WILLIAM A. COURTER

William A. Courter, retired canalman of Bald Eagle Valley, died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 15, 1940, at the Centre County Home in Bellefonte after an illness with a complication of diseases incident to advanced age. Mr. Courter, a lifelong resident of Bald Eagle Valley until December 7, 1939 when he became a guest at the home, was born at Blanchard on March 27, 1852, making his age at time of death 88 years, 8 months and 18 days. His wife, the former Amanda Beaty, passed away 14 years ago. Surviving are three sisters; Mrs. Mary Beaty, Mrs. Matilda Gardiner and Mrs. Susan Koons, all of Blanchard. Funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Blanchard on Tuesday afternoon, with the Rev. A. G. Herr, of Bellefonte, officiating. Interment was made in the Baptist cemetery at Blanchard.

HARRY T. GILLILAND

Harry Thomas Gilliland, for many years a well known citizen of Karthaus, passed away from a lingering illness at his late home on West Fourth avenue, Clearfield, last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Gilliland was a son of the late Dr. William S. and Martha Murray Gilliland of Karthaus. He was sixty years old. He was associated with his father for many years in the hardware business at Karthaus; later he conducted a business of his own and was for several years cashier of the Karthaus bank. He was married to Miss Vida Wooldridge, who survives him with two sons and a daughter: Lynn W., William S., and Mrs. Margaret Lemon, all of Clearfield. He is also survived by the following sisters: Mrs. George Spears, of Reading; Mrs. James Hipple, of Morristown, N. J.; Mrs. N. R. McNaughton, of Altoona; Mrs. William Ross, of Karthaus, and a brother, Paul W., of Williamsport. The funeral was held from the Gilliland residence in Clearfield on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted at the home by the Rev. Layman, of the Methodist church, and interment was made in the Keewaydin cemetery. Rev. Shirey of the Karthaus Methodist church, officiated at the grave.

MRS. JOHN N. BOWES

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Bowes, 77, widow of John N. Bowes, died at the home of her son, Robert J. Bowes in Mill Hall, Tuesday morning after an illness of two years with a heart condition. Born in Beech Creek township, she had resided in Mill Hall nearly all her life. She was a lifelong member of the Church of Christ where for many years she taught the Win One Bible class. Surviving her are two sons, Claude H. of Hillsboro, Ore., and Robert J., with whom she resided; also two brothers and one sister, Joseph E. and Newton Masden, of Lock Haven, R. D.; Mrs. Ernest W. Rogers, of Lock Haven, and a grandson, Robert, Jr., of Mill Hall. Funeral services will be held at the Bowes home this Thursday afternoon, in charge of the Rev. William Verner Nelson. Burial will be made in Highland cemetery.

MRS. WILLIAM J. BOWER.

Mrs. Ida Sarah Bower, wife of William J. Bower, of Aaronsburg, died at the family home there at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, December 18, 1940, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Mrs. Bower had been an invalid for several years. She was a daughter of Henry and Sarah Beahm and was born in Haines township on March 15, 1870, making her age at time of death 70 years, 9 months and 3 days. On November 25, 1899 she was united in marriage at Aaronsburg with William J. Bower, who survives with these children: Mrs. Frank Boyer, Mrs. Harold Hazel and Paul Bower, all of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Harry Musser, of Rebersburg, and Mrs. Harold Poorman, of Millheim. Also surviving are two brothers and two sisters, namely: H. O. Beahm, of Aaronsburg; H. A. Beahm and Mrs. Katie Braucht, all of Coburn, and Mrs. M. W. Boyer, of Millheim. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning at the Lutheran church in Aaronsburg, with the pastor, the Rev. O. E. Feeman, officiating. Interment will be made in the Aaronsburg Lutheran cemetery.

W. G. FISHER

W. G. Fisher, 69, of Sunbury, died Tuesday night, December 17, 1940, at the Sunbury Hospital, after an illness of only one day. Mr. Fisher was born in Beaisburg in 1871, a son of Dr. C. P. W. and Emma A. Fisher. He was married to Miss Louise Keefer. His only son, Dr. Joseph K. Fisher, died about a year ago. Surviving are three brothers, Frank H. Fisher, of State College; John M. Fisher, of Bellefonte, and Charles E. Fisher, of Danville. An employe of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry for many years, Mr. Fisher was a lifelong member of the Lutheran church and belonged to the Railway Brotherhood. Funeral services will be held at the Fisher home in Sunbury at 2 p. m. Friday. Interment will be made in the Sunbury cemetery.

4-H Lambs Bring $302.26 At Sale

Net Average Price Was $9.18 a Hundred Weight; Others Held For Farm Show

Centre County 4-H Lamb Feeding Club members held their annual round-up in the Live Stock Pavilion at State College on Saturday afternoon. According to County Agent R. C. Blaney, there are sixteen members in the club this year and all competed at the round-up. The lambs were judged by P. C. McKenzie, livestock superintendent from State College.

Out of the sixteen pens, Centre County boys and girls will take six pens to the Farm Show at Harrisburg. Those selected by Mr. McKenzie to compete at the Farm are Randall Miller, Centre Hall, Hampshire; Lynn Miller, Centre Hall, Hampshire; William Hess, State College, R. D., Shropshire; Wilma Peters, Stormstown, Dorset; Reeder Sharer, Centre Hall, Dorset; San Stearns, Bellefonte, R. D., Southdown.

The remaining ten members of the club sold their lambs through the Penn Central Auction Market at Williamsport on Tuesday of this week. Those members are as follows: from the Centre Hall community, John Rimmey, Jr., Alta Miller, Donald Smith, Ray Delaney, Mary Delaney, Junior McClenahan, Dean Ross and Don Ross; Frank Musser, Bellefonte, R. D., Harold Rockey, Boalsburg. This group sold 35 head of lambs making a total weight of 3050 pounds, for $302.26, or an average of $9.01 per hundredweight. After the transportation and sales costs of $22.51 were deducted, the net return was $279.75, or an average net price per pound of $9.18 per hundredweight.

Purchasers of the Centre County lambs were Smithgall and Ging, Williamsport; F. A. Winner Co., Lock Haven; Sidney Reigel, Centre Hall, and Berwick Stores Co., Berwick.

Recent Weddings

Knapp—Maness

Harold Grove Knapp, son of Mrs. Minnie B. Knapp, of Lemont, and Miss Lula Ruth Maness, daughter of Mrs. Carolyn Maness, of Montgomery, Ala., were married at the home of Rev. A. D. Carlton, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist church of Montgomery, on November 28. Rev. Carlton performed the ceremony. Following the ceremony, the couple left on a short wedding trip. They will make their home at 29 Morgan avenue, Montgomery, Ala., on their return. Mr. Knapp, a member of the U. S. Army Air Corps, is stationed at Maxwell.

Homan—Casher

Mrs. Lena Casher announces the marriage of her daughter, Thelma E. Casher, of Port Matilda, to Robert E. Homan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Homan, of State College, at Cumberland, Md., on Saturday, December 7 in the Lutheran church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. G. Bowersox. Attending the couple were Miss Jane Barto of State College as bridesmaid, and George Casher, brother of the bride, as best man. The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's mother and sister, Teresa. The bride was attired in a blue dress with wine accessories. After a short wedding trip through the Virginias, the couple are now at home to their many friends at 1204 West Beaver avenue, State College.

Murphy Employes To Get Xmas Bonus

C. C. Brown, manager of the Bellefonte G. C. Murphy Co. store has announced that employes of the company who have been in continuous employ for one full year or more will receive a Christmas bonus; the amount depending upon the years of service.

The bonus now being distributed amounts to approximately $100,000 and is being given to salesgirls, stockroom workers and other "behind the scenes" employes. Managers and assistant managers are not included in this distribution as they receive a bonus at the close of the year, based upon the terms of their contract.

In addition to Christmas bonuses for employes, the Murphy company also has other distinctive benefits for its employes such as vacation with pay, relief fund in case of illness, hospitalization plan and group insurance, the premiums which are paid entirely by the company.

Four Generations in Law

One Columbia county family has the unusual distinction of having had four generations practicing law, all of them in the same building. They are Harvey B. Smith; his father, H. Mont Smith, who died last year; Harvey Ewing Smith, and Alexander Creveling Smith. The great-grandfather and grandfather wer eformer residents of Montoursville, Lycoming county. Harvey Ewing Smith was a graduate of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary.

Project Approved

Congressman James E. VanZandt has been advised of Presidential approval of WPA project to control and eradicate black stem rust, for conservation of crops, in Centre county. This project is to operate on public and on privately-owned property.

Make Moving Picture

A three-reel moving picture covering activities of the students in the School of Agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College has been made during the past year. Only a few scenes remain to be taken to show students at work in the various departments of the school, as well as other activities of the College calendar.
