THE newspapers of the city have unanimously agreed upon this advance in the price of advertising.

They have been forced into it by the increased price of everything that enters into the cost of making up a newspaper. Composition has just advanced 5 cents per 1000 ems, and the increase in the price of white paper alone is sufficient to justify the change in the prices of advertising. Since the time of the first change in advertising rates, prices of labor and material have nearly doubled, and the only alternative of the newspaper publishers, at present is to double their dealers do, in similar circumstances. Even as it is, although we are doing as much for materials, and labor as any papers in other Western cities, the rates of advertising given above are twenty-five per cent. below those charged in Cincinnati and elsewhere.

CHILI AND SPAIN.

The people of the United States are informed of the belligerent course of the Spanish monarchy towards the republic of Chili; but are not generally posted as to the pretexts by which that course is excused or justified. To remedy this defect of information, the Chilian representatives in Europe have published in pamphlet form the essential portion of the correspondence between the governments on the subject matters in controversy.

From these diplomatic letters it appears that the Spanish minister to Chili, made, in May last, eleven distinct complaints, most of these were trivial; as that the Spanish flag displayed at his residence had been insulted by cries from the populous; that the newspapers had commented tartly on the conduct of Spain towards Peru, and that not been suppressed; that a Spanish national vessel had experienced difficulty in procuring a supply of coal; that Chilians who had emigrated to Peru with a view to entering the military service of that power, had not been arrested; and that some horses purchased in Chili had been taken into Peru.

Under date of May 16th, the Chilian Minister of Foreign Affairs replied to each of these eleven charges with great circumstantiality and fullness; and to such effect that the Spanish Minister, on May 20th, expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the explanations.

September 17th a Spanish squadron arrived, and the Admiral re-produced those same eleven complaints and demanded, in the name of his government, ample satisfaction. In case this was withheld, he announced his intention to exercise measures of hostility against the republic.

The mechanics of redress he required were not forthcoming, and hence the hostilities Spain has waged against Chili.

No fair-minded person can read the official documents referred to, and not be impressed with the fact that the reason assigned by Spain for her aggressions on Chili are insubstantial, if not frivolous. There was at least a desire to humiliate the republic, and perhaps an intention to make a conquest of it.

Reconstruction of Mississippi.

If we are to believe the accounts received from Mississippi, the leaven of loyalty is not working to a very encouraging extent in that reconstructed State. A correspondent, writing from Jackson, on the 6th inst., concerning the negro, says:

"I will not attempt to record or even to enumerate the abuses of which I have knowledge. Whippings without mercy, tying up by the thumbs, beating with clubs, pounding with pistols, cutting with knives, shooting, and in every way maltreating and sometimes murdering. This statement sounds harshly, but certified records will prove its dreadful truth. All it would be safe to say that but a small minority of these cases are ever reported; and of all that are reported, the majority are so light of it in the diary line of official records. It is not my purpose to excite any unfeeling toward Southern people, but will simply chronicle facts and leave every one to form his own conclusions.

"He states also, that if a negro dare make the least step away, he is soon on his way to immortality. The President's Bureau is shorn of its power, while the military, with its small and scattered garrison, cannot afford adequate protection. Amid this distraction of the prevailing sentiment, a number of Federal soldiers have recently been killed by citizens, and the murderers have gone unpunished."

The correspondent from whom we have quoted says, in one instance, the civil authorities refused to permit a military detail to arrest the murderers of a soldier, and by the time the detail was ordered, the culprits had been spirited away. A few weeks since an old man, a good, loyal citizen, who had been forced to leave the country on account of his Union sentiments, returned to his home near Philadelphia. In a few days afterward he was murdered, not for money or revenge, but simply for being a Union man. No one seemed to care. The civil authorities took no cognizance of the affair; there was not even a Coroner's inquest.

To secure pardons, obtain seats in Congress, save their property from confiscation, and get everything under their control, comprises the sum total of the aims and labors of the Mississippians.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

LOYALTY IN KENTUCKY.—Persons now in Washington, recently from Kentucky, declare it as their firm belief that the Legislature will elect John C. Breckinridge to the United States Senate, if they feel that it is safe to do so. The last time he attempted, to enter Washington was at the head of an army of rebels. Now he takes the more polite way of re-introducing himself to congressional circles, by getting the credentials of a Senator from the doubtful State of Kentucky.

THE AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION.—It has leaked out that the Federal office-holders, in Connecticut, Postmasters, Revenue Collectors, Tide-waiters, etc., are making strenuous efforts to get possession of the Union State Convention which is to assemble at Hartford on February 14. The intention is to have resolutions passed there indorsing the President's reconstruction policy whatever that may be; to instruct the Congressional delegation of the State to vote for the early re-admission of Tennessee, and generally to have the Union party of Connecticut put forth a platform calculated to secure the movers in the possession of their places. Senator Dixon left Washington for New York a few evenings since, it is believed for the purpose of conferring with a delegation from Connecticut office-holders upon the measures to be adopted to insure the success of this movement; and especially the platforms to be adopted.

EXPULSION TO THE SOUTHERN STATES.—The House Committee on Freedmen's Affairs or a portion of the members will shortly visit some of the Southern States. The Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company has tendered to the use of a special train from Washington to Lynchburgh. Representative Kelly, in reply to the President of the Road, thanks him for his kindness and says the committee will name an early day for the proposed tour of observation.

Divorces by Wholesale.

We have noticed in some of our exchanges lately advertisements of "Divorces legally procured without trial," "Private consultations on divorces," &c. Western papers give some explanation of these nuisances. The Fort Wayne Gazette remarks that the annulling of marriages has become an immense business in Indiana, and asserts that "associations have been formed in the larger cities, with agencies throughout the Western States, especially in Indiana, to procure divorces for all imaginable persons, and for all imaginable causes, or for no cause whatever."

The St. Louis Dispatch thus describes the method of procedure: "It is done in this wise. A man in New York gets tired of his wife, and taking a divorce calls on the agency in that city, and arranges simply the fee he is to pay. All else is left to the agency. The case is sent to an Indiana lawyer, who commences proceedings, alleging in the complaint a half-a-dozen sufficient causes, not one of which is true; the case is referred to another of the same class of lawyers, who reports, without hearing a word of evidence in favor of the divorce; the court sees it is all right on the record, and unsuspectingly grants the proceedings and decrees the divorce. A copy of the record is forwarded to the New York agency, and the injured husband, who has been living at home with his unsuspicious wife, coolly informs her he has procured a divorce, and desires her to find another home and quite way for the new wife."

GENERAL NEWS.

NEAR the close of the session of the British Parliament a bill was introduced for clearing the statute book of all acts and ordinances, such as laws which have become inoperative from various causes. The period covered by this bill extends from the revolution of 1688 to the 10th of George III, the bill marked for repeal was passed in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, and was entitled "for the preservation of white and other pine trees growing in her Majesty's colonies of New Hampshire, the Massachusetts Bay and Province of Maine, Rhode Island and Providence Plantation, the Narragansett country, or King's Province, and Connecticut, in New England and New York and New Jersey, in America, for the navy use of her Majesty's navy."

SALE OF THE HOME OF HENRY CLAY.—We learn by Kentucky papers that "Ashland," the home of the great statesman and patriot Henry Clay, has been purchased by the Trustees of the Kentucky University, at a cost of $30,000. The farm contains about 225 acres of the best land in the bluegrass region of Kentucky, and has acquired a national reputation from its having been connected with the history of the departed statesman.

The Kentucky Agricultural school, which is under the patronage of the state, as well as the other schools of the University, will be established at Ashland, and it is proposed to begin the improvements on a most extended scale.

MR. A. T. STEWART, of New York, performed a disagreeable but imperative public duty on Saturday, in causing the arrest of Messrs. G. W. Matsell and W. Sickelles, editors and proprietors of the National Police Gazette, on a charge of libel in that they had in last week's issue of their sheet, held him up to reproach and ridicule, anonymity, as having involved himself in a disreputable intimacy with a prostitute from Pike's Opera Bouffe. It is stated that the detectives deny that their scandalous article referred to Mr. Stewart; but no citizen who read it would doubt that he was the person intended. If he was not, the fact will appear on their trial.

We learn from the Springfield Republican that the manufacturers in Northern Berkshire will commence next spring to build a large reservoir for the collection and preservation of a sufficient quantity of water to maintain an average flow and supply during the year. They have purchased a large amount of land in Cheshire and Lanesborough, and will build the dam in Cheshire and will flow some 1,800 acres of land. The enterprise will cost about $100,000, but it will very largely increase the water power of the manufacturers in Williamstown, Pownal, Cheshire and Adams, and will prove a profitable investment for them.

A Chicago paper says that a demented individual named Henry Ashley, with unwashed face and unkempt locks, wearing dilapidated garments and a seedy air generally, was picked up in the street on Sunday by officer Shippy, while preaching the near approach of the Judgment Day and its terrors, and praying in the slush and snow for the regeneration of wicked Chicago. He stated that he had left a wife and family in Saratoga county, New York, but he says that the Lord told him in a vision that "the days are the dark days on earth, and that, like Jonas to the Ninevites, he must go and preach to the Chicagoans."

SINCE the French troops have been withdrawn from the papal States, brigandage has so much increased that the British Government has deemed it wise to warn British subjects that travelling in certain districts is very perilous. It is quite as perilous in some portions of the old kingdom of Naples. The brigands capture men not only to rob them, but also to extort sums for the ransom of the prisoners.

AT Berlin and London the longest day has sixteen hours and a half; at Stockholm, eighteen hours and a half; at Hamburg, seventeen hours; at St. Petersburg, nineteen hours; at Tornea, Finland, twenty-one hours and a half; at Wahderhaus, Norway, the day lasts, without interruption, from the 21st of May to the 23d of July; and at Spitzbergen the longest day continues for three months and a half. At Hamburg the shortest day has seven hours; at St. Petersburg, five hours; at Tornea, two hours and a half.

A LADY who was coming from Montreal to Portland, had bought a love of silk at the former place, and after entering the cars, a custom-house officer asked her if she had anything that required examination. Very innocently she produced her valise, the silk lying in heap all the while, done up in coarse brown paper, and asked the officer to hold that parcel while she exhibited the contents of the valise. The innocent victim, not suspecting that common-looking parcel offering an offer, allowed her to go on her way rejoicing.

A MEMPHIS newspaper correspondent makes the following remarks about Corinth: "This place is rapidly improving. A very large hotel and numerous business houses are in course of erection, and the population is rapidly increasing. Before the war Corinth had a population of about three thousand, and it was remarkable for its good health. Already much of the town has been rebuilt, and the population is estimated at 2,000."

SOMETHING LIKE A BANKRUPT.—Strange revelations are often made in the Court of Bankruptcy, and one of the strangest came out in London, recently, in the case of Lyon Levine, one of the partners in the bank-note firm of Levine & Morris. According to his admission, the firm began business with a capital of £20, and in about three years they failed with liabilities to the amount of £230,000, or considerably more than a quarter of a million.

THE emancipation of slaves in Brazil, and the Parliament is now occupied with the consideration of measures increasing their privileges, looking to emancipation as early as the interest of the country will allow. The Government has long been extremely desirous of putting an end to the external slave trade, and its cruisers have effectually abolished it. The Brazilians are said to be anxious to see slavery extinguished from their shores.

THE manufacturing enterprise of Pennsylvania was never as lively as at the present. The latest exhibition of energy in this section is that of the capitalists of Bellfonte, Centre county, who are about to erect an immense establishment for the manufacture of Bessemer steel from Spring creek. The Central Press says that all the arrangements for the works have been made, and that they will be in operation in a very short time.

PHILADELPHIA, Saturday, Jan. 30.—The ship Lancaster sailed for Antwerp this morning, with the largest cargo of petroleum ever taken from the United States in one vessel, viz: 5,873 barrels, containing 209,10 gallons of refined and 66,115 gallons of crude oil, valued at over $200,000.

JOHN SEAVERS, of Portsmouth, N. H., accomplished the feat in that city, last week, of walking 100 miles in 100 hours, without sleep, completing the task on Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Seavers is now, as he expresses it, "almost as good as new." This is said to be the first time this feat was ever successfully undertaken.

THE Albany and Susquehanna Railroad has been completed to within two miles of Otsego, Otsego county. It is delayed at this point by the incompleteness of a bridge on the Susquehanna river. The bridge will, however, soon be finished, and then the road will be pushed along to Unadilla, reaching that place about the 1st of March.

C. M. CLARKE, cashier of the Bank of Rhode Island, while skating from Edgewood Pond, at Newport, found the handle of a silver coffee-pot protruding from the ice. Thinking to further prospecting, and the result was the discovery of a small silver mine, in the shape of a jug filled with jewelry stolen from the residence of Miss Morse of Newport several months ago.

THE New Orleans Picayune states that nearly one-half of the German immigrants who lately arrived in that city from New York, under contract to work on a plantation in the interior, have refused to fulfill the engagement, and remain in the city, hoping to secure higher wages. The contractor is out of pocket to the amount of their passage money, which, according to agreement, he had paid.

Producing Flowers.

To secure a continuous bloom of the tuberose, the first roots should be started in January, in a temperature not less than 40 degrees, and if kept regularly not below that temperature, they will flower in May. Those that are wanted to flower out doors, and which are of most interest to general readers, should be started in a green house, hot-bed, or warm room, not sooner than the first of May, and planted out in the flower borders three or four weeks after; thus treated they will begin to bloom in August, and continue in bloom three or four months. In warmer sections of the country there is no necessity for the forwarding treatment, as there dry bulb planted out in May will flower during the autumn months. For a later succession of flowers, say for the months November, December and January, the bulbs should be kept dry and planted by the first or middle of August; these of course, must be grown in the hot bed or green house, as the tuberose is a plant requiring at all times a high temperature. The beauty and fragrance of this flower will repay the little care required to produce it.

AYER'S AGUE CURE, for the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Pleurisy, Bilious Fever, Relief for the whole class of diseases originating in Miasmatic Emanations, as the fruits of malarious countries.
Fevers and Agues are not only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its introduction, the most fatal among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Bilious Colic, Pleurisy, Enteritis, Dropsy, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteria, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, General Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, assume the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Ague" poison lurks in the blood, and then cures them all alike. It is not only the most certain and effectual remedy for the cure of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover, the safest. Not a few cures are after fevers, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as he would have been had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? Not a case of this, and the importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So severe is it, that years have passed, and it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. The injurious properties of the ordinary antidotes to it will cease, but bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by R. A. FARNESTOCK'S SON & CO., and by all druggists.
