4-H COUNTY-WIDE PICNIC TO BE HELD

Centre County 4-H club members are looking forward to their annual county-wide 4-H club picnic which will be held at Hecla Park next Tuesday afternoon and evening, July 30.

Ruth Zubler, of Spring Mills, president of the County Council, announces that committees have been appointed to take care of events which will start early in the afternoon and continue throughout the evening. Popular features of the program will be swimming, boating, group games and stunts. At 4:15 p. m. a committee headed by Elwood Homan, of Pennsylvania Furnace, will conduct a sports carnival in the pool. Boats will be available throughout the day and group games will be conducted continuously throughout the afternoon for those who wish to participate.

The basket picnic supper will be at 6 o'clock in the evening. This will be followed by a special campfire and candle-light service in which all will have an opportunity of participating.

Other members of the county-wide committee on arrangements are Gladys Hoover, Pine Glen; Inez Luse, Centre Hall; Ruth Stine, Warriors Mark, and Kelly Cronister, Port Matilda. Committees will be assisted by local leaders and parents of 4-H club members.

Academy Alumni Give Purse to Hughes

Financial reports of the Bellefonte Academy Alumni banquet held at the William Penn Hotel, Pittsburgh, in honor of James R. Hughes, of Bellefonte, former headmaster of the Academy, were released this week by Robert L. Irvin, of Pittsburgh, treasurer of the banquet committee.

Proceeds over and above the expenses of the reunion, together with a number of subscriptions by former Academy students, were pooled together and presented as a substantial purse to Mr. Hughes.

In commenting upon the generous act of his former pupils Mr. Hughes declared that the purse was particularly gratifying in view of the fact that most of the donors were full tuition students at the Academy who were not under real or implied obligations to the school or to himself.
