If the task is mighty tough, stick to it,
If the way is long and rough, stick to it.
Overcome it mile by mile,
Meet the hardships with a smile
Courage is the thing worth-while, stick to it.

We are just wondering if it would be possible to organize some sort of a society in Julian wit hfolks volunteering to help try to protect the lives of our little tots when they are sent on errands to postoffice, stores, etc., from reckless drivers of automobiles. What is the great hurry. God made our days 24 hours long. So there is surely time for our small errands so that we may slow up a little.

We are sorry to learn that the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Smith met with an accident. She was run down by an automobile.

We are convinced more than ever that nature can accomplish more in a few hours than science, men's ingenuity, force of arms and many other seemingly irresistible forces, can. China's 'Old Man River' on the rampage has halted the war in that section dominated by this mighty stream. Let us hope this result will be permanent and that the oppressed people will feel free again.

ANGRY WORDS.

Angry words sometimes are spoken
Which we would fain recall,
And if we just stopped to think
We would ne'er speak them at all.

Sometimes to those we love the best
These angry words are spoken,
And they still remember them
Long after we've forgotten.

Angry words sometimes have driven
Loved ones from our door,
Those whom we should love and cherish
Often wonder where they are.

'Tis better then when we are angry
Not to speak at all,
Than wound another's feelings,
With words, that we would fain recall.
