Miss Swartz, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Swartz, of Ivyland, is a cousin of Miss Helen Schaeffer, of East Curtin Street. Her father, a native of Hublersburg, is an instructor in the Abington High School. The wedding is scheduled to take place at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 17, at Hatfisville, Pa.

—Among promotions of Tyrone cavalrymen announced this week by Colonel Ben C. Jones, commanding officer of the 103rd. Cavalry, P; N. G., is the elevation of Lieut. Charles W. Roberts to the rank of captain of regimental headquarters. The promotion becomes effective with the first day of the annual encampment on June 17. Lieut Roberts is widely known in Centre County, having been a resident of Bellefonte while serving as Centre County Superintendent of Highways several years ago.

—Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Joseph L. Peters at Pleasant Gap, yesterday, were Mr. Peter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard K. Peters and daughter, of Westmont, N. J. Mr. Peters was graduated from the Bellefonte High school in the class of 1924, and since then has been engaged in finance work in Cumberland, Md., and in various other cities. He is now residing in Westmont, and is employed by the Ford Motor Company in Camden.

—Grover E. Corman, manager of the West High Street A. & P. Store this week received an unusual distinction from the editors of Chain Store Age, magazine published in the interests of the nation's chain stores. The distinction consists of a Community Builder award, given for outstanding service through 1938 to the community. Corman's name has been placed on the roll of honor established by the magazine for chain store managers who in the estimation of representative business, civic, service and charitable organizations have qualified for the title of "Community Builders." Only four or five other Pennsylvanians were similarly honored, it is reported. Corman's recognition came largely through his activities on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and its various committees. He has served with outstanding ability on a number of committees, and has always manifested an active interest in civic and community projects.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frabutt and daughter, Janet, of Baltimore, Md., spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte with Mrs. Frabutt's mother, Mrs. Frank T. Kern, also of Baltimore, who is spending some time with her sisters and brothers at the Craft-Nolan residence on South Thomas Street.

—C. C. Rhoads, Deputy Warden at Rockview penitentiary, and Mrs. Rhoads, departed early this week for Philadelphia, where Mr. Rhoads is consulting a nerve specialist. From Philadelphia they expected to go to Ocean City, N. J., for a week's stay before taking a cruise on Lake Erie. Mr. Rhoads, who has not been in the best of health for some time, is on a month's leave of absence from his duties at Rockview. While he is away his assistant, H. R. Johnson, is serving as deputy warden.

During the afternoon hours the picnickers enjoyed a program of contests and games. A big supper was served at 6 o'clock. A beautiful banner was awarded to St. Luke's church, Altoona, for having the largest Lenten offering, while a similar banner was awarded to St. John's church, Huntingdon, for the largest per capita offering.

—Christ D. Young, manager of the West High Street Shaffer store, has been confined to his home on Thomas Street since Monday because of illness. An item of this nature concerning Mr. Young is extremely rare, for this is the first time in 43 years that he has lost any time from work because of illness. Since he has not had a vacation for 20 years, he has established a work record that few persons can equal. According to reports from the home, the illness is responding readily to treatment, and Mr. Young expects to be back at his accustomed duties before long.

—Ensign Richard Robb, of North Allegheny Street, yesterday departed for Philadelphia where he joined three other recent graduates of the United States Naval Academy for a trip to the West Coast where they have been assigned berths in the United States Navy. His mother, Mrs. C. Edward Robb, who has been the guest of honor at a number of farewell parties during the past week, will depart Friday for Oak Park, Ill., for a month's visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Robb, before continuing west to Long Beach, Cal. where she and her son, Richard, will establish a home.

—William Dorworth, Jr., of East Linn street, who has just completed his sophomore year at Penn State, will leave today for Philadelphia on the first leg of a 14,000-mile summer cruise to the Philippine Islands. In Philadelphia he will be joined by his father, William J. Dorworth, who will accompany him to New York to make final plans for the trip. Tomorrow night the younger Mr. Dorworth will board a freighter for the cruise which will include passage through the Panama Canal, and a stop at San Francisco before the long voyage across the Pacific begins. Aboard the ship young Dorworth will serve as super-cargo, which is a clerical position. The freighter is scheduled to arrive in New York on the return trip sometime during the third week in August—which will be in time for the student to resume his work at college.

RE-ELECT SECRETARY OF TRI-COUNTY LEGION GROUP

Mrs. Barbara Kline of Bellefonte was re-elected secretary of the Tri-County Council of American Legion Auxiliaries at a meeting of the council last Wednesday at the Penn-Wells Hotel, Wellsboro. Centre, Clinton and Lycoming counties comprise the council.

State Commander Frank Gwynne; Mrs. Helen Casey of Philadelphia, department commander; Mrs. James Paul of York, central vice president; and Mrs. Florence Miller of New Cumbtrland, Americanism chairman were among the speakers.

Following the sessions the visitors were taken to view Pennsylvania's Grand Canyon near Wellsboro. Those from the Bellefonte Auxiliary who made the trip were: Mrs. Margaret Miller, president, Mrs. Rilla Jones, Mrs. Nell Decker, Mrs. Florence Haupt, Mrs. Margaret Abt, Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, Mrs. Frank Hull, Mrs. Leona Elders, Mrs. Ersel Gillen, Mrs. Ruth Casper, Mrs. Pearl Smith, Mrs. Catherine Breon, Mrs. Claire McMurtrie, Mrs. Mabel Boden, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunlap, Mrs. Hazel Glenn, Mrs. Ruth Fridgens, Alvina Stover, Mrs. Barbara Kline and Mrs. Margaret Hassinger.

LOCAL MAN HELD IN THEFT OF WHEEL, TIRE

William E. Brobeck, of Hublersburg, and Leroy Fritz, of Reading, both of whom have been residing in Bellefonte for some time, are under $200 bail each for court on charges resulting from the theft of a wheel, tire and tube from the car of Thurman Davis, of Coleville.

At a hearing before Justice of the Peace Harold Cowher, West Bishop Street, yesterday, morning, Fritz pleaded guilty to the larceny of the wheel, and Brobeck pleaded guilty to possession of stolen goods, the wheels and tire having been found on Brobeck's car. The arrests were made by Bellefonte Police Officer Donald Johnson. After the hearing Fritz posted bail while Brobeck was committed to jail in default of bond.

To Play at Hecla

Mal Hallett, (above) and his orchestra will play for a dance at Hecla Park next Wednesday night, June 21, it was announced yesterday. Tickets are 75 cents each; dancing 9 to 1.

During the season of 1936-37 Mal was featured at the Commodore Hotel in New York City and heard thrice weekly over CBS. He has been featured four consecutive seasons at the Steel Pier, Atlantic City, N. J., The Roosevelt Hotel, New Orleans, The Kentucky Hotel, Louisville, and the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas. Mal Hallett's organization is considered without question, the outstanding band of the country and is particularly in demand by colleges throughout the north, south, east and west.

Featured in the orchestra is the Mal Hallett Glee Club, an aggregation of singers whose fame increases with every song they sing. Buddy Welcome, 200 pounds of joy and rhythm; Joe Carbonaro, ace comedian and "Terrific" bass fiddler. Billy Exinor, sensational swing drummer, and last but not least, lovely Madeline Grey, whose distinct and delightful manner of interpreting currently popular tunes have made her a definite favorite where ever she is heard. All these, coupled with the charming personality of Mal Hallett, together with music that fits the times, have made Mal Hallett and his orchestra one of the most popular bands of the day.

Women of Moose Guests of Clearfield

Thirty three members of Bellefonte Lodge, Women of the Moose, Chapter 151, journeyed to Clearfield by bus last Friday to attend the unusually large initiation of candidates who had applied for membership in various chapters, including Barnesboro, Coalport, Lewistown, Clearfield and Bellefonte. The initiation was conducted by the Lewistown Chapter degree team, in the Clearfield Moose Hall, where over 200 persons were present.

The group from this section included the following: Mrs. Ruth Weaver, Mrs. Rose Gilliland, Ursal Gilliland, Sarah Huff, Laura Parsons and Mrs. Lynch, all of State College; Mrs. Grace Haupt, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Shawley, Minnie Rice, Cora Jodon, Mrs. Elmer Sager, Mrs. Amelia Jodon, Mrs. Cort Lucas, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Julia McNichols, Mrs. Grace Bilger, Mrs. Carrie Downing, Mrs. Erma Kone, Mrs. Maude Kelley, Mrs. Andy Kachik, Mrs. Minnie Rossman, Mrs. Chick, Mrs. Port, Edna Hull, Nellie Hull, Bessie Hassinger, Mrs. Corl, Mrs. Annie Bickle, Mrs. Jos. Quici, Madeline and Mary Quici, and Mrs. Rebecca Williams, all of Bellefonte and vicinity.

At the conclusion of the meeting the male members of the Clearfield lodge provided supper and entertainment for the visitors, who are very appreciative of the royal good time they received.

EXPECT MANY ENTRIES IN BABY SHOW, JUNE 24

Present indications are that there will be an unprecedented number of entries in the baby show to be held in the Y. M. C. A. here on Saturday, June 24, by the Service League of St John's Episcopal church.

The babies and their mothers will gather informally in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the show. Refreshments will be served during and after the judging. An entrance fee of 25 cents will be charged for each baby, and admission for spectators will be 25 cents.

Any baby, five years old or younger, is eligible to compete for the dozens of prizes being offered.

Boat Tips; Owner Saved

Martin Renzo was almost Lock Haven's second victim of drowning when his boat tipped over in the river one evening recently. Renzo was in the middle of the river near the bridge when his outboard motor boat got out of control and turned over. He was caught underneath the boat and was fortunate enough to struggle out and hang on to the front of the boat until help came.

"They must have thought I was kidding when I hollered," Renzo said, "and I can't swim a stroke."
