

RECENT WEDDINGS

Hartman-Boyer Theodore Hartman and Elizabeth Boyer, both of State College, were married in the State College Methodist Church on Saturday evening May 26. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hartman are now at their home, 527 S. Pugh Street, State College.

2:30 p.m., June 9. The double ring ceremony took place in the Gables Lutheran Church, with the Rev. G. R. Groninger officiating before an altar decorated with gladioli, seasonal flowers and candelabra.

Traditional wedding music, including "On Wings of Song", "O Promise Me", "Through the Years" and "Always" was played by Roy Clair Buck, of State College, organist. Edward Gingham, of Pleasant Gap, accompanied by Mrs. G. R. Groninger, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because".

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white satin with a small train, fitted bodice, full gathered skirt, high neckline, lace yoke and long lace sleeves ending in points at the wrists.

A reception for 150 guests was given at the Bellefonte Community Hall following the ceremony. Serving as aides were Miss Eleanor Albright, State College; Mrs. Janet Kellerman, Boalsburg; Miss Edna Schilling, Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Betty Jane Powley, Miss Catherine Jones and Miss Shirley Tompkins, Pennsylvania Furnace, and Miss Freda Burns, Warriors Mark RD.

After the reception the couple left on a weekend trip. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Peters was graduated from State College high school and until her marriage was secretary of the borough of State College. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Penn State at commencement exercises Monday, has accepted a position with the Sun Oil Co. in Marcus Hook, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters left for a two weeks' wedding trip to southern Pennsylvania and Maryland. They plan to reside temporarily at the bridegroom's parents on their return.
