—The U. S. Army recruiting sergeant will be at the Bellefonte post office on Thursday, October 20th, from 2 to 2:30 p. m. for the purpose of interviewing applicants for enlistment. At the present time the Army is practically at full strength so those who are accepted will not be enlisted immediately but will have to wait their turn.

—Mrs. Walter Cain, who has been confined to bed at her home on East High Street for the past number of weeks because of illness, is reported to be showing some improvement. Mrs. Cain, a victim of a lung infection, until recently was under treatment at a Philadelphia hospital. She is a Registered Nurse and for a time was employed at the Centre County Hospital.

—Edward Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, of East Lamb Street, pressman at The Centre Democrat office, has been confined to bed at his parental home for the past ten days because of an infection of the knee. Several weeks ago Eddie slipped and fell while fishing, striking his knee on a rock. The infection is believed to have resulted from that injury.

—Weekend guests at the E. E. Widdowson home on North Allegheny street included Miss Doris Buckingham, of New York City, who returned home Monday after a four-day visit. Miss Mildred West, of Harlingen, Texas, is spending a two weeks' vacation in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. Widdowson, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. West, at their home on East Linn street. Miss West made the trip north by train, arriving here Saturday.

—Announcement was made last Wednesday at Mercer of the engagement of Miss Gladys Zoeller, of that city, to J. Arthur Dubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dubbs, of Willowbank Street, Bellefonte. The announcement was made at a bridge party held at the home of Miss Zieller's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shaner. No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-to-be is a graduate of the Butler High School and for the past several years has been employed in the offices of the Thompson stores in Mercer. Mr. Dubbs was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1928 and since that time has been employed by the West Penn Power Company here. —Miss Helen Weaver and friend, Mr. Everett Rubendall, of Williamsport, spent the weekend at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Weaver. Mr. Rubendall also attended the Williamsport district Epworth League convention which met at the Bellefonte Methodist church.

—Miss Ellen Shoemaker, of Philadelphia, visited her mother, Mrs. Thomas Shoemaker, from Friday until Monday. Miss Shoemaker is employed as a governess in the prominent Van Allen family. Upon her return to Philadelphia she was accompanied by her brother John who expects to visit in Philadelphia until this Thursday.

—John W. Bradley, a native of Bellefonte, brother of Ben. Bradley and Mrs. G. P. Bible of this place retired on a pension, after forty years service with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Mr. Bradley was assistant foreman in the shops in Philadelphia for forty some years. He reached the retiring age several years ago, but was prevailed on to continue with the company two years longer, closing a long and successful service to that company, September first of this year.

—Miss Carolyn Brouse, of South Thomas Street, entertained at bridge at the Nittany Country Club, Tuesday evening, in honor of her house guest, Miss Florence Barnes, of Clyde, N. Y. Guests present were: Mrs. Jack Montgomery, Mrs. J. H. Yeager, Mrs. Earl Heverly, Mrs. Donald Klinger, Mrs. I. Claster, Mrs. William Brachbill, Miss Elizabeth Heir, Miss Josephine Cohen, Miss Betty Casebeer, Miss Mary Baum, Miss Mary Fleming, Miss Georgette Purnell, Miss Jane Beatty, and Miss Erma Sloop.

—Frank B. Fritchman, 11-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fritchman, of East Linn Street, was admitted to the Centre County Hospital yesterday morning to undergo treatment for mastoiditis. At first it was feared that an immediate operation would be necessary, but yesterday it was learned that the condition might respond to treatment without an operation, and surgical means will not be resorted to for three or four days, if at all. The child's father is the proprietor of the County Chevrolet Garage in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker and family, of Wingate, have made arrangements to vacate their summer cottage there about November 1, and will move into the late Charles M. McCurdy residence on East Linn Street for the winter. Miss Grace McCurdy, who made her home with her brother, will go to State College to reside with Mr. and Mrs. George Denithorne, at 632 West Beaver Avenue. Mrs. Denithorne is a niece of Miss McCurdy. The Baker family includes a daughter and son, Miss Marcy and Randolph.

—Invitations were issued this week to the wedding of Miss Ernestine Heimlich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Heimlich, of 82 E. Main Street, LeRoy, New York, to Robert Woodrow Francis, golf pro at the Nittany Country Club. The wedding is to take place on Thursday afternoon, November 3, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. After the wedding the young couple will go to Miami, Florida, where Mr. Francis has accepted a position as a golf pro at a country club during the winter months. They expect to return to the Nittany Country club next spring.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rankin, of Camp Hill, accompanied by Mrs. William Jenkins, of Harrisburg, and her sister, Mrs. Jennie Stegall, of Detroit, Mich., motored to Bellefonte Saturday to spend the weekend with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rankin were entertained at the home of Mr. Rankin's father, W. B. Rankin, and family, on East Curtin Street; Mrs. Jenkins was a guest of Mrs. James Clark, on West High Street, and Mrs. Stegall was with the Misses Underwood, at their home on North Spring Street. Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Stegall, are members of the Stott family, at one time well known residents of Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. George V. Hughes returned to their home at North Bay, Canada, Saturday, after having spent three days in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Heverly, at their home on East High Street. Mr. Hughes conducts the Beaverland hunting and fishing camp at North Bay—the camp where Mr. and Mrs. Heverly have been spending their annual summer vacations for the past ten years. Because last week's trip was the first time the Northerners have been in mountainous areas, they were greatly impressed upon their drive through Pennsylvania. They thoroughly enjoyed trips to Penn's View south of Coburn, and to scenic Penn's Cave, while Mr. Hughes was so greatly impressed by the Fisherman's Paradise he visited that project several times during his stay here. The Hughes Camp on North Bay is one of the outposts of civilization, for it is located in the depths of the Canadian forests, more than 600 miles north of Bellefonte. There hunting and fishing are at their best.

—The condition of Major H. Laird Curtin, of Curtin, who has been a medical patient at the Centre County Hospital for two weeks or more, continues to remain unchanged, according to members of the family. Weakness and inability to eat causes him considerable distress, but otherwise his condition is not regarded as being immediately serious. Only members of the family are permitted to visit Major Curtin at the hospital.

—Frank M. Crawford, of East Curtin street, on Monday underwent an operation at the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, and according to reports is getting along nicely. Mr. Crawford will remain at the institution for approximately six weeks, at the end of which time a second operation will be performed. His son, Francis Crawford, of East Linn street, who was with him at the time of the operation, returned to Bellefonte Tuesday night.

—During the three or four recent days of mild temperature and sunny skies it has been remarked that Indian Summer has arrived. But the real Indian Summer comes later than this. It has been fixed by descriptive writers as "beginning about the middle of October," or as "expected near November." It is traditionally characterized by the hazy air, the coloring of the foliage, and the slight tinge of frostiness in the evening atmosphere. If we still have Indian Summer to look forward to this month, October, as a whole will be an unusually kind one to the coal bin.

—Speakers at the fall meeting of the West Susquehanna Classis of the Evangelical and Reformed church at the Bellefonte Reformed church, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, included the Rev. H. E. Gebhard, superintendent of the Bethany Orphans' Home; Dr. William F. Delong, treasurer of the Board of Home Missions; Dr. Charles E. Creitz, president of the Board of Foreign Missions, and Dr. Frederick A. Rupley, representative of the Board of Ministerial Relief. The meeting was adjourned until the annual meeting to be held in the Reformed church, State College, at a date to be announced later.

—Members of the Bellefonte Gradale Sorority motored to Lock Haven Monday night for a joint meeting with the Lock Haven Gradale. Mrs. Dix, a state leader of the organization, was the speaker of the evening. Mrs. Dix gave many useful points on how Gradale Sororities may be organized, and also how they may carry on their work after organizing. The following members attended the meeting: Marie Miles, Pauline Stine, Gertrude Poorman, Marie Rhoades, Velma Fetzer, Helen Stine, Hannah Rockey, Clevie Gingery, Betty Hoover, Betty Hoffman, and the advisors, Mrs. Mary Dry and Mrs. Lillian Miles.

—Elwood Bresch, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, David E. Washburn, on East Curtin Street.

—Mrs. Emma King, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Milon P. Walker for a few days. Mrs. King is a sister of Mrs. Walker.
