FARMERS SEEKING LOANS MAY FILE APPLICATIONS

Farmers wishing to obtain loans for the 1941 season from the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration should place their applications as soon as possible, Field Supervisor Louis Schucker announced yesterday.

He said a number of Centre County farmers have already taken opportunity of obtaining loans in order to pay cash for seed and fertilizer. Loans are made in amounts up to $400 and interest rate is four per cent. Mr. Schucker pointed out that the amount is governed by the acreage to be planted or livestock to be fed.

Mr. Schucker announced that he will be in Bellefonte at the County Agent's offiffice at 7 a. m. on Saturday, May 10, to receive applications.
