HOWARD

Mrs. Joseph Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pezick and son Cecil Gross, spent the weekend at Chester and Philadelphia. Mrs. Allison returned Sunday, while Mr. and Mrs. Pezick remained for a few days. Mr. Pezick is expecting employment at Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weber and family spent the weekend at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Kate Weber.

Robert McCaleb, who has been stationed at Fort Bragg, near Fayettsville, N. C., has received an honorable discharge from the U. S. Army, being injured by a kick from a mule, incapacitating him for service. He is visiting at present with friends in Howard and vicinity and expects to go to Altoona in the near future and make hit home with relatives.

Mrs. Donald B. Gardner, wife of local postmaster Donald Gardner, was admitted to the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte, as an observation and x-ray patient, several days last week.

Miss Marjorie Painter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Painter, was admitted to the Bellefonte Hospital and submitted to an appendectomy operation last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Depuy of New York City, and Mrs. Depuy's sister, Mrs Russell Confer, of Milesburg, visited another sister, Mrs. Harry Butler, Wednesday.

Misses Marguerite DeLong, Julia Spear and William Brouse of Bellefonte, were entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Eckdahl at a social evening in honor of their son, Carrol, who will leave Saturday for the U. S. Army, to be stationed at New Cumberland at first. A spaghetil supper was served and other guests were Rev. Wallace J. Cummings, Harry and Carolyn Ekdahl, and aunt, Miss Carrye Butler.

Mrs. Ancil Tipton of Howard, R. D., was admitted to the Centre County Hospital at Bellefonte, Sunday.

Twenty members of the Senior class of Howard High School, chaperoned by Mr. Masterson of the high school faculty, motored to Washington, D. C., Thursday, leaving at midnight, arriving at Washington Friday morning three hours late on account of a burned out connecting rod. They were transported to another bus at Mt. Union. The class made the trip this time of the year instead of at the close of the term due to closing of government buildings to visitors after this month. About 10 of the Senior class of Hublersburg High made the trip at the same time.

Harold Kline, Marlin Long, of Howard, and Alfred Mann of Howard, R. D., were home over the weekend.

Russell Fyke of Camp Lee, Va., is home on a few days' furlough visiting his wife at this place and parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fyke of Nittany Valley.

Miss Genevieve Nyman, 14-year-old daughter of Mrs. Frank Nyman of Orviston, passed away at the Philipsburg Hospital Sunday evening at 7:30. A post-mortem found cause of death to be a tumor of the brain. Miss Nyman had been a patient in several hospitals for some months past. Her father, Frank Nyman, was killed in an automobile accident recently. The body was brought to the Neff funeral home to be prepared for burial.

The Commercial Telephone Company moved the exchange from the Kline building, corner Main and Walnut streets, Tuesday of last week to the property recently purchased by Mac Zimmerman, opposite the Methodist church on upper Main street. Mrs. Zimmerman has operated the exchange for several years, which has been in the Kline building for the past 35 years.

The Civic Club met Friday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall, with Miss Elnora Wright and Miss Nelle Webber as chairman. Entertainment was Red Cross work, with demonstrations given by the first aid nursing class, with eighteen members of the class present. Certificates were presented the members of the class by Miss Rimmey, Red Cross nurse and chairman of the Bellefonte Chapter. A demonstration was given by one of the first aid classes. Guests were Miss Rimmey, Mrs. B. J. Beezer, Mrs. Emerick and Mrs. Minnie Kirk. The business meeting followed in which three new members were voted in, namely: Mrs. Virginia Allison, Miss Alberta Williams, and Mrs. Eleanor Confer. It was decided to have an egg hunt at the next meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Herbert Pletcher and Mrs. Harry Butler. The club gave a farewell party for Mrs. Lena Bulkley Monday evening at her home, and presented her with a beautiful pocketbook and gloves in navy blue. Cards and chinese checkers were played, and a covered dish supper was served. The Bulkleys moved Wednesday to Johnson City to make their future home with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bulkley.

The Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church entertained at a group meeting in the social rooms of the church, Monday evening the Bellefonte and State College divisions, seventy members being present. An excellent program was rendered after the business meeting. A social hour was enjoyed by all, light refreshments being served by the Howard Youth group.

The evangelistic meetings planned to begin last Sunday evening at the Howard Church of Christ have been postponed until next Sunday, March 15, because of the illness of the pastor, Rev. M. S. Rogers. The sermons for the week are as follows: Sunday evening, "Can God Bless America?" Monday evening, "Highway Religion"; Tuesday evening, "Power on a Hill"; Wednesday evening, "The Victory of a Tragedy"; Thursday evening, "Religion That Will Send a Man to Hell"; Friday evening, "Who Is Boss at Your House?" Special music will be provided.

The Rhoden family living on the Samuel Diehl farm, moved Tuesday to the Hannon place at the east end of Howard, recently purchased by Harry DeArment.

Mrs. Emma Kaseman spent several days in Williamsport last week with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings visited Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cummings at Shippensburg.

Mrs. M. F. Waite, daughters Carolyn and Peggy of Tyrone, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Waite's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Confer and her sister, Miss Freda Confer.

Last week's news stated Rev. Wallace J. Cummings was instructing a class in public speaking at the local high school. At a meeting of the School Board Monday evening of last week, one of the directors objected to this subject being taught in the school, giving as his reason that Rev. Cummings was not a qualified teacher, not taking into consideration that Rev. Cummings was not receiving remuneration for his services, and the class was not given credits for this subject. A second director assented to the objection. The pupils, eleven in number, are much interested in this subject and wish to continue and are arranging for the class to meet outside of the school and school hours with Rev. Cummings as instructor.

Ben Vonada of Chester, returned to his home in Jacksonville Saturday to spend the week with his father, E. E. Vonada, who is in declining health, and brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vonada. Ben will leave Saturday for the U. S. Army and will be inducted at the reception center at New Cumberland.
