LOCALS

—Trade in your old watch for a new one. W. E. Crossley, Jeweler, Bellefonte, Pa. *

—J. Arthur Dubbs, of Willowbank street, spent the weekend in Allentown as the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Dubbs.

—J. W. Confer, of Woodward, stopped in our office Wednesday while enroute home from DuBois, where he had been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Archie Watson, since Sunday.

—Col. W. F. Reynolds and the Rev. Robert H. Thomas, 3rd, are in attendance at the Council of the Diocese of Harrisburg, which is meeting in St. Stephen's Cathedral in Harrisburg, today.

—John B. Schrack, merchant, and John Tyson, farmer, both well known residents of the Loganton area, were business visitors in Bellefonte Friday. While here they were pleasant callers at this office.

—The Rev. Robert H. Thomas, 3rd, rector of St. John's church, spent Monday in Williamsport where he attended a meeting of the Episcopal clergy of this area in connection with the plans for the "Forward in Service" movement of the Episcopal church.

—Mrs. Louis Friedman and her daughter, Irene, of New York City, arrived in Bellefonte during the latter part of the week on one of their periodical visits to look after the estate of Mrs. Friedman's brother, the late Harry Holz, of Bellefonte. They made their headquarters at the Hotel Markland during their stay here.

—The Undine Fire Company's new emergency truck had its initial try-out in actual fire-fighting service about 7 o'clock Friday night, when the flue of the Mrs. Paul Gettig home on East Burrowes street caught fire and burned a small hole in the roof. Logan and Undine firemen answered the silent alarm and soon had the blaze under control. Damage was estimated at $5.

—Miss Emmy Lou Craig and Miss Tatiana Reid, the latter of Harrisburg, both students at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with Miss Craig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Craig and family at their home on West Curtin street. Miss Craig recently was elected woman's sports editor of the Bucknell newspaper.

—Captain and Mrs. Herbert M. Beezer and family have made arrangements to move from the house on North Thomas street which they have been occupying for several years, into one of the first-floor apartments in the First National Bank apartment building at the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets. Captain Beezer recently accepted a position with the Titan Metal Company here.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wian and family, of Bristol, spent the weekend in this area as guests of Mr. Wian's father, John R. Wian, of Lamar, and other relatives and friends. Mr. Wian, former employe of the Titan Metal Company here, recently accepted a position with the Hunter Manufacturing Company, and is now in charge of the automatic screw machine department. The Hunter company manufactures metal products.

—Mrs. Stella Shaffer, of North Spring street, and her sister, Mrs. Joseph Baney, of Burnside street, entertained at a farewell party at the Shaffer home last Wednesday night. The party was in honor of their sister, Mrs. Paul Fanning, Sr., of North Penn street, who will leave soon to join her husband and son, both of whom are stationed with the U. S. Army at Camp Shelby, Miss. Games and refreshments were highlights of the farewell party and Mrs. Fanning received a number of gifts from the 25 or more guests present.

—Martin Cooney, well known resident of West Bishop street, has the original deed executed just ninety years ago for the Cooney family house. Despite its age, the deed is in excellent condition, but the penman who wrote it was somewhat of a disgrace to an age which highly prized artistic penmanship. As we interpreted the writing it records a transaction whereby James McManus bought the tract from Joseph Worth and his wife, Elizabeth. The consideration (again as we interpreted it) was $1.10 plus two tracts of unseated land in Howard and Huston townships, containing 153 acres.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Stover, of 319 Washington street, Pitcairn, Pa., wish to announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Eva Kay, to Emment Paul Jones, of Pitcairn. Another daughter, Mary Stover LaBovick, who has been in a sanitarium for the past year in Pittsburgh, is in a critical condition. She underwent an operation in the Passovant Hospital, Monday, and has had several blood transfusions. The Stover family is well known in Bellefonte, where they formerly resided. Mr. Stover, brother of Lloyd A. Stover, of Coleville, was formerly employed at the Titan Metal plant.

—A St. Patrick's Day miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Martha Johnston, of East Bishop street, was held at the Penn Belle Hotel, Monday night, with Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. Jack Gingher and Mrs. Philip H. Johnston as hostesses. The program included cards and refreshments. Prizes awared in bridge went to Miss Kathryn Coble and Miss Luther Kane and Mrs. Philip Shaw. Guests present in addition to the honor guests were: Mrs. Philip Wion, Mrs. John Frey, Mrs. Philip Shaw, Mrs. Luther Kane, Mrs. Bertha Austin, Mrs. Harry Jones, and the Misses Sue Armstrong, Anna Mary Troupe, Eleanor Wion, Adeline Anderson, Hazel Johnson, Isabelle Johnson, Kathryn Coble, Pauline Houck, Gertrude Osman and Florence Smith. Miss Johnston, whose engagement to Joseph Moerschbacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moerschbacher, of Bellefonte, was announced, received a number of gifts.

—Miss Margaret Brockerhoff, of Philadelphia, has made plans to come to Bellefonte to make her home with her brother, Henry A. Brockerhoff, at the Brockerhoff residence at the corner of Bishop and Spring streets. Miss Brockerhoff had been here for several weeks prior to the death of her uncle, the late Dr. Joseph M. Brockerhoff.

—Mrs. Olive T. Kerstetter and son, Walton, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mrs. Kerstetter's nephews, Malcolm and Jack Yeager and families, at their home on North Spring street. On their return to Harrisburg they were accompanied by Mrs. Kerstetter's sister, Mrs. Mary Geissinger, who will spend some time with relatives and friends in Harrisburg and Bethlehem.

—Mrs. H. L. Curtin, president of the Womans' Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal church, was hostess Tuesday evening to a crowd of people who attended the regular session of the Auxiliary study course on China. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Lai-Yung Li, a graduate student at State College, who will return to his native land after receiving his degree this summer. Mr. Li spoke authoritatively on many aspects of his native land. He declared that all his education in China had been secured through schools operated by Christian bodies. The opening of West China, declared the speaker, is a blessing to the country. Universities, manufacturers, businesses and churches have moved from the Japanese-occupied area into the far west and this latter section is rapidly becoming a vital force in the rebuilding of the country. The offering at the meeting will be used for work in China.

—Miss Mary Rankin, Mrs. Elsie Heverly, Mrs. Helen Broderick and Miss Helen Schaeffer, all of Bellefonte, spent Monday in Williamsport on a business mission.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Centre County Life Underwriters Association will be held on Monday evening at the Brockerhoff hotel, in Bellefonte. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock. This is a "ladies nite" meeting and the committee has prepared an excellent program.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wallace returned to their home in Milesburg Monday from a three months' vacation in Florida. Although they made their headquarters in Saint Petersburg, they visited practically every section of the state and enjoyed a drive on Florida's scenic keys.

—John Coakley, retired railroader and for many years a resident of East Lamb street, sold his residence on that street last week to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gentzell, of Centre Hall, who expect to occupy it in the near future. Mr. Gentzell is employed at the Titan Metal plant. The family have three children.

—Gerald K. Schreffler, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Schreffler, of Valentine street, returned to his home the middle part of last week from the Centre County Hospital. The youth who has been a patient at the hospital since January, was suffering from a broken neck which he received in a coasting accident.

—Karl E. Kusse, secretary of the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce, yesterday went to Harrisburg to attend the annual meeting of the State Chamber of Commerce at the Penn Harris Hotel yesterday and today. In Harrisburg he expects to join Councilman William W. Sieg, who also is attending the meeting.

—Mrs. Frank P. Geary, superintendent of the Centre County hospital, spent the forepart of this week in Pittsburgh, attending the regional meeting of the Hospital Section of the American College of Surgeons, in session in that city, Monday thru Wednesday. —Mrs. John Hayes and Mrs. Mary Rumbarger Vonada, Hublersburg women who were seriously injured in a motor car accident near Liverpool on March 7, and who had been in a Sunbury hospital since that time, on Friday were transferred to the Lock Haven hospital. They made the trip in the ambulance of Neff & Son, of Millheim. Mrs. Vonada is undergoing treatment for a skull fracture while Mrs. Hayes suffered a fracture of the pelvic bone. Both are reported to be recovering slowly.

—John Dreshar, former Bellefonte Academy star athlete and for the past seven years coach at Tarentum, has been named coach of the Beaver Falls High School. Dreshar, who will be remembered here as a heavyweight boxer of no little ability, later played football at Carnegie Tech and became captain of the team. In his Academy days he was known locally at "Knockout John". Another former Academy student and athlete, Jose Williams, recently was elected head backfield coach at Temple University, Philadelphia.

—Mrs. Ruth Casper, president of the American Legion Auxiliary of Bellefonte, and several officers and members were in Montoursville last Wednesday to attend a Tri-County Council meeting. The following members of the Bellefonte auxiliary attended: Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. Lona Elder, Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, Mrs. Mabel Boden, Mrs. John Steele, Mrs. Frank Hull, all of Bellefonte; Mrs. Evelyn Watkins, of State College, and Mrs. Rilla Jones and Mrs. Hazel Glenn, both of Milesburg. Mrs. Glenn is treasurer of the council.

—Mrs. John Retoric and her sister, Mrs. John Ludwig, both of Clarence were callers at this office Saturday morning while in Bellefonte on business matters involving the estate of their late mother, Mrs. Anna Kachick, of Clarence. Expressing concern over the threatened nationwide strike in the coal fields, the two women, who live in one of the county's foremost mining towns, are hopeful that the matter will be settled amicably without a strike. Mrs. Retorick and Mrs. Kachik are sisters of Andrew Kachik, well known resident of Prosertown, who now is employed on the construction program at the army reservation in Indiantown Gap.

—Centre County has experienced some of its roughest weather of the winter during the past week. High winds and unusually low temperatures combined to push thermometers to near the zero mark several mornings, and to tax heating systems to their utmost. Pedestrians have been rendered almost invisable in huge clouds of dust picked up by the wind from the winter's accumulation of ashes on the streets. Fine dust sifted through the windows and doors of many local homes and business places. C. F. Ripka, local coal trucker, reports a thermometer at the Mike Koshko mine near Clarence, the coldest part of Centre County, read 7 below zero at 7:30 Tuesday morning. Andrew Rockey, farmer residing along the Pleasant Gap-Zion road, reports that thicker ice was frozen on his watering trough, Tuesday night, than on any night during the winter. But yesterday afternoon the winds died down and the temperatures rose. The weatherman predicted more comfortable weather. And its about time, for tomorrow is the first official day of spring.

—Special—dresses for $1.00, Friday morning only, Sid Bernstein, Bellefonte, Pa.

—In last week's issue it was reported that the new Studebaker agency garage opened by Patsy Torsell and John A. Spence, of Bellefonte, was located on Pike street. The garage is located in the former quarters of the Lingenfelter garage on Cherry Alley.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McClure Sr., of East Bishop street, are moving today into the McClure double house on West Logan street. The eastern side of the McClure house is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. McClure's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman McClure.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cameron R. Heverly, of the Heverly apartments, have returned to Bellefonte from a several days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilmer, of Germantown. Mr. Gilmer, Philadelphia attorney and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Schaeffer, of East High street, has been called for a year's service in the U. S. Army.

—A flue fire at the home of Mrs. John Allen, on East Howard street, about 11 o'clock Monday night was extinguished by members of the Logan and Undine Companies before any damage resulted. Because of high winds, firemen doused the fire with water to prevent a possible spread of fire to nearby buildings. Undine Firemen, attending the annual St. Patrick's Day banquet, answered the alarm in the company's new emergency truck.
