—The venerable James E. Houtz, of State College, R. D., called at our office Saturday night. Mr. Houtz experiences a little difficulty in getting around on account of rheumatism which has settled in his legs.

—Guests at the Centre County Home take this means of expressing their thanks to the Free Methodist church of State College for the fine Easter gifts members of the church distributed at the home on Sunday.

—John Junious, proprietor of the Texas Lunch, on West High street, returned to Bellefonte, Saturday, from a three-months' sojourn in Florida. For the past seven years Mr. Junious has spent part of each winter in the sunny south.

—John Dobelbower and two fellow students at Perkiomen School for Boys, Pennsburg, spent part of the Easter holidays in Bellefonte with Mr. Dobelbower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dobelbower and family at their home on West Curtin street.

—Austin Furst, law student at Dickinson College, Carlisle, and Miss Margaret Watkins, also of Carlisle, arrived in Bellefonte Friday to spend the Easter season with Mr. Furst's parents, former Judge and Mrs. James C. Furst at their home on West Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quici and Mrs. Quici's brother, Herbert Clouser, all of Detroit, Mich., spent the Easter season in Bellefonte with Mr. Quici's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quici, at their home on North Spring street, and at Mrs. Quici's and Mr. Clouser's parental home in Milesburg.

—The Rev. Robert H. Thomas, 3rd, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, and Mrs. Paul Beaver, organist and choir director, have announced that on Sunday, April 27, the boy choir of Christ church Williamsport, will present a cantata in the church. About 40 voices will be in the choir and the cantata will start at 4 p. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Trively and young daughter, Linda, of Harrisburg, spent the Easter season in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rider and family at their home on East Bishop street. Upon their return to Harrisburg they were accompanied by Miss Gertrude Kane, who will be their guest for an indefinite time.

—Frederick Warner, of East Linn street, superintendent of the American Lime & Stone Company here, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Centre County Hospital, and whose condition for a time caused considerable concern to relatives and friends, yesterday was reported to be showing slow but steady improvement and he is now believed to be out of immediate danger.

—The children of the Church schools of St. John's Episcopal church enjoyed Easter parties on Monday. The junior party was held in the afternoon in the Parish House while the senior school gathered at 7 o'clock that evening for their event. Games of every description were played and refreshments were served. The junior party was in charge of Mrs. Henry Oves and the senior hostess was Mrs. Hugh Quigley.

—During the weekend the village of Prossertown welcomed home its Mayor, Andy Kachik, who since December has been employed as an electrician at the Army reservation at Indiantown Gap. Construction work at the camp is completed and only a skeleton force of electricians is required to maintain the electrical equipment. Andy enjoyed his work there and made a number of friends who regretted his departure. He expects to resume his electrical contracting business in the Bellefonte region.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan, of the Jones apartments, North Thomas street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine baby boy, weighing 7 pounds, 2 ounces, at the Centre County Hospital at 8:15 o'clock Tuesday morning. The youngster, the first child in the family, has been named Victor Edward. Both he and Mrs. McClellan, the former Mabel Watson, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Watson, of West Lamb street, are getting along nicely. Mr. McClellan is manager of the meat department of the High street A. & P. store.

—The annual presentation of the Lenten mite boxes of the Church school children of St. John's Episcopal church was held Easter afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church. The rector was assisted in the service by Miss Jean McGarvey at the organ and the following boys who dramatized the Lenten study of China: Junior Rockey, Jerry Gordon, Herbert Malin and William Garman. The offering was taken up in large reproductions of the individual mite boxes and was presented by Hugh Quigley, Jr., and Herbert Malin. These boys were garbed in the costumes of old China.

—Millard M. Tawney, fire chief of Harrisburg from 1926 to 1934, died at the Polyclinic Hospital in Harrisburg, Monday of pneumonia. Tawney was admitted to the hospital on March 24 and for a time seemed to be recovering, but over the weekend he suffered a fatal relapse. He was well known in Centre County, and particularly in Bellefonte, where he frequently visited with local firemen. On several occasions in recent years he spoke at firemen's dinners here. For many years he has been a close friend of George Carpeneto, of Bellefonte, Mr. Carpeneto having attended several fire schools conducted at Harrisburg by Mr. Tawney.

—The Junior Section of the Bellefonte Woman's Club will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening, April 21, in the Library building.

—Mrs. Albert Spangler, of Boston, Mass., was a guest the forepart of last week at the home of Thomas Beaver and family, on North Allegheny street. Upon leaving Bellefonte last Thursday, Mrs. Spangler, a sister of the late Mrs. Thomas Beaver, went to Pittsburgh for a visit with relatives and friends before returning to her home.

—Mrs. Charles H. Light, of Centre Hall, who recently underwent a serious operation at the Centre County Hospital and who was in critical condition for several days last week, yesterday was reported to be recovering nicely and is expected to be discharged from the institution in the near future. Mrs. Light is a daughter of Mrs. Bess E. Gould, of the Orvis duplex apartments, East Curtin street, and is the wife of Dr. Charles Light, well known Centre Hall physician.

—Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Dubbs, of Allentown, motored to Bellefonte to spend the weekend with Mr. Dubbs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dubbs at the family home on Willowbank street. Mr. Dubbs returned Monday, leaving Mrs. Dubbs here for a few days until arrangements have been completed for moving their household goods from Allentown to Pottsville. Mr. Dubbs recently was transferred from Allentown to Pottsville by the Department of Public Assistance, by whom he is employed as a warehouse manager.

—Edward Brown, of Willowbank street, inveterate fisherman and authority on angleworms, found a freak worm during the weekend while digging a supply of bait in preparation for the opening of the trout season. The worm had two distinct tails which branched out in a "Y" from the body. The tails were about two inches long. Otherwise the worm was normal in every respect. Mr. Brown, who for some years has supplied worms in quantities to fishermen, declared that he has never seen a two-tailed angleworm before.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Carpeneto and daughter, Madeline and son, George, Jr., of the Keystone apartments, motored to Washington, D. C., Sunday, for an Easter visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carpeneto's eldest son, Louis, a member of the 301st Signal Aviation Company, Bolling Field, Md., who was a patient in the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C. Early last week young Carpeneto developed a sore throat, and Army physicians, fearing he was contracting measles, sent him to the hospital. His family found him recovering rapidly from the throat condition. Carpeneto is a member of the general headquarters unit at Bolling Field and is well pleased with army life.

—Clayton A. Thompson, chief electrician on a government dredge operating in the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with his family, at their home on North Allegheny street. The dredge on which Mr. Thompson is employed is one of two deisel-electric dredges in operation by the government and all machinery aboard is operated electrically with current supplied by deisel generators. Two 400-horsepower motors operate two giant suction pumps which lift mud from the bottom of lakes and rivers and force it into giant bins in the dredge. The pumps fill the bins in less than an hour and the ship then travels to deep water to dump its cargo. Mr. Thompson's task is to keep the nearly 100 motors aboard the ship, together with the maze of other electrical equipment, in first class condition, and in this work he has two assistants. Prior to entering government service less than a year ago Mr. Thompson, a brother of Robert Thompson, of North Spring street, was employed as chief electrician for the Lehigh Valley Coal Company at Snow Shoe, being in the employ of that company for 27 years. His change from a land job to a job on the water caused some inconvenience at first until he learned the language of sailors, but now the terms "port" and "starboard" and the other terms of the sea are just as familiar to him as the language of land lubbers.

—Mr. Norman Kirk and son Vernon, of Harrisburg, spent the Easter vacation at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. M. A. Kirk.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston, of Sharon, were Easter guests of Mr. Johnston's father, J. Kennedy Johnston and family, at their home on East Bishop street.

—Harvey P. Schaeffer, proprietor of the Schaeffer Hardware store, on Monday underwent an operation at the Centre County Hospital and according to reports yesterday is recovering as well as can be expected. Mr. Schaeffer has not been in good health for some time, but was able to be at the store as usual until about two weeks ago.

—A car owned by R. Allen Cruse and parked in front of the Cruse home on East Linn street early Monday evening went on an unauthorized trip when its breaks released. The machine coasted down hill a short distance, coming to a halt when it struck a tree between the Cruse and Paul Beaver homes. The car was somewhat damaged around the front. No one was in the machine at the time.

—Officials of Bellefonte Chapter Red Cross take this means of expressing their thanks to Boy Scouts for their work in gathering old aluminum ware last week. Further contributions of old aluminum are being received at the DeHaas Electric Store, on North Allegheny st. The alumnium ware so collected is to be turned over to the Red Cross for sale to aluminum industries for use in National defense. Proceeds from the sale will be retained by the Red Cross.

—Mrs. E. N. Parker, of Bellefonte, wife of Lt. E. N. Parker, of the U. S. Navy, spoke most interestingly about the Philippine Islands at a meeting of the Young Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church held at the home of Mrs. Chapman Ward, North Spring street on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Parker, the former Elizabeth Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, of East Curtin street, spent considerable time in the Philippines and in the East while her husband was stationed there just before relations between the United States and Japan reached their present strained state.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Bellefonte Evangelical church entertained the Y. P. M. S. at a regular meeting Tuesday night. Among the 52 persons present were these guests from out of town: Rev. and Mrs. N. L. Hummel, Williamsport; Thomas McHenry and Ludwig Zarenbinski, Lt. Allen S. Ingalls, of the Mt. Eagle CCC Camp, and Miss Kennedy, a nurse at the Centre County Hospital. The program was in charge of Mrs. Edward Young and Mrs. Charles Smith. Members of the refreshment committee were Mrs. Whitmire, Mrs. Billett and Mrs. John Knapik. Mrs. Willis Grove is president of the organization. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

—Mrs. Mary Huston Sieg, wife of James Y. Sieg, of Erie, formerly of Bellefonte, died at her home in Erie Tuesday night after a long illness with a complication of diseases. Mrs. Sieg was a native of Mechanicsburg. Surviving in addition to her husband, who is a salesman for the Titan Metal Company, Bellefonte, and brother of William P. Sieg, president of the Titan Company, is a sister, Mrs. John Lieby, of Newport, Pa. Funeral services will be held at 8 P. M. Thursday at Erie, after which the body will be taken to Mechanicsburg, for further services and interment in the Silver Springs cemetery, at 4 P. M. Friday. Before moving to Erie about 15 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Sieg resided in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Sieg and Miss Mary Sieg, of East Linn street, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sieg, who are expected home from Florida today, expect to attend the services at Mechanicsburg tomorrow.
