—Mrs. V. E. Rude returned to her home in Hempstead, N. Y., Sunday after a week's visit in this area as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cox, and her sister, Mrs. Randolph Houck, both of Milesburg. During the weekend another sister of Mrs. Rude and Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Willard Emenhizer, of Lock Haven, was in Milesburg with the family group.

—Samuel Waite, of North Allegheny street, has been wearing dark glasses for several weeks as the aftermath of an attack of arthritis, believed to have been caused by infected teeth. The suspected teeth have been removed, and the infection has been checked, but Mr. Waite's eyes have not yet regained natural tolerance of bright light and sunshine. Mr. Waite is employed in the offices of the Titan Metal Company.

—Albert Gilmer, of Philadelphia, motored to Bellefonte Saturday to join Mrs. Gilmer and their young daughter, Susan, who have been at the home of Mrs. Gilmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Schaeffer, on East High street, since the outset of Mr. Schaeffer's illness several weeks ago. The Gilmers returned home, Sunday. Mr. Schaeffer, who underwent an operation at the Centre County Hospital early last week, is reported to be recovering slowly but steadily.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilkinson, of Bellefonte, whose marriage recently was announced, were guests of honor at a shower and dinner held at the Flesher Tea Room, Julian, last Wednesday evening. Guests present were: Miss Gertrude Osman, Miss Betty Bloom, Miss Ruth Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heverly, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ardery, Joseph Herman, and Ned Ray, all of Bellefonte, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Espenshade, of Millheim. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson were presented with a floor lamp.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, of Buffalo Run Valley, was elected president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Jackson-Crissman-Saylor Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Bellefonte, at a recent meeting of the organization held at the Post home on West Bishop street. Other newly-elected officers are as follows: Mrs. Lena Garis, senior vice president; Mrs. Candace Love, junior vice president; Mrs. Giovina Leitzell, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Richner, chaplain; Mrs. Barbara Kline, conductress; and Mrs. Grace Barnhart, trustee. The newly-elected officers will be installed at ceremonies to be held at the Post home, April 28.

—Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will attend their annual church service in a body this Sunday evening at the United Brethren church on West High Street, Bellefonte.

—After May 1, Dr. Eva B. Roan, optometrist, will devote all her time to her State College office. All broken lenses and repairs will be taken care of promptly, Mrs. Roan reports.

—Raymond Ammerman, for many years employed at the Montgomery store in Bellefonte, has accepted a clerical position at the new National Store which is to have its formal opening in Temple Court building tomorrow.

—Mrs. Charles R. Beatty, of East Curtin street, is in Chapel Hill, N. C., visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith, who recently became the parents of their first child, a daughter, Jane Beatty Smith, born in a Durham, N. C. hospital.

—Members of the Bellefonte Methodist church who attended meetings of the Central Pennsylvania Conference held in Harrisburg were: Mrs. M. Ward Fleming, Mrs. Charles McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tressler, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Stevens and Mrs. John Mokle.

—Dr. H. Paul Ashe, of Jersey Shore, a colonel in the U. S. Army Medical service, and Rev. Frederic Witmer, rector of St. Thomas church at Bethel, Conn., and an army chaplain, spent several hours last Wednesday in Bellefonte with James R. Hughes. Dr. Ashe is a former Bellefonte Academy student.

—Members of the Undine Fire Company were called to the home of Rev. C. Nevin Stamm, on North Spring Street, about 10 o'clock Monday morning when the flue caught fire. Although considerable heat was generated in the attic, the fire was extinguished with no damage to the home.

—W. F. Peters, aged resident of Milesburg, was a pleasant caller at this office, Friday, while in Bellefonte on a business and pleasure trip. Mr. Peters, who is 90 years of age, reports that he is the first child to be born in the village of Unionville, and that he was born in the first house built in that community.

—Mr. and Mrs. Otto Corman, of East Bishop Street, motored to Philadelphia during the weekend to attend the annual banquet Saturday night at the Majestic Hotel, of military police who served in the World War. Mr. Corman is a member of the organization, whose roster includes men from all parts of the United States.

Tinstman and daughter, Miss Cornelia, of Turtle Creek, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with Mrs. Tinstman's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Brachbill at their home in the Orvis apartments, East Curtin street. Upon their return home, Sunday, they were accompanied by Mrs. Brachbill, who will remain in Turtle Creek for a week or more.

—Patricia Rumberger was guest of honor at a party held Saturday afternoon by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rumberger, North Allegheny street, Bellefonte, in celebration of her 10th birthday. After attending the movies the guests went to the Rumberger home where refreshments were served. The following were present: Janet Gordon, Ann Hughes, June Williams, Alice Yeager, Virginia Miller, Eddie Miller, Danny Eberhart, Patsy Smith, and George DeLallo.

—Miss Freda Roan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nevin C. Jodon, of East Curtin street, a member of the senior class at the Bellefonte High school, suffered painful sprains about the right arm, Sunday night, when she tripped and fell on the steps in front of the Lutheran church after attending services there. At first it was feared that the arm had been broken, but no fractures were discovered in subsequent examinations. Miss Roan expects to be able to return to school today.

—The Bellefonte police car for the past two weeks has had a new official parking stall on the Diamond. A space is now reserved at the side of the Diamond restaurant instead of in front of the First National Bank. The new site has several advantages; it is nearby the telephone in the restaurant through which calls for police are received; it is in view of the red light in front of the restaurant, and it enables police to pursue speeding cars in either direction on Allegheny Street, or on High Street, without first turning around.

—Sgt. James Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, of Willowbank Street, returned home from Camp Shelby, Miss., last Thursday having completed his term of service. Wilson enlisted for a three-year term in Battery B, Bellefonte and when the Battery was called to camp, he was included, even though his enlistment period was nearing its end. Wilson reports that there are at present about 60,000 men at Camp Shelby and declares that it is difficult for anyone who hasn't been there to appreciate the mammoth size of the army post. For miles and miles, he said, there is nothing but rows of tents and other army structures. The weather is getting quite warm, and the soldiers are taking on the color of leather. Railroad distance from Bellefonte to Hattiesburg, Miss., near the camp, is figured at 1207 miles. Wilson on Monday morning returned to his post in the apprentice course at the Sutton Engineering Company plant here, a job he gave up temporarily when he was called to camp.

—Parents should take no chances with so important a matter as the vision of their children. Consult Dr. Howard F. Bauer, optometrist, Crossley Jewelry Store, Bellefonte. *

—Miss Emeline Eastland, of Portage, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex T. Brown, at their apartment in the Helen Schaeffer home on East Curtin Street.

—Clark N. Aikey returned to his duties with the Pennsylvania Railroad Friday, after having been confined to his home on North Spring Street several weeks because of an attack of pleurisy. Although he is working steadily, Mr. Aikey has not yet fully recovered from the effects of his illness.

—James J. Leitzell, commander of Jackson-Crissman-Saylor Post V. F. W.; William Garis, newly-elected commander of the Post; W. W. Hampton and Joseph Howard, spent Sunday in Johnstown attending a meeting of the third district and the Central Pennsylvania Association of the V. F. W.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, of North Penn street, are the parents of a son, their first child, born last Thursday at the Centre County Hospital. Mrs. Armstrong is the former Mary Hockenberry, daughter of Mrs. Rose Hockenberry, formerly of Bellefonte but now of Mill Hall. Mr. Armstrong is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armstrong, of Zion.

—Arthur Ward returned to his home in New York City, Sunday after spending a week in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. Belle Ward, at her home on East Curtin street. Mr. Ward came here with his mother, who had been with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Warren and family at Mamoroneck, N. Y., since the first of the year.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon A. Hoffman moved their household goods last Thursday from their apartment at State College, to the home of Mr. Hoffman's mother, Mrs. Bertha Hoffman, on North Allegheny Street, where they will make their future home. Mr. Hoffman expects to resume his duties in the newspaper business at State College within the next month or so.

—Mr and Mrs. William Whitehouse, of Willowbank Street, have made plans to move next week to Pittsburgh where Mr. Whitehouse has accepted a position with the sales force of a wholesale electrical appliance house. Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse have been located in Bellefonte for several years, Mr. Whitehouse being a member of the sales staff of the DeHaas Electric Company for the past year or more.

—Sheriff Edward R. Miller and a deputy yesterday took Cornelius Mason, Negro, to the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh to begin a 4 to 8-year term for his participation in the hold-up of the Hotel Philips, Philipsburg, in December, 1938. Mason was sentenced at a special session of court, Monday. He was arrested last week at Port Huron, Mich., where he had been living since shortly after the Philipsburg crime.

—Frederick Warner, superintendent of the American Lime and Stone Company here, who recently underwent a major operation at the Centre County Hospital, was discharged from that institution yesterday and is now at his home in the Furst apartments, East Linn Street. Although he is recovering steadily from the effects of the operation, it is expected that it will be some time before he has regained his strength.

—Miss Agnes Kellerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellerman of E. Bishop Street, and Jean Marie Mauser, both students at Immaculate College in Philadelphia, returned to school last Sunday after having spent their Easter vacation at the Kellerman home. Mr. and Mrs. Kellerman and sons William and Thomas drove them to Philadelphia, and also had as their driving guests, Mother M. Olivia and Sister M. Conrad who spent the weekend with Mother Olivia's mother, Mrs. William McGowan.

—Bellefonte has officially entered a team in the Tri-Valley Baseball League, and the team is scheduled to play its first game on Wednesday, May 30. The chief drawback is that the Bellefonte team is a purely mythical one at present, but its entrance fee has been paid and it is in good standing in the league. In order to make the team an actuality, all candidates for berths are urged to report at the first practice season which is to be held at the Community Athletic field on Friday evening. Whether Bellefonte is to have a community team this year, or not, depends largely on the turnout at the practice session tomorrow.

—Mrs. Paul S. Beaver, in charge of the music at St. John's Episcopal Church, together with the Rev. Robert H. Thomas 3rd, rector of the Church, have announced that there will be an especially fine musical program in the Church this Sunday afternoon at 4 when the boys' choir of Christ Church, Williamsport, will present "The Message from the Cross" by Macfarlane. The cantata is based upon the events leading up to and the Crucifixion of Christ. It is a brilliant modern setting and the text was compiled and arranged by the Rt. Ernest M. Stires, bishop of Long Island. Solos and choruses will describe the events in the story. John K. Zorian, F. A. G. O., is organist and choir director. The Rev. Mr. Thomas will be assisted by the Rev. Canon Stuart F. Gast, a former rector of the Parish, in the short service before the Cantata. The offering will be for the replacement of music destroyed in the Williamsport flood in 1937. Music lovers of the community are given a cordial invitation to attend this musical offering of St. John's Church.
