Pittsburgh Gazette.
PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY
S. RIDDLE & CO.,
FIFTH STREET, ABOVE SMITHFIELD.

Great Britain.

On the 10th inst., in the House of Lords, the Earl of Shaftesbury gave notice that on the 14th he should move a resolution condemning the conduct of the Government in publishing their dispatch to the Governor-General of India.

Mr. Cardwell gave notice that on the 13th inst., he should move the following resolution.

That this House, while it abstains from expressing any opinion upon the policy of any proclamation issued by the Governor-General of India in relation to Oude, has seen with regret and serious apprehension that her Majesty's Government has addressed to the Governor-General of India, through the secret committee of the India House, a dispatch condemning in strong terms the conduct of the Governor-General of India, and that they are of opinion such a course on the part of Government must tend, under the present circumstances of India, to produce a most prejudicial effect by weakening the authority of the Governor-General, and by encouraging further resistance on the part of those who are still in arms against us."

On the 11th, in the House of Lords, the Earl of Ellenborough explained the circumstances under which the dispatch censuring Lord Canning had been written, admitted that he alone was responsible for it, and announced that rather than expose his colleagues to the censure of Parliment, he had tendered his resignation, as president of the Board of Control, to Her Majesty, and the same had been accepted.

Lord Derby said that the resignation had been accepted with regret, but admitted that he considered the publication of the despatch premature and injudicious.

The London Times says that a meeting had been held at Lord Palmerston's residence, at which it was resolved to move a resolution in the House of Commons on the 13th inst., upon the subject of the despatch from Lord Ellenborough censuring the issue of Lord Canning's proclamation to the people of Oude, and that this resolution will have the concurrence of Lord John Russell and the principal members of the so-called Peelite party.

Various speculations were indulged in as to the vote upon these resolutions and the probability of Ministers resigning or appealing to the country in the event of their being carried.

THE OUDE PROCLAMATION

The following is the proclamation by the Governor-General of India which was condemned by the secret committee of the Court of Directors of the East India Company:

PROCLAMATION

The army of his excellency the Commander-in-Chief is in possession of Lucknow, and the city lies at the mercy of the British Government, which has been in Oude for nine months rebelliously defied and resisted.

This resistance, begun by a mutinous soldiery, has found support from the inhabitants of the city and of the province of Oude at large. Many who owed their prosperity to the British Government, as well as those who believed themselves aggrieved by it, have joined in this bad cause, and have ranged themselves with the enemies of the state.

They have been guilty of a great crime, and have subjected themselves to a just retribution.

The capitol of their country is now once more in the hands of the British troops.

From this day it will be held by a force which nothing can withstand, and the authority of the Government will be carried into every corner of the province.

The time, then, has come at which the Right Hon. the Governor General of India deems it right to make known the mode in which the British Government will deal with the talookdars, chiefs and landholders of Oude and their followers.

The first care of the Governor-General will be to reward those who have been steadfast in their allegiance at a time when the authority of the Government was partially overborne, and who have proved this by the support and assistance which they have given to British officers.

Therefore the Right Hon. the Governor-General hereby declares that

Drigbejjie Singh, Rajah of Bulrampore;
Koolwunt Singh, Rajah of Pudaha;
Rao Hurdoe Buksh Singh, of Kutiaree;
Kasheepershad, Talookdar of Sissaindee;
Zuhr Singh, Zemindar of Gopaul Kheir; and Chundeloll, Zemindar of Morson (Baiswarah)

are henceforward the sole hereditary proprietors of the lands which they held when Oude came under British rule, subject only to such moderate assessment as may be imposed upon them, and that those loyal men will be further rewarded in such manner and to such extent as, upon consideration of their merits and their position, the Governor-General shall determine.

A proportionate measure of reward and honor according to their deserts will be conferred upon others to whose favor like claims may be established to the satisfaction of the Government.

The Governor-General further proclaims to the people of Oude that, with the above mentioned exceptions, the proprietary right in the soil of the province is confiscated to the British Government which will dispose of that right in such manner as it may seem fitting.

To those talookdars, chiefs and landholders, with their followers, who shall make immediate submission to the Chief Commissioners of Oude, surrendering their arms and obeying his orders, the Right Hon. the Governor-General promises that their lives and honour shall be safe, provided that their hands are unstained with English blood unrightously shed.

But as regards any further indulgence which may be extended to them, and the condition in which they may hereafter be placed, they must throw themselves upon the justice and mercy of the British Government.

To those among them who shall promptly come forward and give to the Chief Commissioner their support in the restoration of peace and order this indulgence will be large, and the Governor General will be ready to view liberally the claims which they may thus acquire to a restitution of their former rights.

As participation in the murder of Englishmen and English women will exclude those who are guilty of it from all mercy, so will those who have protected English live be specially entitled to considerations and leniency.

By order of the Right Hon. the Governor-General of India, G. F. EDMONSTONE, Secretary to the Government of India.

Allahabad, March 14.

The following is the rebuke of the Court of Directors. The Government declined to print, in the document as laid before Parliament, paragraphs 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, on the ground that they "contained reasoning on the subject the publication of which would be attended with inconvenience to the public service:"

THE SECRET COMMITTEE OF THE COURT OF DIRECTORS OF THE EAST INDIA COMPANY TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

APRIL 19, 1858

1. We have received your despatches of the 11th and 12th of March, addressed by your secretary to the secretary of the Chief Commissioner in Oude, which letter enclosed a copy of the proclamation to be issued by the Chief Commissioner, as soon as the British troops should have command of the city of Lucknow, and conveyed instructions as to the manner in which he was to act with respect to different classes of persons in execution of the views of the Governor-General.

3. The people of Oude will see only the proclamation.

4. That authoritative expression of the will of the Government informs the people that six persons who are named as having been steadfast in their allegiance are henceforward the sole hereditary proprietors of the lands they held when Oude came under British rule, subject only to such moderate assessment as may be imposed on them; that others in whose favor like claims may be established will have conferred upon them a proportionate measure of reward and honor; and that, with these exceptions, the proprietary right in the soil of the province is confiscated to the British Government.

5. We cannot but express to you our apprehension that this decree, pronouncing the disinheritson of people, will throw difficulties almost insurmountable in the way of the re-establishment of peace.

6. We are under the impression that the war in Oude has derived much of its popular character from the rigorous manner in which, without reg
