I remember being much struck the first time I heard the application of that pretty Scottish saying regarding a fair bride. I was walking in Montrose, a day or two before her marriage, with a young lady, a connection of mine, when she was kindly accosted by an old friend, an honest fishwife of town:

"Weel, Miss Elizabeth, hae ye gotten a'yer claes ready."

To which the young lady modestly answered: "Oh, Janet, my claes are soon got ready."

And Janet replied in the old Scotch proverb: "Ay, weel, a bonny bride's aune buskit."

In the old collection, an addition less sentimental is made to this proverb, a short horse is soon whipsit.

Before leaving the question of change in Scottish expressions, it may be proper to add a few words on the subject of Scottish dialects—i. e., on the differences which exist in different countries or localities in the Scottish tongue itself. These differences used to be as marked as different languages, of course they still exist amongst the peasantry as before. The change consists in their gradual vanishing from the conversation of the educated and refined. The dialects with which I am most conversant, are the two which present the greatest contrast, viz: the Angus and the Aberdeen, or the slow and broad Scotch—the quick and sharp Scotch. While the one talks of 'bouts and shoon,' the other calls the same articles 'beens and sheen.' With the Aberdonian, 'what' is always 'fat' or fatten,' 'music' is 'meesic,' 'brutes' are 'breets' 'what are you doing' of Southern Scotch, in Aberdeen would be 'Fat are ye deeing?' Thus, when a Southerner mentioned the death of a friend, a sharp lady of the granite city asked 'Fat dee he o'?' which being utterly incomprehensible to the person asked, another Aberdeen lady kindly explained the question, and put into language which she supposed could not be mistaken, as thus, 'Fat did he dee o'?' 'Doing' and 'dying' being both Aberdonice 'deeing' gave rise to an amusing equivoque on the part of my esteemed friend Mr. R. Chambers. In the present summer (1859) there were few successful fields of turnips. Calling two friends, who were sufferers in this way, on a Brechin farmer who was amongst the fortunate exceptions, Mr. Chambers asked him about his turnips to which he answered, 'Ou, they're deeing rale weel,' when Mr. Chambers affecting to misunderstand as to the phraseology, turned to his two friends and remarked, 'You see it's a perishing crop everywhere.' Another indicrous interrogatory occurred regarding the death of Mr. Thomas Thomson. It appeared there two cousins of this name, both corpulent men. When it was announced that Mr. Thos. Thomson was dead, an Aberdeen friend of the family asked, 'Fatten Thamas Thamson?' He was informed that it was a fat Thomas Thomson, upon which the Aberdeen query naturally arose, 'Aye, but fatten fat Thamas Thamson?' A young lady from Aberdeen had been on a visit to Montrose, and was disappointed at finding there a great lack of beaux, and balls, and concerts. This lack was not made up to her by the invitations which she had received to dinner parties. And she thus expressed her feelings on the subject in her native dialect, when asked how she liked Montrose, 'Indeed, there's neither men nor meesic, and fat care for meat?' The dialect and the local feelings of Aberdeen were said to have produced some amusement in London, when displayed by the lady of the Provost of Aberdeen when accompanying her husband going up officially to the capital. Some persons to whom she had been introduced—recommended her going to the opera as one of the sights worthy the attention of a stranger. The good lady, full of the greatness of her situation as wife of the Provost, and knowing the sensation her appearance in public occasioned when in her own city, and supposing that a like excitement would accompany her with the London public, rather declined under the modest plea, 'Fat for should I gang to the opera, just to creat a confusion.'—[Dr. Ramsey.

DIGESTION.—There are many shining qualities in the mind of man but none so useful as discretion. It is this, indeed, which gives a value to all the rest, and turns them to the advantage of their possessor. Without it, learning is pedantry, wit, impertinence; and virtue itself looks like weakness; and the best parts only qualify a man to be more sprigly in error and active in his own prejudices.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The Pittsburgh DAILY GAZETTE has a large circulation among the business men in this and the surrounding cities—among those who BUY and who SELL—all among manufacturers and producers. It may be found in nearly all the counting rooms, store houses, banking houses, hotels, factories and counting houses in the two cities, where it is read and carried home to the families for perusal. As a medium for advertising, therefore, it offers inducements which no other paper in Western Pennsylvania can offer, to all who desire to reach this large class of our citizens. THE WEEKLY GAZETTE and the tri-weekly have a much larger circulation in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia—among substantial farmers and merchants, than any other secular paper in this section of the State.

THE DAILY GAZETTE is the oldest Newspaper in the City, and having an extensive circulation among the business men, and reaching all classes, it offers inducements to advertisers as the best medium through which to reach the public.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is issued every Wednesday and Saturday, on a large blanket sheet, and contains in addition to the news of the week, a carefully prepared and valuable report of the Markets, commercial and monetary affairs, making it the best Commercial Newspaper in the West.

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC Preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Chlorine by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Incontinence of the blood, depression of nervous energy, pale and others in sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Instances in all varieties in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Stamen-strumitis, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten by their every neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just return from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, convicted victims of apparent consumption, languidness, exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of diseases and opposite aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no cause.

In nervous Affections of all kinds, and for remove familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron is marvellously be salutary, for, unlike the old order, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overbearing and equally regularly aperient, even in the most constipated case of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this character, properly, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy in Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills (but often) is found to be the most beneficial cure, yield in a few attendant Gentlemen.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, exceedingly and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent fever, which generally indicate, in incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of families cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and medicinal, in the same peculiarity thing them.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, designed to be the most effectual Alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Pure Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, ABSCESSES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions, and tetrous sores, through which the system will seek to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and trust to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is indicated to cure. In order to insure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
LOWELL, MASS.

Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to record the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people it is equally kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratuitous AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best all there is for them, and they should have it.
