We have copied several articles on the subject of the Connellsville road from the Baltimore papers. Whether this county will take any stock of this road, we are not informed. Our own opinion of it is that it must be the best paying road, between the Atlantic and the West as it is unquestionably the most direct, shortest and best route between the two sections of country.—Uniontown Democrat.

A STARTLING DISCOVERY.—During the late trial of Archibald Seaman and Walter Barnes, on a charge of Burglary, in the Lorain county Common Pleas, the existence of a Secret Society was disclosed, the designs and tendency of which one or two extracts from its preamble and constitution will sufficiently explain. In the first pledge, the member binds himself to secrecy under a pledge of his "goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and his life and body." The preamble recites that "Whereas, all Governments are instituted and controlled for the sole purpose to aid the learned against the unlearned, the strong against the weak," &c., &c. Pledge the second, contains the following clause: "I pledge further that I will disregard all State or National Law that has a tendency or will even permit the designing knave to rob the honest or unsuspecting, and as my influence shall be against the wealth of the aristocrat, so it shall be in favor of the laboring poor." A pamphlet copy of the constitution of this diabolical confederation was taken from the pocket of one of the defendants, after he had broken jail and been recaptured. The following certificate was also found in Barnes' pocket:

"Protect thy Brother, Society of Friends.
"Know all whom it may Concern, That B. C. Cbsoft is duly authorised to institute Grand Division, No. 3, according to the Constitution and Rules of the Order. And the said B. C. Cbsoft is hereby appointed foreman of said Division, and is to preside over said Division, until his successor is chosen and qualified.
Given under my hand, and the seal of the Order, this 12th day of October, 1852.
G. SNLRM, [Seal.]

It will be perceived that the names are in cypher, the key of which was discovered during the trial. It consists of adopting the letter in the alphabet immediately succeeding the real one used in spelling. This communion of plunderers, the germ of which was thus brought to light in Lorain county, was to have branches in every State of the Union. It is said that a gentleman who has been a representative in the Ohio Legislature was at the head of the band in this State.

BANK ROBBERY.—The St. Louis Union says the Banking House of Page & Bacon was a short time since the scene of one of the most cool, impudent robberies of which the annals of crime has any record. About one o'clock in the afternoon, the financial clerk of the heavy dry goods house of Eddy, Jameson & Co., called at the bank for the purpose of depositing some $4,500; a portion of the money consisted of coin, and was contained in a shot bag. When he approached the counter he found it thronged by other depositors, and ascertained that he would have to "wait for his turn." One of the Tellers soon becoming otherwise disengaged, proceeded to count the specie, and while the work was progressing, the clerk laid his passbook upon the counter, keeping his eye upon it all the while. Before the principal receiving Teller was prepared to receive the identical deposit, the clerk had his attention drawn to the pile of coin which he had brought there, and while giving it a transient glance, he took up his book, and to his utter amazement found that $1600 in Missouri Bank bills had been abstracted, while the sum of about $1500, which was "in currency," had been left untouched. The fact of the robbery was instantaneously communicated to the bystanders, and no suspicious looking person being present, a search was not instituted. Immediate effort was made to discover the thief, but as yet no clue to him was found.

MAZZINI AND HIS PRESENT POSITION.—In December and January last the Italians pressed Mazzini strongly to give his consent to a rising. Maddened by the insupportable tyranny of Austria, imprisoned by scores and fined by hundreds on suspicion, they wrote that if they had to die, they rather chose to die with arms in their hands than to perish immured in Austrian jails. Mazzini urged them to wait. In reply they asked him whether he had sufficient pecuniary means to insure a successful rising if it were deferred to a future period. He replied he had not. Being pressed to come nearer the scene of action, he left England, and arrived in Switzerland with the intention of keeping back the insurrection. It was not in his power. The fight began. The Hungarian troops refused to fire on the insurgents, but the Germans and Bohemians overpowered the badly armed Italians, though not without great difficulty; especially in Monza, where the Austrians were routed on the first onset, but were reinforced from Milan. In all Lombardy there were not more than 8000 Hungarian soldiers, 2000 of them in the fortress of Verona, where there were also 16,000 Austrians and Croats. The Hungarian regiments were all in the Romagna and in Tuscany. An attempt at insurrection was therefore sure to fail, and Kossuth could not give his consent to it.

After the struggle was over, the friends of Mazzini, who knew all the dangers which awaited him on his way either through Piedmont to Genoa, or through France and Germany, immediately spread the news in London that he was at Milan, and that they had great apprehensions for his safety. This was telegraphed to Vienna, the gates of Milan were closed for several days, and the most minute search was made by the police, while he had the opportunity to escape, as the attention of the authorities was directed to one single point. He was in Lombardy, but not in Milan, and is at the present moment perfectly safe.—N. Y. Tribune.

The New York Crystal Palace Exhibition.—Col. Hughes of Maryland, the representative of the American Association for the management of the Crystal Palace, at New York, who is now in London, has had a long interview with Prince Albert, who, in conjunction with Her Majesty the Queen, it is said, takes great interest in the American World's Fair. Her Majesty and Prince Albert will send over a variety of choice and valuable articles, including a bust of the Queen, to be exhibited. The Emperor of the French, the Pope and the Sultan are among the contributors. England sends 542 objects, France 320, the Zollverein 5[...], Holland 142, and Italy 100 statues. Col. Hughes will shortly leave London for Paris, and proceed to the several European courts upon his important mission.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE NEW YORK CANALS.—The bill providing means for the present wants of the New York Canals, and to raise the same, to a capacity of one hundred and fifty tons, passed the Assembly of that State, on Friday, by a vote of eighty-one to twenty-eight, after being amended so as to levy tolls upon railroads. The whole amount to be raised $1,600,000, of which a part is to be raised by a tax of seventenths of a mill upon all the property of the State, the remainder by the special imposition of tolls on railroads. The law is the alternative forced upon the House by rejection of the propositions to tax the aggregate earnings of banks and railroads. It is said it will pass the Senate.

VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.—The Covington and Ohio Rail'ad bill passed the Senate on Friday, with an additional appropriation of $4,000,000. The bill authorising an increase of the capital stock of the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad to the amount of $200,000, has also passed the Senate.

Important to Trave[lers].
THE early hour, three o'clock in the morning, at which the EXPRESS TRAIN starts for the East, from Pittsburgh, had made it very inconvenient for travelers going by that train, compelling them to be aroused at a most uncomfortable time, (say 2 o'clock A. M.) or else to remain up all night. This inconvenience is now obviated by a late arrangement. That Express Train now breakfasts regularly at LATROBE, instead of Hollidaysburg—so that travelers East can leave Pittsburgh at 4 o'clock P. M., by the Accommodation, which arrives at Latrobe at 7½ o'clock P. M., have pleasant quarters there over night at the large and elegant HOTEL of Mr. Ebbra, breakfast comfortably with the other passengers in the morning, and pass on East by the Express, having DAY TRAVEL ALL THE WAY from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia or Baltimore. Every provision is made at the Hotel, for the accommodation of guests and visitors by those trains. fe17:tf

DR. G. REICHHELM, having removed to Philadelphia, requests all persons having accounts with him, yet unsettled, to call soon and settle the same with his late partner, Dr. J. P. DAKE, No. 310 Penn street. fe22:d1m

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS.
SOMETHING better and more economical than Soda, Cream Tartar, or any other preparation in existence, for Baking.—DURKEE'S CHEMICAL YEAST, or BAKING POWDER, for raising Bread, Biscuit, Fried, Griddle and Jonny Cakes, Puddings, Pot-Pies, Corn Bread, Sweet Cakes, Apple Dumplings, Pastry, &c. &c. This article is one that every Family, Hotel, Boarding House, Eating Saloon, Ship, Steamboat, Vessel, Canal Boat, &c., will find, upon a careful trial, to be the very thing needed every single day of their existence.
Its most important advantages over the old system, are:
1. It saves the expense of milk, eggs, shortening, spoiled bread, and the trouble and expense of procuring good yeast,—water only being necessary.
2. No time is required for the dough to rise before baking; consequently bread may be made in a few minutes.
3. A cook can always depend upon having light, sweet, tender and palatable bread and biscuit, whether the flour be of the best quality or not.
4. Bread made by this process is much more nutritious, easier of digestion, better fitted for a weak stomach, sweeter, whiter and lighter, than when made with yeast.
5. The bread made by fermentation, does not carry all the same amount of nourishment to the system, that it does when made with this compound; because the vegetable portion of the grain is decomposed by the fermentation, and in proper decomposition, consequently is a cause to produce dyspepsia and the attendant evils.
This article has been thoroughly tested, and is universally liked. When used according to the directions, it is warranted to suit.
Be careful to ask for DURKEE'S BAKING POWDER, and take no other, and you will not be deceived. Principal office, 139 Water street, New York, sold by the best grocers and druggists generally.
