PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

THE BLOOM OF AGE.—A good woman never grows old. Years may pass over her head, but, if benevolence and virtue dwell in her heart, she is as cheerful as when the spring of life first opened to her view. When we look upon a good woman we never think of her age; she looks as charming as when the rose of youth first bloomed on her cheek. That rose is not faded yet; it will never fade. In her neighborhood she is the friend and benefactor. Who does not respect and love the woman who has passed her days in acts of kindness and mercy? We repeat, such a woman cannot grow old. She will always be fresh and buoyant in spirits and active in humble deeds of mercy and benevolence.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION.—It ought to be universally known, that sawdust, into which oil has been spilled, will ignite in a few hours if exposed to the rays of the sun. Any kind of cotton goods wetted with oil and laid by, will also soon take fire.

Spring Stock of Hamburg Pianos.
CHARLOTTE BLUME,
NO. 116 WOOD STREET,
PITTSBURGH, SOLE AGENT.

THE HAMBURG PIANOS are undoubtedly superior to all others in elasticity of touch and power of tone. They have not only received the highest marks of approbation from the best European Pianists, such as List, Thalberg, and others who have them constantly in their own use, but also from our resident Professors.

The following is an extract from a letter of Professor Henry Rohbock: 'After describing the particular style, two of which he wants for his own use, one Grand and one Square Piano, he speaks as fellows of their excellent qualities.

"My little daughter, who plays very well, must, with me, have a good instrument, and yours are the only ones which can satisfy me.

"Instruments are offered me on the most accommodating terms, but I do not like them, they have not the elastic touch and the tone of yours."

I remain, yours respectfully,
HENRY ROHBOCK.
