MILES KING ELECTED HEAD OF STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of the Centre Hall-Potter High School organized and began its fall activities last week with the election of this executive committee: president, Miles King; vice president, Adaline Goodhart; secretary, Myra Confer, and treasurer, Dale Confer.

Other council members include the president and one other member from each class: senior, Isabel Emery, president, and C. William Boozer, Jr., junior; William Reese, president, and Donald Ross; sophomore, Grace Hackett, president, and Jacqueline Heiser; and freshmen, Joseph Rimmey, president, and Alice Dutrow.

Among activities planned for the term are a round robin ping-pong tournament and a social activities calendar for the year. This committee will be responsible for the ping-pong: William Reese, Martha Spyker, Dean Ross and Paul Bradford, Jr.

The activities calendar will be compiled by: Joyce Bradford, Eldon Whitman, Beulah Bradford, Donnis Heiser, Gloria Brooks and Esther Blazer.

The council also appointed this committee to be in charge of the records and dancing at noon: Ruth Hackett, David Boozer, Jean Hanna and Geraldine Rockey.

REPORT SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF AIRCRAFT SPOTTERS

Jack Coldron, chief observer for the local aircraft warning service, and Garman Matter, assistant chief, are making a plea for additional volunteers for spotting duty, noting that only 66 persons are now available, and 112 are needed for complete coverage.

Those who spotted this week are: Bruce Knarr, V. A. Auman, John T. Delaney, Robert Ziegler, W. H. Kerlin, Jack Coldron, Garman A. Matter, Rev. W. K. Hosterman, Mrs. John Martz, Mrs. D. M. Bradford, W. A. Alexander, Mrs. Harry Potter, D. M. Bradford, J. W. Bradford, Ray Puff, C. William Boozer, Jr., Miss Anna Mae Martz, Miss Kathryn Martz, Russell Bohn, Rev. C. C. Otto, R. S. Jamison, Ralph Walls, Roy Uhl, Mrs. George Sweeney, and Harry Potter.

A different group of persons whose names will appear here next week, will be on duty from October 26 to Nov. 1. Some shifts from Monday through Friday are arranged for the convenience of housewives: 9 to 11; 11 to 1; 1 to 4; and 4 to 6. Persons go on duty only every two weeks.

Also for the convenience of the volunteers, the room is comfortably heated and a listening device provided for detecting indoors any approaching aircraft.

DISCUSS CHANGES IN PTA DURING WAR TIMES

A discussion on possible plans for a change in the Parent-Teacher Association organization for the duration of the war, occupied considerable time in the October business meeting, Monday evening in the Centre Hall-Potter school building.

No decision was reached but Mrs. John Delaney, president, appointed this committee to get a survey of member opinions for the next meeting: Russell Bohn, Mrs. Ralph Luse, Mrs. John Slack, Mrs. Ralph Hagan, and David I. Graybill.

The Rev. C. C. Otto, in charge of devotions at this meeting, read the scripture and spoke to the group.

Entertainment consisted of a group of four songs by pupils in Miss Geraldine Hoover's third and fourth grades: "A Golden Boat I'll Buy You," "A Mid-Summer Night" and two Hallowe'en songs.

The association also voted to subscribe five dollars to the United Service Organization.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO SEND GIFTS TO SOLDIERS

At a special meeting of the Centre Hall-Potter Alumni Association last Wednesday evening, the members present gave their unanimous sanction to the activities of a committee appointed several weeks ago to send Christmas gifts to alumni in the U. S. armed forces.

In addition, the group recommended that the gifts sent overseas should not be restricted to graduates only but should be sent also to any of the boys who have ever attended the Centre Hall-Potter High School.

Committee members are: Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, chairman, Mrs. Bob Wetzel and Mrs. Paul Breon.

The treasurer, Fred Luse, reported a balance of $196.34.

The members present also favored the continuation of the traditional Christmas banquet and dance, despite the war.

LIONS' CLUB FARMERS NIGHT HELD AT CENTRE HALL

"Why Some Farmers Make Money While Others Do Not" was the subject of an address by Dr. Earl Moffitt, director of Farm Management at the Pennsylvania State College, at a "Farmers' Night" meeting of the Centre Hall Lions' Club Tuesday evening.

Ralph Blaney, county agent, introduced the speaker as part of an after-dinner program following the banquet, served in the Grange Hall by the women of Progress Grange.

Approximately thirty farmers attended this meeting as the guests of the Lions.

At a board of director's meeting after the program, plans were made for the erection of an honor roll including the names of all service men from Centre Hall and Potter township.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS TALK ON RAYON MANUFACTURE

Miss Ruth Hertzler, speaking on the Crown Tested Fabrics and the Viscose process of rayon manufacture, addressed the Woman's Club at the October meeting Tuesday evening in the high school building. Miss Hertzler, who represents the American Viscose Corporation in Lewistown, illustrated her talk by using a sound track film of the rayon processes.

As part of the business meeting Mrs. John B. Wert, Jr., chairman, gave a report of a committee on conservation, noting the forest, water, and recreational facilities of this community and suggesting possible improvements.

Besides other routine business, the organization appropriated twenty-five dollars to the USO drive.

A committee of the following hostesses served refreshments appropriate to Hallowe'en: Mrs. George Sweeney, Mrs. D. C. Mitterling, Mrs. C. W. Boozer, Mrs. George Stover and Mrs. W. F. Keller.

TEACHES NAVY FLIERS TO "LIVE OFF THE LAND"

Don Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, one of Centre county's well known sportsmen, is putting his knowledge of the out-doors to good use in Uncle Sam's Navy.

He is teaching future Navy fliers at the Pre-Flight Training Base at Chapel Hill, N. C., to "live off the land." He shows them how to make use of natural foods and cover in the event they are forced down in wild country.

The county hunter and fisherman has recently been promoted from lieutenant junior grade to lieutenant.
