Mayes, of Lehighton; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Price, of Williamsport and Mrs. William Van Camp, (the former Mary Evey), of Pittsburgh.

—Carl Motz, Jr., of Woodward, who was admitted to the Centre County Hospital Tuesday of last week, is recovering nicely from an infection in his left arm. Some time ago Motz scratched his hand in the general store conducted by his father Earl W. Motz, of Woodward. The scratch became infected and spread through the arm.

—Dr. Richards H. Hoffman, is making arrangements to move his offices from the present location in the Masonic building, North Allegheny Street, to the first floor of his home on the same street, which he recently converted into office rooms. The entrance will be on the south side of the house next to the alley. The change is to be made about April 1.

—Edward Kerh motored to Bellefonte from his home in Baltimore, Md., Friday in order to attend the annual St. Patrick's Day banquet of the Undine Fire Company, of which he is a member. Eddie, who formerly conducted the City Steam Laundry on North Water Street, is engaged in that business in Baltimore. His mother, Mrs. Frank T. Kern, is expected in Bellefonte within the next few weeks for a visit with relatives and friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Widman, of East Bishop Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son at their home at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday morning of last week. The new arrival, who is the sixth child and the third son in the Widman family, and who weighed 7 pounds at birth, has been named Charles Alan. Both he and Mrs. Widman are reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Widman is employed by McCloskey & Company, at State College.

—During the annual second-semester concert given Friday night by the Bellefonte High School band in the social rooms of the Methodist Episcopal church, Harold Wion, director, was presented with a music stand made by Samuel Roberts, of Bellefonte. The stand, shaped like a lyre, is finished in walnut and is a most attractive as well as useful addition to the band equipment. Nearly 300 persons attended the concert, and the silver offering netted $36 to be turned over for the relief of Chinese refugees.

—After seven years as pastor of the Evangelical church, at Lemoyne, Cumberland county, the Rev. Reed O. Steely has been transferred to Berwick. During his pastorate at Lemoyne he was instrumental in having built a new church and rectory at a cost of almost $100,000. While pastor of the Bellefonte church, some years ago, it will be recalled he built the large addition to the church and had the entire property much improved. Mrs. Steely was the former Miss Eleanor Gettig, sister of District Attorney Musser W. Gettig, of East Bishop Street.

—Jack Miller, West High Street radio repairman, was recently awarded an Adequately Equipped Shop Certificate by Supreme Instruments Corporation of Greenwood, Mississippi, world's largest exclusive manufacturer of radio service test equipment. This certificate is only awarded servicemen who have proper radio servicing equipment and, together with Mr. Miller's experience in radio servicing, assures his customers that when he returns a set after carefully diagnosing its trouble and completely re-aligning it with his cathode ray oscilloscopic equipment, it will be peaked in a maximum of entertainment pleasure for the coming year.

—Miss Helen Rogus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rogus, of Clarence, last week received notification that she had passed the State Board examinations for registration as a nurse. A graduate of the nurses' training school of the Mercy Hospital, Altoona, in the class of 1933, Miss Rogus expects to continue her training in her profession. After the Easter season she will go to St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital, Chicago, to undergo six months training in anaesthesia and upon completing the course she will probably locate in Chicago more or less permanently. —William Stiber, City Bakery employe who has been confined to the William General Hospital for the past ten days because of lobar pneumonia, is reported to be showing steady improvement. Mr. Stiber, who make shis home with the Ralph Moerschbacher family on East Bishop Street, became ill while spending the weekend before last with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stiber, in Williamsport.

—A new and modern soda fountain was installed during the weekend at the Everett drug store on South Allegheny Street, adding to the appearance of the store and improving the refreshment service. An innovation of the fountain is that a black composition replaces the usual marble construction. With stainless steel trimmings and fittings the fountain presents a striking combination of silver and black.

—John Haupt, son of the late Isaac Newton Haupt, of Bellefonte, now on Interdenominational missionary in the Kentucky mountains, visited among friends in Bellefonte early last week. "Jack" was graduated from the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1926, and has been located in Kentucky for nearly a year. While on his vacation he was a guest of his brother Gilbert, at State College, and also spent some time with his mother in Harrisburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Best, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, are expected to arrive in Bellefonte about May 1, for a three months' visit with Mrs. Best's brother, Dr. Joseph A. Parrish, and her aunts and uncles, the Fox family here. They will sail from Rio about April 18. Mr. Best, a brother of Mrs. Paul Crust, of Bellefonte, and a son of Howard Best, of Lewistown, is an executive of a chain store system in Brazil, where he has been located since 1930. Mrs. Best is the only daughter of the late Dr. C. M. Parrish. Their last trio north was made in 1936.

Under the administration of Governor Pinchot, Mr. Bartley was caretaker of 60 miles of roads in the Spring Mills area. He is a lifelong Republican, and four years ago was dropped from his State job when the Democratic party gained control. Now the pendulum has swung back again, and Mr. Bartley hopes to be remembered by the party he has served so long and loyally.

—The Brownie Pack of Bellefonte, under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Dale, presented a "Shadowgraph" of "The Owl and the Pussy Cat" to the mothers of the Brownies, to Mrs. R. B. Sibley, their guest of honor and several of their teachers. The "Shadowgraph" script was read by Frances Dale, while other members of the pack took part by showing the card-board characters on the screen. Brownie pledges were given by each Brownie and a number of songs were sung. Each member was attired in an attractive Brownie costume. Short talks were given by Mrs. Sibley and Mrs. Ivan Walker. Pins were awarded to the 19 members of Bellefonte's first Brownie pack. Later in the afternoon tea was served to the 26 adults while hot chocolate was given to the children.

—At full baptismal ceremonies conducted at the Centre County Hospital yesterday afternoon by Rabbi Fox, of Harrisburg, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kofman, of the Markland Hotel apartments, South Spring Street, was given the name Allen Mack. The first name is one which has long been in the Kofman family, while the middle name, appropriately, honors Mack trucks, through which the lad's father's name and fame as a trucker have grown. Allen Mack made his appearance at the Hospital at 5:12 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of last week, and weighed in at 6 pounds, 10½ ounces. The second child in the family, he is the first boy. A large number of relatives and friends of the Kofman family, many from considerable distance, were present for the baptism ceremony at the hospital yesterday.

—Announcement was made this week by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aley, of Jacksonville, of the engagement of their daughter Miss Mildred, to Jack Mabus, of Pine Street, Bellefonte. The wedding is scheduled to be held on Good Friday, at the parsonage of the Bellefonte Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. H. Willis Hartsock officiating. The sole attendants will be the parents of the birdegroom and bride according to present plans. Miss Aley is a graduate of the Howard High School and is now living at home. Mr. Mabus was graduated from the Bellefonte High School, attended the Pennsylvania State College for two years, and was then graduated from the Eckle's School of Embalming, Philadelphia. He is now serving his apprenticeship under Hardman P. Harris, Bellefonte funeral director. Mr. and Mrs. Mabus expect to make their home for the time being with Mr. Mabus' parents on Pine Street.

—Jack Wilkinson, who recently received an appointment as local agent for DuPont paints and varnishes, announces that a representative of the DuPont company will be at the Wilkinson store, in the Plaza Theatre building, Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31, to explain some of the features of DuPont products. During the two days every visitor to the store will receive a free can of DuPont paint.

—Edward L. "Doak" Keichline walked out to his car parked along South Allegheny Street, Tuesday, to find what looked like a traffic ticket under the windshield wiper. The ticket bore the penciled notation: "By order of——the first day of spring is here. Please remove chains. Save our streets!.. "Doak" isn't sure who placed the ticket on his car but when we saw him last he was gunning for Eddie Widdowson.

—Spring made its 1939 debut Tuesday, with one of the most perfect days we've had so far this year. Brilliant sunshine from a cloudless sky took the chill out of the air and prompted thoughts of garden-making, fishing, baseball and similar pastime. The warm day was especially welcome since it was preceded by a week of mid-winter weather, featuring snow, hail, wind and low temperatures. Although we'll still have some winter days there is much consolation in the thought that rough weather is definitely on the way out.

—The Rev. William T. Renison, rector of Trinity Church, Saugerties, New York, will be the special guest preacher in St. John's Episcopal church tonight. The Rev. Mr. Renison, a native of Ireland, and educated in Canada, has held rectorships in San Francisco and Stockton, California, and his present rectorship in Saugerties, N. Y., is the second, having been recalled after a rectorshop in Billings, Montana, and chaplain of the Seaman's Church Institute, in New York City. He and Mrs. Renison are expected in Bellefonte today and will be the weekend guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel H. Sayre.

—Three birthdays and two wedding anniversaries were celebrated Sunday at a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Lyons on Willowbank street. Mr. Lyons, of Bellefonte, and Norman Calvert and son Jack, of Williamsport, were feted on attaining another milestone on life's journey, while the 18th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Wetzler of Milesburg and the 13th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Miller, of East Bishop street were observed. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Wetzler and daughter Elizabeth Ann, Milesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Calvert and son Jack, of Williamsport; Mrs. Della Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller and children, Virginia and Edward, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lyons and daughters, Helen and Janet, and son Robert, and Charles Weeder, all of Bellefonte.

Miller, of State College, will display the dolls representing all the nations. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Newton Hamilton fund. The public is cordially invited.

—The show windows of the Hazel & Company store are being remodeled and re-decorated with a view toward eliminating some objectionable features of the former windows. The remodeling plans call for paneled backgrounds, a new lighting system, and a lighter color scheme. When completed it is expected the windows themselves will be more attractive, and that they will provide better illumination for displays.

—Mrs. B. J. Beezer, of East Bishop street, who early last week underwent an emergency operation at the Centre County Hospital, and who was in quite serious condition for several days, is reported to be showing steady improvement, and unless unforseen complications develop, her complete recovery is expected within the next week or so. Mrs. Beezer before her marriage was Miss Mary Royer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Royer, of South Water street.

—Clark Aikey, former exalted ruler of the Bellefonte Elks lodge, entertained the present officers of that organization at a chicken dinner at the Nittany Country Club, Tuesday night. Guests were: Leslie Shultz, John Anderson, Osborne Lambert, Malcolm Wetzler, Musser W. Gettig, Martin Miller, Fred Clevenstine, O. A. Kline, Dr. Richard P. Noll, D. Paul Fortney, John Bottorf, John Galaida, William Brouse, Hugh M. Quigley, Guy O. Bittner, Ralph Toner, George Sheckler and Ted Rush, in addition to several out-of-town guests.

—A birthday dinner and card shower was held Sunday for Mrs. Blanche Poorman, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. R.
