Heister, Mrs. Kline Woodring and Miss Mary Forbes spent the weekend in the Pittsburgh area, Mrs. Woodring and Miss Forbes being guests of the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tomb, while Mr. and Mrs. Heister were entertained by relatives and friends in Pittsburgh.

—Damage estimated at about $75 resulted at about 6:20 o'clock Friday evening when cars operated by Harry Wetzel of Bellefonte, R. D. and Hoy K. Houck, of Bellefonte, collided on the back road between State College to Bellefonte. No one was injured in the crash. Both cars were traveling toward Axe Mann at the time.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, of West Linn Street, are the proud parents of a son, born Friday morning at their home. The little boy, who is the third child but the first son in the family, weighed 7½ pounds at birth. Both he and his mother, the former Pauline Rachau, of Snow Shoe, are reported to be getting along nicely.

—Calvin Troup, superintendent of the Federal Motch Corporation, entertained about ten members of the safety committee of the plant at the Chamber of Commerce annual dinner and meeting at the Penn-Belle, Friday night. Interested in the idea, other employers indicated that at future C. of C. events they will be accompanied by key men from their establishments.

—Frank Rachau, for a number of years agent of the American Railway express office in Bellefonte, has been off duty for seven weeks owing to a badly injured eye. While chopping wood at his home, near Milroy, a stick flew up and hit him on the eye. He has been under treatment by an eye specialist ever since and it has not yet been determined whether or not he will lose the sight of the injured eye.

—Two night-blooming cereus plants are in bloom in Bellefonte homes. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haupt, in Bush Addition, a plant which has been in their possession for the past ten years has been in bloom for four months. There are four large flowers on the plant. A similar plant owned by Mrs. Fred Haupt, of Willowbank Street, has been in the family for 12 years and has had blossoms nearly every year. Last week three flowers appeared.

—Boyd Vonada, of East High Street, has been employed as an assistant in the H. P. Schaeffer Hardware store in the absence of Charles Schaeffer, who is still confined to his home on East Curtin Street because of an infection developing from a carbuncle on the back of his neck. Mr. Vonada until recently was employed in Harrisburg, is in charge of the delivery truck while the regular driver, Harry Zell, is performing Mr. Schaeffer's regular duties.

—Arrangements have been completed for the celebration of the 70th. anniversary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. on October 19. Invitations have been mailed to all friends and members of the Y. Reservation for the supper must be received by the committee not later than Tuesday, October 17. All men and women interested in the "Y" are most cordially invited whether they have received an invitation or not. Call 41 or any member of the committee for reservation. The Womens Auxiliary will serve a surprise supper.

—Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Louise Flanigan, of Williamsport, and Philip Benner Ray, of East Linn Street, Bellefonte. The ceremony is to be held at 12 noon on Saturday, October 21, in Trinity Episcopal church, Williamsport, with the Rev. J. Moukon Thomas officiating. Attendants for Miss Flanigan will be Mrs. Mary Herdic Gale and Mrs. Joseph H. McMurray, of Williamsport. William W. Sieg, of East Linn Street, Bellefonte, will be Mr. Ray's best man. Ushers will be Edward A. Ray, of Bellefonte, brother of the bridegroom; A Ray Flanigan, Jr., of Williamsport, brother of Miss Flanigan; A. D. Warner, 3rd, of Bellefonte, and Theodore J. Griffin, of Binghamton, N. Y., brother-in-law of Mr Ray. After the ceremony a reception will be held at the Williamsport Country Club. —Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smeltzer, of East High Street, have had the rather unusual pleasure of entertaining both their sons and families during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smeltzer and son, William, of Scarsdale, N. Y., came here during the weekend for a week's vacation at the Smeltzer family home, while Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Smeltzer, and their daughter, Kay, of Philadelphia, were here for the weekend.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Clayton Greenland, newlyweds who are now at home to their many friends at the Simpson bungalow, Bellefonte, were tendered a miscellaneous shower at the Log Cabin, Drifting, Monday evening. A large number of friends of the couple were present and the evening was spent in dancing. The young couple were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts. Tasty refreshments were served. Mr. Greenland is employed in The Centre Democrat composing room.

—Charles Sellers, of Detroit, Mich., and Dorothy Kelley, of Nashville, New Hampshire, are guests this week of Harry Tressler and family at their home near the Bellefonte airport. Mr. Sellers, a native of Oak Hall, was one of the owners of the old Oak Hall Foundry. He left that community more than 40 years ago and is now employed by the Chrysler motor company in Detroit. Since this is his first visit to Centre County in seven years he is busy noting changes in renewing his boyhood acquaintances in the Oak Hall area.

—Mrs. Karl E. Kusse, of East Linn Street, was painfully burned about the right hand and shoulder, and the house was damaged by smoke about 2 o'clock Friday morning when a pan of turpentine and camphorated oil which she was heating on a stove, caught fire. Mrs. Kusse had gone down stairs to prepare medicine for Mr. Kusse, who was suffering from a severe chest cold. In heating the mixture, fumes from the pan ignited and as Mrs. Kusse attempted to carry the container to the rear door, some spilled on the floor and flames burned her hand, causing her to drop the pan. In an instant a small fire was burning the linoleum of the kitchen floor, and Mrs. Kusse's cries brought her husband to the scene. He quickly beat out the blaze with a throw rug and water, and no alarm was sounded. Although fire damage was negligible, smoke filled the house and damaged rugs, curtains and other furnishings. Later Friday morning Mrs. Kusse was taken to the Centre County Hospital where the burns were given medical attention.

—Mrs. Milton Kern, a former Bellefonte resident who now resides in Lock Haven, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday.

—Miss Marie Fiel of Richmond, Va., has been spending the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Tingue, of East High street.
