PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

Among the remarkable changes in the Post Office system of the country is the largely increased transportation of the mails by railroad. Instead of 4,328,400 miles as in the fiscal year 1847-8, the transportation of mails by railroad last year was no less than 12,080,705 miles.—The changes are observable mostly in New York, Ohio, and Michigan, the former having increased from 735,976 miles in 1847-8 to 3,009,958 miles in the year 1852-3, and in Michigan from 149,760 miles to 602,368 in the same period, and in Ohio from 96,928 miles to 1,225,002 miles.

NEW YORK, Its Upper Ten and Lower Million!

BY GEORGE LIPPARD.

Author of "Washington and his Generals," "The Nazarene," "Paul Ardenheim," "Quaker City," "Quakeress," "Adonai," "The Quaker City," &c.

This is the best work ever written by Lippard; one continued scene of excitement from the commencement to the end. Those who have read Dumas' Count de Monte Christo, or The Wandering Jew, we are under the impression will be equally pleased with this. Novel readers will find this the most interesting work that has issued from the press for some time.—Enquirer.

George Lippard's great work—New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million. Novel readers will be perfectly delighted with this new work. The incidents delineated in this work are of the most exciting character. We should not be surprised if the demand for it should exceed that of Uncle Tom's Cabin.—Times. From the Louisville Courier.

New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million.—Lippard's last and best work. This novel requires only to be read to be correctly appreciated. As an enchanting work, it is unsurpassed. We believe it will be impossible any person who commences this work, to leave it off until he has turned over its last page.

Extract from the Cleveland Plaindealer.

New York: Its Upper Ten and Lower Million.—A new work by that gifted son of genius, George Lippard. We say read it. It is a novel of most thrilling interest—such one as having been commenced, you will sit up all night to finish. It is a book we would like our friends to read.

Price, handsomely bound, $1.00; in paper covers, 75 cts. For sale by all Booksellers throughout the United States.
