WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 19.

THE LADY ELGIN CALAMITY.—Up to Friday evening but 80 bodies of the 300 lost by the wreck of the Elgin had been recovered. The body of Capt. Wilson was found on Friday about two miles north of Gros Point. His watch, a silver pencil and gold pen, were found upon the body. The watch stopped at 8:45, and probably run after the brave officer went down. There was little in the features that could be identified, decomposition having been rapid, and the violence of the surf having marred the countenance. The body was sent to Coldwater, Mich., and the flags of shipping at Chicago were displayed at half mast.

Among the bodies recovered was that of a young daughter of Col. Lumsden, of New Orleans Picayune, and Willie Pomeroy, about 15 years of age, son of Fennimore C. Pomeroy, a school teacher in Milwaukee.

This boy was on the raft with Mr. Jervis of Milwaukee, who bears testimony to his unflinching courage. One of his comrades, Capt. Barry's son, was on the same raft, but died some three hours before it reached shore.—Little Willie still clung to the body, however, for more than an hour and expressed the determination to bring the body of his playmate ashore or die with him. The cruel surf, however, tore them apart.

Over one hundred bodies were seen floating in the Lake by vessels on Friday, but the wind was so high it was impossible to recover them. A tug was sent to search for them.

Only seven members of the Union Independent Guards escaped when the Elgin went down. There were five officers and thirty-three privates on board. But two of the Milwaukee City Band were saved.

The entire forward portion of the Elgin has been found riding at anchor about six miles off Winetka, manifestly not far from the exact spot of the disaster. It is stripped of all the upper works, and on the larboard side cut off just where the fatal blow came; on the other side the frames and planking run further back.—The hull is of course empty and naked. It was doubtless carried down with the engine, and, becoming released, has risen to ride at the anchors bent to the chain cables at the bow. It floats to mark the spot where many a brave and loving heart perished from earth.

HARVEST MOON.—The full moon which happens on the 29th inst., is the harvest moon, the theme of so much admiration and song in our climate. It derives its name from the agricultural economy of England. For several successive evenings about the time of the autumnal equinox, it rises at nearly the same hour, and pours its full radiance over the landscape, affording the husbandman an opportunity to extend his harvest labors into the evening hours. The arrival of the sun at the autumnal equinox when the moon is in the ascending node of its orbit and entering the first point of Aries, will produce a harvest moon under the most favorable circumstances. With the aid of a celestial globe the cause of the phenomenon may be seen by simple inspection.

When the full moon occurs on the 22d of September, and is rising in the east, the sun will be setting in the west, in the autumnal equinox. All that portion of the ecliptic then above horizon will be south of the celestial equator, and making the least possible angle with the southern horizon. As the orbit of the moon is but little inclined to the ecliptic, and the moon advances in it regularly at the rate of thirteen degrees per diem, the are passed over; from day to day, ascends above the horizon in about a quarter of an hour, while, at other seasons of the year, the same arc requires about an hour in its ascension.

The full moons which precede and follow the harvest moon—when that happens on the 22d of September—do not differ much from each other, in respect to rising; nor do they differ greatly from the harvest moon in the same respect. The full moon, following the harvest moon is known as the hunter's moon, it happening at the season of hunting in England.

DON'T FRET.—Two gardeners living side by side, had their early vegetables killed by the frost. One came over with a sorrowful face shortly afterwards, to condole with the other.

"How unfortunate we have been, neighbor," he said. "Do you know I have done nothing but fret ever since. But how is this, you seem to have a fine crop coming up already; what are these?"

"Why these are what I sowed directly after my loss. While you were fretting neighbor, I was working."

"Don't you ever fret?" asked the other in astonishment.

"I always put it off until I have repaired the mischief."

"Why, then you have no reason to fret at all?"

"That is very true, and is just the reason why I put it off."

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Misamenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.—Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills; price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

In all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Inflammations, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Croup, Rheumatism, and such eruptive diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Erysipelas, the advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

MOTHERS

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of

and why? because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP, also, for softening the gums, reducing inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic it is used with unfailing success in all cases of CONVULSION OR OTHER FITS. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Prepared only by

CHURCH & DUPONT, No. 409 Broadway, New York.

BLOOD FOOD

Healthy human Blood upon being always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the TRUE STANDARD. Analyze the Blood of a Person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiencies in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The BLOOD FOOD is founded upon this Theory—hence its astonishing success.

To all suffering from CONSUMPTION, incipient or confirmed, or from debility of any kind; or from mental or nervous prostration, brought on by any cause; or from scrofulous complaints; or from disease of the kidneys or bladder; and to ladies suffering any of the many distressing complaints their sex are liable to, and which engender consumption, the is offered as a certain and reliable remedy. Differing in every particular from the patent medicines of the day, it is a chemical combination of IRON, SULPHUR and PHOSPHORUS, of very great worth, and many hundreds bear glad and grateful testimony to the benefits it has conferred on them.

We have changed the color of the outside wrapper from red to yellow, and increased the size of the bottle to eight ounces. Be very cautious, in buying, to see that the fac simile of our signature is on the outside of the wrapper.

Price of the BLOOD FOOD $1 per bottle.

CELEBRATED KISSINGER WATER

RAKOCZI BRUNNEN,

From the Carlsbad Spa, Cincinnati, Ohio.

This celebrated water very much resembles that of the Congress Spring at Saratoga, but is about one-third stronger. It presents a happy combination of greatly purgative, depurative, alterative and tonic salts, and is especially indicated in all forms of dyspepsia, constipation, congestion of the liver and spleen, certain female disorders, and the sterility depending upon them.

It should be taken at the temperature of spring water and not ice cold; half a bottle full at a time every 10 or 15 minutes, at least half an hour before breakfast.
