—Patrick Gherrity, 10-year-old son of Walter Gherrity, of South Spring street, was among the winners in a recent art contest conducted by the Junior Messenger, a weekly school publication. He is a fifth grade student at St. John's Catholic school. The youth's drawing, "Sailing Vessel," was judged among the best of 6,000 entries from almost every state in the union and in Canada, and was reproduced in the school magazine.

—D. A. Grove, of East Linn street, has been confined to bed at his home much of the time since last Thursday, suffering from a cold and fatigue resulting from over-exertion. Several weeks ago while polishing an antique which he planned to give to a friend, Mr. Grove suffered a rupture of a blood vessel in one forearm. Although that injury healed satisfactorily, the after-effects of his strenuous efforts are believed to have contributed to his present illness. While his condition is not regarded as being serious, those who know Mr. Grove are convinced he wouldn't be in bed unless his condition made such action mandatory.

The Bellefonte Central Railroad company has decided to dismantle the Fairbrook branch of that line and will sell all equipment to the highest bidder.

Will quote you prices extremely low, consistent with the quality of the leghorns we produce. We do not have a surplus of chicks now, nor will we have any time this season. Our leghorns have been shipped into every State, every Canadian Province and 32 foreign countries. Only recently a $600.00 order was forwarded to Venezuela, S. America. In recent past shipments have gone to the Isle of Java and India. We are now closing deal on a large order to Secretary of Agriculture, Republica Dominicana. These will travel Air Express from Miami. We are breeders of Leghorns, not a mere hatchery. Development of poultry has been our business since the fall of 1899. The Kerlin Leghorn Farm, Box 240-CD, Centre Hall, Pa. 22tf
