoco service station at Hublersburg.

—Harry M. Williams, of Pine Street, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Williams, of Logan Street, motored to the State Sanitorium in Cresson last Friday with the expectation of bringing home Mrs. Williams' two daughters, Shirley and Phyllis, who have been patients there for the past two years. Upon arriving at the institution they learned that there had been some confusion about the matter of the girls' discharge, and that they are not to leave until June, principally because one of them requires a tonsil operation and should remain until after she has recovered. Mrs. Williams and her brother-in-law returned home without accomplishing their mission but with the knowledge that when the girls return home in June they will be in the best possible physical condition.

—Miss Alice Weaver of Milesburg, a former employe of the Eagle Silk Mill in Bellefonte, has been added to the Centre County Hospital staff as a part-time stenographer and clerk. Miss Weaver began her duties at the institution last Friday.

—The E. Z. Campbell family moved Monday from a residence on West Logan Street to one of the A. E. Schad houses on West Lamb Street. The house is the first one below the intersection of Spring and Lamb Streets. Mr. Campbell is an employe of the Chemical Lime Company.

—Mrs. Leon Gagon and little daughter, Ruth, of New York City, arrived here Monday night, having been called to Milesburg because of the death of Mrs. Gagon's uncle, Frank L. Wetzler. She expects to remain in Milesburg for a week or so, to be with her father John L. Wetzler who is recovering from a prolonged illness.

—Although the Brockerhoff Hotel did not formally open until Friday, four persons sought and were granted rooms there Thursday night, and became the first ones to be registered at the establishment. They were: C. E. Talmadge and M. A. Diehl, both of Larrowe Milling Co., and M. Roy Decker and M. B. Kauffman, all of Harrisburg.

—A suggestion has been made that all Bellefonte business men display flags in front of their stores tomorrow, Friday, in honor of forefathers' day, commemorating the 300th. anniversary of the landing of the first Swedish colonists on the banks of the Delaware. The anniversary is to be celebrated with a parade in Philadelphia, and a banquet in Harrisburg, in addition to other activities throughout the state.

—The following persons from out-of-town were here Sunday for the funeral of Mrs. Almora Walker, who died Friday at Franklin, and who was buried in the Advent cemetery, Boggs township, Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Vogus and son, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ritz and daughter, Leah, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Lindsey and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Walker, Andrew Walker and Charles Miller, all of Franklin. They were dinner guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Bathurst, of the Lyons apartments on South Allegheny street.

—Mahlon Miles, of Berwick, motored to Centre County the forepart of this week, bringing with him his sister, Miss Lillian Miles, of Milesburg, who recently underwent treatment at the Geisinger Hospital, Danville, and who was at her brother's home for the first few days after her discharge from that institution. Miss Miles is greatly improved in health, and while she has not yet regained her former strength, is recuperating rapidly. Her brother returned to Berwick yesterday, having been forced to shorten his trip because of the illness of a daughter in Berwick.

—Mrs. W. C. Lauck and granddaughter, Miss Mary Lauck, of Snow Shoe, were Bellefonte visitors on Saturday and pleasant callers at this office. We learned that on March 15th, fifty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Lauck were united in the bonds of wedlock, and although the half century anniversary was observed without ceremony, it was an event of unusual satisfaction to their family and friends to know that this well known couple were permitted to enjoy this long period of companionship. Mr. Lauck is 72 years of age and his wife 74 years. Both enjoy reasonable good health. We regret that we are unable to publish a more extended notice of the important anniversary, but wish to be numbered with the host of friends who extend congratulations.
